Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.

RICHARD STUART.

H. Gardiner,

TEACHER OF NAVIGATION, LUNAR OBSERVATIONS, &c. &c.

No. 15, GEORGE-STREET, FELL'S-POINT,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has moved from No. 40, to No. 15, George-street, in that large and commodious three-story brick house, nearly opposite captain Tenant's, where he still continues teaching all those branches useful to the merchant, or that can form the commander, and instruct the mechanic.

Boarding and lodging in the house, if required.

Mr. Gardiner feels himself too gratefully affected by the kind and liberal patronage he has received from some of the inhabitants of Fell's-Point, to make use of any pompous eulogy in return. Suffice it to say, it is too deeply impressed in his memory ever to be eradicated.

The Subscriber

Offers the following VALUABLE PROPERTY for sale, or will barter for property in or near the city of Baltimore:

One two-story brick House and large lot, near the public square in Hager's-town, well finished, with the necessary out buildings and a good garden.

One frame two-story House adjoining the former, and on a 12 feet alley.

One one-story log House, together with one lot and an half of ground on one of the back streets; also, one other lot, unimproved.

307 acres of Land lying in Washington county, about three miles from Potomak river; on this tract of land are two tenements, and about eighty acres of clear land under good fence, and some valuable meadow ready made, would suit well for a stock farm, having a very extensive range.

58 acres of Land lying in same county, about four miles from Hancock-town, well timbered, with some good meadow; also, 36 acres nearly adjoining the aforesaid tract, well timbered.

Two tracts of Land lying in Prince George's county, containing 70 acres, nearly opposite to Alexandria, and within three miles of the Federal city; one of which tracts is improved, the other in woods.

One tract lying in Fayette county, state of Pennsylvania, about one mile from Union or Beeson-town (the county town); on this tract are good improvements, viz. a house, stables and barn newly finished, and a large garden well fenced in; there are about 80 acres clear land, the rest of the track abounds with valuable timber, and contains 145 acres. There are also on the premises a valuable mine of stone coal, and easy to come at, not being more than three feet under the surface, also a valuable quarry of stone.

1000 acres of first-rate Land, upon the waters of Middle Island, and about one mile and an half from the Ohio river, unimproved.

400 acres about four miles from the former, well improved.

364 acres adjoining the above, well improved.
1000 acres adjoining the above, well improved.
400 acres adjoining the above, unimproved.
450 acres adjoining Gregg's mill, on Middle Island, well timbered.
349 acres adjoining the above, well improved.
1000 acres in Fayette county, state of Kentucky, on the North Fork of Licking, 8 miles from the town of Washington, well wooded and watered.

The above lands, lying on the western waters, are an object to any person who wishes to reside there, the soil being so rich that from 80 to 100 bushels of corn have been produced from an acre; besides they abound with the finest timber for ship building, &c. which has become an object; and as they were taken up and patented many years ago, the titles are clear of all disputes. Any person wishing to get farther information respecting them, will apply to captain John Lee, residing in the town of Wheeling.

WILLIAM LEE.
