Late provost of the university of Pennsylvania, and senior pastor of the first Presbyterian congregation in Philadelphia.

It is also intended to publish, by subscription, a selection of his Sermons, on the most evangelical and instructive subjects, at the earnest solicitation of a large portion of his stated hearers; as also, of a number of friends, eminent for their taste in elegant composition and sound doctrine.

Eulogy is intentionally avoided here. Gentlemen who wish to be possessors of the valuable works of the late Dr. Ewing, are respectfully invited to call and examine the proposals early, as the number of subscribers required is only 400—and to non-subscribers, the price will be considerably raised.

A CARD.

H. O. HEBERT (from Philadelphia) solicits the attention of the citizens of Baltimore in general, and invalids in particular, to his "Air Pump Vapour Bath," a machine constructed on true philosophical principles, the efficacy of which in gout, rheumatism, palsy, contractions and enlargements of joints, withered and enlarged limbs, cutaneous and many other diseases, both chronic and acute, can be testified by many respectable persons who have had recourse to it.

This machine comprehends and combines the application of fomentation and the cupping glass, two of the most powerful external applications for the removal of disease, and that on a plan more extensive than was ever before known.

As many persons who have never seen the apparatus might be deterred from using it, either from the reports of prejudiced persons, or fear, they are respectfully assured that its application is not attended with either pain or inconvenience—It possesses all the good effects of warm bathing, without its attendant consequences, debility and relaxation; on the contrary, it invigorates and strengthens the whole system, but particularly the part to which the machine is applied. Persons desirous of further information respecting the nature and effects of this machine, will please to apply to the proprietor, at No. 3, East-street, near the assembly-room.

N. B. "The Air Pump Vapour Bath" is particularly adapted for the removal of all obstructions occasioned by violent colds, which are the forerunners of consumptions, &c.

Complaints peculiarly incident to females, which too generally baffle the remedies hitherto applied, and to which they frequently fall victims in the prime of life, are readily and effectually removed by the application of this machine.

Patent Horizontal Wind-Mill.

THE subscriber offers to the gentlemen farmers and others of Maryland, and the other states, an invention, which for utility has not been exceeded by any piece of mechanism which this or perhaps the last century can boast of. It is a peculiarly, though simply, constructed horizontal Wind-Mill, adapted to the grinding of all sorts of grain, and at the same time threshing out wheat and rice, fanning them and pounding the latter, powdering plaster of Paris, cutting tobacco, &c. &c. Its aptitude to all those various and useful purposes, will be more easily and justly estimated by a view of the machine itself, than from any description that can be given here. —A model of this wind-mill can be viewed on Federal Hill, where it is kept for the conveniency of shewing it in operation, by applying to Mr. Marche, No. 4, south Gay-street, by whom also the terms will be made known for the model only to erect a mill by, or for the patent right for a whole state; or by

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 10th of July, a negro man named LEWIS: he is 22 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, well set, dark complexion, has a scar on his forehead which, I think, comes down between his eyes, is bow-legged, and has a scar on one of his feet, between the toes, occasioned by the cut of an ax; he can read and write a little, has a very bold look, talks free and sensibly, and at times assumes a confidence when speaking that would induce some to suppose that what he said was the truth; he speaks Dutch a little, and I expect has a pass, as he has been in Alexandria, where he went under the name of Lewis Hurley. When he eloped he had on a long blue cloth coat, red waistcoat, and reddish colored pantaloons, a high crowned hat, band and buckle; I believe his other cloathing were home made. The above reward will be given for securing him in any jail, so that I get him again, on giving information to Messrs. S. Croudson & Co. Alexandria, with reasonable charges if brought home. No. 15, GEORGE-STREET, FELL'S-POINT,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has moved from No. 40, to No. 15, George-street, in that large and commodious three-story brick house, nearly opposite captain Tenant's, where he still continues teaching all those branches useful to the merchant, or that can form the commander, and instruct the mechanic.

Boarding and lodging in the house, if required.

Mr. Gardiner feels himself too gratefully affected by the kind and liberal patronage he has received from some of the inhabitants of Fell's-Point, to make use of any pompous eulogy in return. Suffice it to say, it is too deeply impressed in his memory ever to be eradicated.
