Merry Christmas

Greetings from Baltimore's Busy Business Men and Women

Old Shepherd . .

I never saw a night come down so clear;
Not one so clear. There was no wind, no cloud,
No night dew even; nothing save a crowd
Of frozen little stars, and that one near
Enough to touch, it seemed. I never knew
A sight so brave. No, never so brave a thing
As that near fire that seemed somehow to sing
A welcome! It to break the heart of you.

IT IS a long time gone, but I remember
That night and that one song, like to a sea
That lapped the quiet hills and folded them
In sleep. And that one star so like an ember
Up-curved with flame that lit most curiously
An old dark stable close by Bethlehem.

MRS. GEORGE H. HOLLAND.

Morgan State Choir Presents Cantata

The Morgan State College Choir, under the direction of Miss Violet S. Banks, director of music, presented a Christmas cantata entitled "Redemption and Release" in the chapel of the college on Wednesday morning.

The cantata, which was in two scenes, dealt with the enslaving of Africans by the world, their desperate plea for help, and the answering of that plea by the announcement of the birth of Christ, which was said to be a prophecy and caused the Africans to resolve to follow the God of their redemption.

Leading Roles

Leading roles were taken by the following: Mary, Joy Mitchell; Joseph, McQuas Kishi; the Three Kings, Howard Little, John Richardson and Edwin Passett.

Samuel Myers was the reader and soloist were Leonard Willmore, Georgette Babbitt, and Helen Oldham. The literary text was by Mrs. Jessie W. Wright; lighting and costumes by Ollington F. Smith, and Mrs. Frances Berry Hill was the accompanist.

Full Holiday Program at Pa. Avenue Church

A cantata by the choir, a special service by the pastor, the Rev G. M. Edwards, and a Christmas celebration by the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society are among the highlights of the holiday program of the Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion Church.

On Friday evening (today), close will be conducted by Walitha Bailey and Richard Johnson. On Sunday morning the pastor will deliver a special Christmas sermon.

Again the Yuletide Prompts This Message of Good Wishes to My Friends Everywhere and a Word of Appreciation to Those I Am Privileged to Serve.

IN MEMORIAMS

SEAY—In loving memory of my devoted husband, Samuel Earl Seay, who departed this life December 24, 1933.
"His memory is as dear today as in the hour he passed away."
Wife, EVA SEAY.

OWENS—On December 20, 1938, God saw fit to call from work to reward, our devoted choir director, Prof. George Albert Owens.
We the members of the Chorus Choir of Metropolitan Methodist Church cherish his memory. We miss him more than words can tell.
"Be still my soul, the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed, we shall meet at last."
The Chorus Choir of Metropolitan Methodist Church.
MASON CARTER,
Acting Director.

SAUNDERS—
"Today our hearts are heavy;
Our thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how we miss you, Neal dear,
None but God in heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true;
For three long years have passed, dear,
And our hearts still ache for you."
THE FAMILY.
"Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true;
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of someone who thinks of you.
JIMMIE.

OWENS—In loving memory of CAROLINE D., who passed away four years ago, December 12, 1935, and GEORGE ALBERT, who passed away one year ago, December 20, 1938.
"One by one they go before us,
They are waiting for us only
Where no pain can ever mar;
Dear ones who left us lonely,
Watch we through the gates ajar."
There a husband, mother, brother,
Gone within those gates ajar."
FLORENA K. OWENS, wife, and MARY O. ROBERTSON, sister.

JONES—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, the Rev. JOHN W., who entered into peaceful rest eight years ago, December 28th, 1931.
When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Eight years ago today.
Loving WIFE.

A loving heart that knew no guile;
Deep trust in God that all was right,

Colored G. Man Heroin Arrests

Testimony of Agent Taylor Holds Youths on Dope Counts

Testimony from J. L. Taylor, colored Federal narcotic agent, that he had made seventeen purchases from nine young heroin peddlers resulted in their being held under $74,000 bail on Wednesday for the Federal grand jury by the U.S. Commissioner.

Commissioner Lauds Taylor

Mr. Taylor, who was brought here from Chicago several months ago, told of his investigation of the dope traffic here and of the purchases resulting in the arrests of the alleged peddlers.

Before levying bail, U.S. Commissioner James H. Cullen complimented Agent Taylor on his investigation and the manner in which the case had been prepared.

The series of raids was conducted in various sections of Baltimore on December 12 by Agent Taylor, Boyd Martin, chief of the Federal narcotic bureau, and Percy Clark and James S. Lannigan, local agents. They were assisted by members of the local detective and police departments.

Twelve Taken in Raid

Produced as evidence against the alleged peddlers were two revolvers, two toy guns, and several kits containing dope, hypodermic needles, and spoons used by addicts and peddlers.

Twelve youngsters were taken in the original raid, but at the preliminary hearing three of them were dismissed and the others placed under $75,000 bail pending the hearing before the U.S. Commissioner. The nine held for the Federal grand jury were: William S. Connors, alias Stokes, 23, of 643-N. Central Avenue; Robert M. Ambers, 26, 528 Hoffman Street; William A. Banton, 22, 1519 Argyle Avenue; Rufus Tate, 20, 1221 Division Street; George W. Wick, 17, 1711 Madison Avenue;

Banker Short; Plans Suicide

Joseph Cadalek and Patrick Donohue revealed that twenty-six men and women had deposited $484 with Barton. The individual savings ranged from $1 to $161.

When arraigned before Magistrate Edward A. Daughtery, on Wednesday Barton offered to repay the money as soon as he could get it. This proposal was rejected, however, and he was held on ten complaints. The other sixteen persons declined to prosecute.

Losing Depositors Listed

Those who lost their savings were:

Robert and Mrs. Mary Bates of 3204 Remley Street; George Bender of 521 Hauser Street, Charles Dorsey of 1714 Brady Avenue, Lionel Wentworth of 1850 Chesapeake Avenue, John Hall of 1736 Brady Avenue, William Candy of 543 Biddle Street, Fred Vaughn of 3318 Tate Street, William Vaughn, Richard Toliver of 3316 Fairfield Road;

George Marshall, Edward Coates, Harry Burton, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, Major Jones, Albert Pritchett, Percy Powell, Charles Douglass, J. H. Hunt, Walter and Herbert Mayo, Arthur Toliver, Adolph Fox, J. C. Hill and William Reddish.

Progress Store
Awaits Your Call
With Christmas but a few days off, the management of the Progress Department Store at 902, 904 and 906 W. Baltimore Street, announces that it is ready to serve its many friends and customers with some of the best values ever offered.
The proprietor, Isidor Feldman, and his son, Frank Feldman, manager, approach the holiday season with fifteen years of service to their customers, of whom from seventy-five to eighty per cent are colored. Half of that time was spent serving residents in the vicinity of Pennsylvania Avenue.
On Your Own Terms
At that time business was conducted on a strictly cash basis. A new policy is in effect, now, however. One, whereby customers can visit the large store, select their merchandise, and then arrange their own terms to suit the individual.
This liberal credit policy has gone far toward winning new friends for the Progress Department Store and has worked out satisfactorily, both to the management and customers, alike. An additional service is offered, though.
Gives Service Deluxe
If a customer is ill or otherwise unable to visit the store, a representative will take a selection of desired articles to the prospective customer's home. These representatives will also come to the home and escort the patrons to the store if that is desired.
In the line of men's and boys' wear, the Progress Store carries the latest model suits and overcoats. For the women, they have all the popular new shades in dresses both for street and dress wear, accompanying accessories and a large selection of fur, cloth, and fur fabric coats.
The Progress Store also has a full line of Emerson and Stewart Warner radios; also genuine Duo-Therm and Kerogas oil heaters. A trial will convince you of their business sincerity.
