Mrs. Keets' Boarding School.

ON Monday, the first of August, the young ladies of Mrs. Keets' Boarding School, near Centreville, Queen Anne's county, Maryland, were examined in reading, English grammar, French, arithmetic and geography. Each young lady produced a specimen of her writing, with questions and solutions in different and difficult rules of arithmetic. They read with a degree of animation, which surprised and pleased the company, and equally evinced the attention of the teachers and their own application.

There was a number of persons present, all of whom professed themselves highly gratified by their prompt and accurate answers to the numerous questions proposed in English grammar and the French language. They concluded with a perfect explanation of the geogrphy of North America, particularly of the United States.

We whose names are undersigned were witnesses of the pleasing and animating scene, and declare, that the utmost merit is equally due to Mrs. Keets, Mr. Pairo, and the young ladies.

JAMES KENT,
JOHN DAMES,
PERRY E. NOEL,
JOHN HACKETT,

Centreville, 12th Aug. 1803.

Mrs. KEETS and Mr. PAIRO respectfully inform the ladies and gentlemen of Annapolis, and the public in general, that they will open a Boarding School in that city, on Monday, the 2d January, 1804, provided 25 ladies, as boarders, can be procured by subscription previous to the 20th October next.

Mrs. Keets will teach reading, writing, the English grammar and needle work.

Mr. Pairo will teach the French language, (Latin and German, if required) arithmetic, geography, astronomy, use of the globes, and music.

If the above testimony of Mrs Keets' and Mr Pairo's abilities should not be considered as a sufficient recommendation, Mrs. Keets can produce a number of recommendatory letters from the parents and guardians of those ladies she has had under her care, as vouchers of her strict attention to the morals, improvement and accommodation of her pupils.

Mr. Pario can also produce testimonials of his character and abilities. He is a German gentleman, educated at one of the principal universities in that country. He is of French extraction and has resided a considerable time in Paris, which circumstance enables him to understand and speak the French language as his mother tongue. He has been in the habit of teaching eight years, and from the satisfaction he has already given, flatters himself that he shall be deemed worthy the encouragement of the public.

Application may be made to Mr. Neth, or capt. Thomas, Annapolis, or to Mrs. Keets, near Centreville, Maryland.

Young Ladies' Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. BACONAIS,

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Baltimore and its vicinity, that they propose opening an Academy, upon an extensive scale, for the most liberal education of Young Ladies, comprising, besides the usual & indispensible female accomplishments, such as sewing and embrodery of all kinds, &c. the grammatical and ornamental parts of English and French idioms, geography and the use of the globes, writing, arithmetic, &c. &c The pupils will have a constant opportunity of speaking the French language, all the members of said academy (except the English tutor) to the number of four or five, being French natives, whom a residence of above ten years in this country has accustomed to its language and manners, some of them even having received their education in the well known and approved academy formerly kept under Mrs. Lacombe's direction, where they have had an opportunity both of contracting an acquaintance with several of the most respectable families in this city, and familiarising themselves with the rules and discipline of a regular education.

Mr. Baconais, the head of the institution, will undertake to teach Drawing and Dancing to such of his fair pupils only, as may have a wish to learn these handsome accomplishments, a task to which a successful practice of several years in Philadelphia, has proved him, as he thinks, fully adequate. As for the literary part of his system, he feels encouraged to undertake it with the more confidence, as the liberal education his birth and former means have enabled him to receive in the most distinguished seminary of Paris, must have qualified him for the teaching of any of the useful branches to which female instruction must necessarily be confined.

Mr. Baconais has made choice of the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Lacombe and Petit, near the French seminary, one of the most eligible situations in point of salubrity, and now happily secured against the inconveniences it lay under by the street not being then paved.

The academy will be ready, and is intended to be opened for the reception of scholars, on the first day of October. The parents who may be inclined to encourage this new institution, are desired to be early in their applications—which will be received by the Rev. Wm. Du Bourg, president of the French college, who will give further information respecting the terms and other particulars.

Patent Horizontal Wind-Mill.

THE subscriber offers to the gentlemen farmers and others of Maryland, and the other states, an invention, which for utility has not been exceeded by any piece of mechanism which this or perhaps the last century can boast of. It is a peculiarly, though simply, constructed horizontal Wind-Mill, adapted to the grinding of all sorts of grain, and at the same time threshing out wheat and rice, fanning them and pounding the latter, powdering plaster of Paris, cutting tobacco, &c. &c. Its aptitude to all those various and useful purposes, will be more easily and justly estimated by a view of the machine itself, than from any description that can be given here.—A model of this wind-mill can be viewed on Federal Hill, where it is kept for the conveniency of shewing it in operation, by applying to Mr. Marche, No. 4, south Gay-street, by whom also the terms will be made known for the model only to erect a mill by, or for the patent right for a whole state; or by

RAN away from the subscriber, about four weeks ago, a negro boy named RICHARD, from 18 to 20 years of age, about 5¼ feet high, slim made, has remarkably long and narrow feet; speaks good English, tells a plausible story—bred to the carpenter's business, but very capable of cooking or waiting, and in every respect a very active, smart servant. The original name of the above negro man was Luke, which was changed by his present master to Richard—it is probable he may pass by his former name. The above fellow, a few days before the John & Elsy, capt. Edwards, left Charleston for Baltimore, told a gentleman that he was going as cook of said vessel. Twenty dollars will be paid upon delivery of the said negro in Charleston; and one hundred dollars reward upon conviction of any person or persons who may have been guilty of taking the aforesaid negro out of this state.

JACK, his brother, a mulatto, but not so bright as Jem, and a smaller man, about thirty years of age. Jack was committed to prison in Harford county, but made his escape, and it is supposed is endeavoring to get to Philadelphia, or perhaps is sculking in Baltimore town with his brother Jem, who has been a considerable time in this place. The above reward of one hundred dollars will be paid on those slaves being delivered to me, or committed to prison in Baltimore town, so that I get them again, or for either fifty dollars
