POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Centreville, Maryland,
August 3, 1923,

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE
SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF MARYLAND:

By the Constitution of Maryland, provision is made for the election, by the people, of Judges for the several Judicial Circuits into which the state is divided and, among other things, the qualifications therein mentioned for Judges are as follows:

"They shall be selected from those who have been admitted to practice law in this state, and who are most distinguished for integrity, wisdom and sound legal knowledge."

If my reputation, after having engaged in the practice of law for practically thirty years, and my record, after having served as Associate Judge of your Judicial Circuit for nearly one year, leads you to believe that I possess the above mentioned necessary qualifications, I will be very grateful should you determine to support me at the approaching Democratic Primary Election.

The duties incident to my present position preclude me from making the usual personal and political campaign.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS J. KEATING.

OUR CHIEF

By the CRACKER

Beside the silent shrouded bier,
The nation bows tomorrow, A tribute to our chief our tears, bespeak our heart-felt sorrow, A nation weeps for him who taught, that deeds of love unfold; and this, alone, by love he brought presence in the soul. He steered his way o'er stormy seas. His eye fixed on the goal: and gave his life un-selfishly, the course of right to hold. And now his guiding hand is still, its guidance now is past: We greive—but bow to God's great will: He's reached the goal at last. We feel the presence of his thought abiding with us still; A mantle 'round our hearts are wrought with inspirations thrill. We dedicate ourselves low in his noble war nor from the low in his noble way nor from the path-way falter. To stand for love and purity shall be our aim; to drive to dim obscurity, the wrongs of every name. We swear his labor not in vain, His sacrifice not lost, We'll keep the flag from every stain: regardless of the cost. We pray today for strength to bear the burden of our grief; we weep now at his silent bier, and mourn our Fallen Chief.

At that hour the big doors were closed and preparations made to carry the body to the station on its way to Marion, Ohio, where final services will be held and burial will take place at 3 p. m.

Attended Funeral in Washington

State Senator Lawrence B. Towers of Denton, attended the funeral services in the rotunda of the nation's capitol in Washington Wednesday of the late President Harding.

Mr. Towers states that thousands and thousands of people marched with bowed heads past the remains of the dead executive, paying tribute to him. Floral offerings from practically every nation of the world and from hundreds of organizations, private individuals and national and state officials filled the rotunda of the capitol and other rooms leading off from it.

Post Office to Close

Instructions have been received by Postmastr Samuel G. Nuttle to close the Denton post office for one hour (4 to 5) during the funeral services of the late President Harding which will be held Friday at 3 p. m. (central time) at Marion, O.

ROBERT M. TODD

Mr. Robert Merrit Todd, eldes son of the late Rev. Mr. Robert W. Todd, a native of Caroline county, died very suddenly Tuesday morning August 7th, in Harford county, Md., where, with his wife, who was Miss Mary Wallace, of Dover, Del., he was spending a few days. Mr. Todd, who was employed as accountant in a large and exclusive shop of Boston, had just left that city for a three weeks' vacation which he planned to spend with his sister, Mrs. Olivia Todd Davis, at Federalsburg. He and Mrs. Todd stopped at his farm near Aberdeen, Md., and it was there that he so suddenly died, presumably from heart trouble.

His remains will be brought to Federalsburg and interred Friday.

Mr. Todd had many friends in this county where, as a young man, he had taught school and where subsequently he had often visited his brother, the late attorney, James N. Todd, of Denton.

He was a cultivated gentleman of highest character and charming personality.

Besides his widow and sister, he is survived by one brother, Dr. George Wilson Todd, of New York.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Anita E. the late Charles E. Minter, ETAN Minter, daughter of Mrs. Capitola Comdr. U. S. N., to George W. Towers, Jr., formerly of this county, now in charge of the Physic-Theapy department of the Veterans Hospital No. 62 Augusta, Ga., was announced at a dinner given at her home in West Ghent, Norfolk, Va., Friday last. The wedding will take place in the fall.

TOO MUCH NEWS

We regret exceedingly that we are unable to print all of our news this week, owing to an extra amount of news not coming in until late. Two good articles from the County Agent giving notes of his work and some correspondence were force dto be omitted this week. We will print some of the articles next week, which are still newsy.

Messages to Seekers of Success

Luck and Lack

Don't trust to luck. Luck is untrustworthy. Systematic, scientific striving for any goal is far more likely to bring you success than any mere faith in your success.

Just as changing a single letter changes "Luck" to "Lack," so will the reversea of a single day change plenty to want. But you can insure yourself against this by building your success on the habit of saving.

Save and Win

Be well dressed. Make friends. Increase your influence in your community. Enjoy the respect of all your associates.

These things do not come to those who trust to luck for them. Systematic saving will win them for you. Systematic saving will accumulate for you a small fortune that can safely and readily be expanded to a large one.

Scenic Beauty of the Poconos

The Hall Mark of Service

Delaware Water Gap--Pocono Mountains

You may have reveled in the pleasures of a vacation at the seashore—perhaps traversed the Allegheny Mountains of Western Pennsylvania and marveled at their impressive grandeur but if you have never visited the Delaware Water Gap or roamed amid the scenic beauties of the upper Delaware River or enjoyed a restful vacation at some one of the famed resorts of the Pocono Mountain Region you have a rare treat in store for you.

Every mile of the journey is a vision of scenic delight. From Trenton, N. J., the Pennsylvania Railroad follows the winding course of the Delaware River, whose bosom is dotted with verdant isles and shores fringed with majestic mountains, lofty cliffs and densely wooded slopes.

The Delaware Water Gap is a colossal gorge hollowed out of the rock by the waters of the Delaware River, with Mounts Tammany and Minsie, towering as portals 1600 feet on either side. Here hotels and boarding houses provide abundant facilities for comfortable vacations for all classes.

Beyond with Stroudsburg as the gateway lie the Pocono Mountains, some 300 square miles of slopes and plateaus rising to altitudes of nearly 2000 feet, with splendid hotels, pure water, dry piney, invigorating air and with such delightful spots as Mt. Pocono, Buck Hill, Tobyhanna, Cresco, Dingman's Ferry, Bushkill, Buck Hill Falls, Pocono Summit and a myriad of others of equal merit, to conjure up pleasant memories and contribute to an indescribable atmosphere of relaxation and pleasure.

A vacation in the mountains of the Pocono Region or at the Delaware Water Gap for the late summer or early autumn, amid forest, stream or lake, will prove restful, invigorating, delightful.
