The Baltimore Weekly Gazette.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE for 1872, increased in size by Four Columns on its dimensions of 1871, is the Largest and Cheapest Weekly Paper published in this City. By this enlargement of its columns room has been obtained for an additional quantity and variety of useful and entertaining news matter. This Journal to and others trading with this City, is indispensable for business reference, and should be carefully kept on file. As a paper suited to the Family Circle, it offers unusual attractions in the variety and general interest of its matter, and is a favorite in every household where it appears. In addition to the General News of the week, every issue contains:

THE LATEST TELEGRAMS, CONGRESSIONAL AND LEGISLATIVE REPORTS, THE BEST MARKET REPORTS, and the most complete CATTLE MARKET REPORTS that can be obtained. A variety of EDITORIALS and other Original Articles, SELECTED NEWS, Domestic and Foreign, STORIES AND POETRY, AGRICULTURAL ARTICLES, WASHINGTON and other Correspondence, LOCAL AND STATE NEWS, &c., &c., &c.

It is offered at a lower subscription price than any paper of the same character, is especially adapted to the wants and tastes of subscribers in this State and at the South, and is issued in the afternoon, so that no delay occurs in its delivery in the Southern Mails, by which means its news reaches all points South of Baltimore

A Day Earlier than that Contained in Northern Papers of the Same Day.
