
THIS HOARD WOULD HAVE DOUBLED IN VALUE—

Deposited in this bank at 4 per cent interest, the hoarded money which has been lying idle for years would have doubled in value instead of merely accumulating dust and cobwebs.

Happily not many persons today actually hoard money with the belief that it is safe from theft or accident.

Money need not be buried in old walls or cellars to be hoarded. It is hoarded money if it is idle money, useless money.

The safest way to make your money work for you and the community is to deposit it in the bank, where it is safe, draws interest, and helps build up the local community, thus enhancing the value of your property.

Our officails are business executives and can help to make your money work more profitably for you. Consult them without obligation.

Vary the usual ways of cooking egg plant by making "Eggplant Cakes." Boil the vegetable whole until tender—about half an hour. Remove the pulp, mash and drain. To two cups of this pulp, add one slightly beaten egg and season well with salt and pepper. Then add enough fine bread crumbs to stiffen enough to shape into small flat cakes. Let stand until the crumbs have absorbed all the moisture then dip in fine crumbs and fry a rich brown.

A trim looking dress for a school girl has a box-pleated skirt and over blouse with two slit pockets, string belt and white collar and cuffs. This style is very smart in navy blue or brown jersey.

Cook both fresh and dried fruits slowly to bring out their natural sweetness and save sugar.

The cuffs on many of the kid gloves to be worn this fall are embroidered with small designs in contrasting colors.

A "Cheese Dressing" for a salad is quickly and easily made, requiring little beating. It is not rich and heavy for warm weather, but quite "tasty" and piquant enough to whet a jaded appetite. Mash two tablespoons smooth cream cheese with a fork and add slowly four tablespoons oil, beating constantly. Beat in two tablespoons vinegar and season with salt and paprika.

A double headed hat pin is indeed very smart, some times they hold the drapes of a dress.

If the fire in the range does not catch readly, try throwing a teaspoon ful of sugar on it. It will blaze up immediately and is much safer than the kerosene so frequently used.

Low heels may be used more for street wear, but high ones are very fashionable in the evening.

Larkspur should be cut down to the ground as soon as it ceases flowering. If this practice were always followed, the fine blue of these beautiful perennials would be seen in the garden for a much longer period. New growth will soon spring up and give a second blooming, although the stems will not be as tall as earlier in the summer. Be sure to remove any leaves which become discolored or which fall to the ground under the plants.

Poiret twill coat dresses are very practical because they can be worn on the street all fall and then worn underneath the topcoat in the winter.

In making a "Chocolate Bread Pudding" the crusts may be used, saving the crumbs for some other use. Soak one cup of these in two cups scalded milk. Melt one square of unsweetened chocolate, add to it six tablespoons of sugar, and add some of the bread and milk gradually to this, then combine the whole. Add a pinch of salt, one-quarter teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon vanilla, and two beaten eggs. Turn into buttered dish and bake 40 minutes in moderate oven. Serve hot with hard sauce.

Patent leather shoes must be treated very carefully if they are to be kept in good condition. The dirt should, first of all, be removed from them with a damp sponge. Then dry carefully with a duster and apply a very little petroleum ointment. Polish with a silk handkerchief and you will get a brilliant shine.
