Mill Seats for Sale.

THE governor and directors of the Susquehanna canal have caused to be surveyed and laid off sundry lots for mill seats, and other water works, on the said canal, at the Conawingo, having a fall of sixteen feet to each mill seat; other lots at the Octoraro, having a fall of twenty feet to each; and other lots at the Locks, on tide water, having a fall of twenty-three feet to each—which they now offer for sale at encouraging prices to those who will improve the same. Mr. Jennie, the company's agent, residing at Octoraro, will shew the property to any person inclining to purchase; and a plat of the canal and of the aforesaid lots may be seen, and the terms of sale made known by applying to Samuel Sterett, at the corner of Gay and Water-streets, in the city of Baltimore.

It is presumed that no part of this country can offer more advantageous situations for Mill Seats and Water Works of every description, as there is an immediate intercourse by water from each lot with the back counties of New-York and Pennsylvania, and the city of Baltimore, which will be daily encreasing, and in a short time will be extended to the city of Philadelphia.

To render ourselves useful, is to do our duty.

THE certainty with which the subscriber alters chimnies, so as entirely to prevent that great evil a smoking house, can be equalled by nothing but the surprising savings made in the consumption of wood, and the trifling expence attending such alteration. The best references can be given—and any gentleman wishing to give encouragement to such a laudable undertaking, can be attended gratis, by applying at the subscriber's house, near the Ferry Branch, or by leaving a note at Mr. Gwin's store, Light-street.

Also, any gentleman wishing to tile a roof may be supplied with tiles on cheaper terms than he can cover with shingles.
