Notice.

THE drawing of the Town Clock and Alarm Bell Lottery will recommence on Monday next, the 7th November, at 3 o'clock, P. M. at the court house; and with pleasure the managers inform the public, that the situation of said lottery is now such as will justify them in continuing the drawing from day to day, until completed. They are happy to inform the public that they have contracted with an eminent workman, from whom they have received every requisite satisfaction for his due performance in making the clock on a large and elegant scale, which will be both useful and ornamental to the city. And the managers flatter themselves, that the favorable state of the wheel (being several hundred dollars richer than at first) will be an inducement to the public to come forward and purchase the few tickets yet remaining on hand, which may be had of any of the managers. Prize tickets in the St. John's church lottery, indorsed by any of its managers, or clerk of said lottery, will be received in payment for tickets in this lottery.

 Remember, all prizes will be paid, without deduction, 30 days after the drawing is completed—the number of blanks less than two to a prize. November 1. d
