Country SEATS at Auction.

ON SATURDAY MORNING NEXT,
At 11 o'clock, on the premises, will be sold on terms which will then be made known, by WM S. MOORE.

Twenty acres of GROUND, in lots, to suit the bidders. This property adjoins the country seats of David Harris, Joseph Biays and Joshua Inloes, esquires. Its situation is deemed as healthy as any in the state, and its proximity to the city makes it an object for a summer's retreat. The whole is heavily timbered.

GEORGE WILSON.
November 15. d4t

To be Sold at Auction,

On the premises, on SATURDAY, the 19th instant, at three o'clock,

SIX LOTS of GROUND, on the west side of Paca street, in the square opposite the new buildings of Mr. Finley and Mr. Welsh. It is intended to make the lots thirty feet each on Paca-street, by 150 feet deep to a 20 feet alley.

There is no situation in or near the city of Baltimore, which exceeds this for health, good water, and high ground—affording an agreeable prospect of the country—and it is expected that Paca-street will soon rival Howard-street in business.

Terms will be made known at the time and place of sale.

LEMMON & CAMPBELL, Auct's.
November 11.

Mills for Sale,

At the Head of Chester, Kent county, Eastern Shore of Maryland.

THE subscribers will dispose of the above mills—They are situated on the main stream of Chester river, at the head of the tide, and about one mile above craft navigation; they consist of a large convenient brick mill, seated directly at the bridge over Chester river, where the main road from Kent and Queen Anne crosses it, and in the town itself. This mill is an overshot, with two pair of best French bur stones, and the whole machinery adapted in the best manner for merchant's work. Adjoining the mill a lot or piece of ground will be alotted to it sufficient for a mill house and other purposes. The other mill is situate at a short distance above, directly on the main road to Duck creek—The building being frame (except the lower story which is of stone) was destroyed by fire a short time since, but may be built at no great expence. It was calculated also for merchant work, and to run two pair stones; and had also a fulling mill adjoining, and a saw mill at some distance above. The whole of the mills are supplied by the same dams and races, which are built in the best manner. A convenient lot will also be sold with the last mill to accommodate buildings, &c.

These mills being seated directly in a very improving country town, where a great deal of business is done, and the owner may have the best opportunity of connecting them with a store; and also in the heart of a country which produces a never failing supply of the best wheat, offer superior advantages to a purchaser. A reasonable credit will be given on good security and interest being paid. For terms apply to the subscribers in Philadelphia; or the mills will be shewn to any person wishing to view them by William Farrell, the tenant in possession.

Second Notice.

In the case of PETER VACHE, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS a commission of bankrupt, founded upon the statute of the United States, passed on the 4th day of April, 1800, entitled "An act to establish an uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, hath been awarded and issued forth against Peter Vache, of Baltimore, in the district of Maryland, merchant, dealer and chapman; and he being declared a bankrupt, is required to surrender himself to the commissioners, in the said commission named, or the major part of them, on the seventh and twenty-eighth days of November instant, and on the thirteenth day of December next ensuing, at three o'clock in the afternoon of each day, at the office of the commissioners, No. 39, south Gay-street, the corner of Water-street, in the city of Baltimore, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where his creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to, or dissent from, the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the commissioners shall appoint.

By order of the commissioners,
SAMUEL STERETT, Clerk.
November 2. 3aw6w

100 Dollars Reward.

STOLEN from the subscriber's stable, at his mills near the city of Baltimore, on Sunday night, 6th November, an able WAGGON HORSE, about sixteen hands high, four years old last spring, having now four colt's teeth; he is entirely black, not having, that I know of, a white hair about him. He has clear good looking hazle eyes, a feather or curl about midway on his neck, the near side; he has also two other curls or feathears on each side near where the girth comes under his belly; he paces and trots, but goes clumsily. When taken from the stable he was shod round, with steel toes before. If said horse be stolen, I will give the above reward on recovering him, and a conviction of the thief. If he is found straying, ten dollars and reasonable expences will be paid to any one who will deliver him in this city to JAMES CARROLL.
