Juvenile Assembly,

Under the direction of Mr. DUPORT.

THE utility and liberality of the plan Mr. Duport proposes to adopt in conducting the above, he trusts will meet with that approbation he has generally experienced in the different cities he has hitherto visited in America; which encouragement has induced him to procure from Paris a constant supply of the most fashionable Cotillions, which he will on this occasion introduce.

CONDITIONS.

I. There will be six assemblies; to be held one every fortnight, on such night as will be agreed upon by the subscribers.

II. Previous to such assembly there will be a practising night, for the improvement of those who may wish to dance cotillions.

III. Three managers are to be appointed for each ball by the subscribers.

IV. Each subscriber to pay nine dollars (on receiving his ticket of admission) whether he subscribes before or after the first ball, and to have the privilege of obtaining tickets for two ladies, each evening.

V. As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a meeting will be called to arrange the rules and regulations of the assemblies.

The subscription book is left at Mr. Bryden's coffee room, and will remain open till the 10th of December next.

N. B. If an active youth of respectable connexions should offer as a pupil, for a term, Mr. Duport will engage to render him a proficient in the art of dancing.

Removal.

THE subscriber has removed his office from South-street, to No. 17, Commerce-street, where he has on hand and offers for sale,

250 hogsheads prime Maryland Tobacco
100 do. Virginia do. of different qualities
1600 lbs. Ginseng, at a reduced price.

A Tract of Land, containing 55 acres, and another adjoining it, consisting of 117¼ acres, for sale: situate about 6½ miles from the city, directly on the new Frederick-town road, very well timbered, and no part cleared.

Also,

A very handsome and commodious COUNTRY SEAT, six miles from the city. The improvements are fit for the accommodation of any gentleman and family, and extremely well adapted to farming. The farm contains 228 acres, about 90 of which bear as good timber as any in the vicinity of Baltimore; the residue is very fertile, and in a high state of cultivation.—The terms of sale will be moderate, and the title unexceptionable.

Also,

The improvements on Federal-Hill, generally known as the OBSERVATORY and its inclosure, at present held under lease, (from the landed proprietor) at the rate of 100 dollars per annum—If the advantages accruing to an intelligent and active man from its possession, will be taken into consideration, the purchase will be easy, as the terms are moderate; and, in fact, so much so, as may almost be considered as nothing—it would have been easily disposed of ere now, had it been known that it was to be offered for sale.

Likewise,

LOTS in the Federal city, in most excellent situations, principally between the capitol and the president's house, on such terms as cannot but be satisfactory to any purchaser or purchasers, who can be supplied to any amount within 100,000 dollars, and titles incontestible, coming from as respectable characters as any in the territory of Columbia, will be given. And as the present convulsed state of Europe may either induce or oblige foreigners of large capital to vest a portion of it in property daily increasing in value, and which would be advantageous either as a speculation, or in reserve for their children—it would not appear improper nor inexpedient for their agents or friends in this country, to come timely forward and make a speedy purchase.

Two pair Burr Mill Stones, one 6 feet diameter, the other pair 4 feet 2 inches, to be sold 50 per cent. cheaper than any of equal value and quality in Baltimore.

Wanted to purchase, Baltimore and Maryland Insurance Stock, for which cash will be given

Storage of hhds. Tobacco, Coffee, Box or Bale Goods, thankfully received at low charges.

20 Dollars Reward.

STRAYED or stolen from the subscriber, on the night of the 1st instant, TWO HORSES; one a Sorrel, about 15 hands high, six years old, his hind feet and one fore foot white, bald face, is a little marked with the collar on both shoulders, shod all round, and is a natural trotter: the other is a dark Bay or Brown, about 15 hands high, three years old last spring, one hind foot partly white, also marked with the collar and has some saddle marks, long switch tail, shod all round, and is a natural trotter. The above reward will be paid for taking up said horses, or giving information where they may be had; and reasonable charges for bringing them home, or delivering them to Isaac Trimble, No. 92, North Howard-street, or to John Trimble, No. 18, Cheapside, Baltimore, or in proportion for either of them: and, if stolen, 20 dollars more will be given for apprehending and securing the thief.

150 Dollars Reward.

WHEREAS about three weeks ago, I sold to James Carroll, esquire, of the city of Baltimore, a large black waggon HORSE, between four and five years old; nearly sixteen hands high; which said Horse, was purchased by me of a Mr. Fight, in Lancaster county, Donnegal township, on or about the 6th of October last; and whereas, on Sunday night, the 6th November, the said Horse was stolen from the stables of said Carroll, and on the Saturday following, found murdered on the lands of Mr. J. R. C. Burley Boon, about seven miles from Baltimore, and suspicions having been maliciously spread abroad, that I had stolen and murdered said Horse—I therefore give notice, that I will pay the above reward to any person who will discover the perpetrator of the above theft and murder; I will also give fifty dollars for such information as will convict the infamous miscreant, who has attempted to blast my character by connecting it with the above villainous actions.

REMOVAL.

Thomas Harrison,

SILVER PLATER & HARNESS-MAKER.

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Baltimore, and its vicinity, that he has removed his factory from No. 4, Market-street, to Pratt-street, between O'Donnel and Dugan's wharves, where he manufactures all kinds of Furniture for Coaches, Gigs and Harness, Crests, Cyphers, or any other device executed in the neatest manner.

As he manufactures all from beginning to end, it enables him to sell on terms that cannot fail to give general satisfaction, and he hopes to meet the encouragement of the citizens of Baltimore, who wish to encourage a trade never introduced in this city before. Gentlemen may have their harness replated, which will equal new, and be a great saving.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in the city of Baltimore, on Wednesday, the 5th ultimo, a negro man, named POLYDORE. He is about 28 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, slender made, sharp-faced, and very polite when spoken to. He is an excellent house-servant, and can take care of horses or drive a carriage very well. Had on when he went away, a blue sailor's jacket, Russia sheeting shirt and trousers. He has a variety of cloaths, and amongst others, a deep blue broad cloth coat, with the pockets inside; buck-skin breeches, and generally wears half-boots on Sunday; also, a drab-colored coating surtout coat, which he occasionally wears. As he has been accustomed to the above employments, he may probably offer himself to innkeepers in the neighboring cities.

I will pay ten dollars, if taken in the city; if out of the city and in the county, twenty dollars; if out of the state, and secured in any gaol, thirty dollars—and if out of the state, and brought home to the subscriber, the above reward.
