She is a likely well-looking negro, and remarkably artful and cunning, and professes the Methodist religion. She took with her, one country fulled cloth jacket, dyed yellow; one country made white woollen petticoat, not fulled; one linen ditto; two linsey petticoats, one black striped, the other plain blue; one Osnaburg shift; one pair black leather shoes; one pair white yarn stockings; one shawl; one brown silk hankerchief, and one man's hat. Likewise, ran away,

On Thursday, the 27th of October, 1802, from the subscriber, a dark mulatto negro woman, named PRISS, about 28 years of age, 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high. She is a handsome well-looking negro woman; has long wool, which she keeps combed, and professes to be a Methodist. Has a scar across the outside of the left arm, about 3 or 4 inches below the elbow, which is very plain to be perceived, and was occasioned by the cut of a knife when small. She is a good seamstress and cook, and possesses much art and cunning. Her cloaths would be needless to mention as she has been gone such a length of time. Whoever apprehends said negro woman and brings her home to the subscriber, or secures her in any gaol, so that the owner gets her again, shall receive twenty dollars reward; if taken more than fifty miles from home, thirty dollars, including what the law allows.

VALUABLE LANDS

FOR SALE.

On the 23d day of May next, will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, all that very valuable body of LAND, usually called the White Marsh, lying in Sassafras Neck, in Cecil county—containing about 1075 acres, part of the real estate of colonel James Brice, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased.

THIS Land is esteemed by those who are best acquainted with it, to be equal, if not superior, in quality and situation, to any in that county, and is peculiarly well adapted to the cultivation of wheat, corn, and other grain. It is at present divided into three handsome Farms, each of which has abundance of wood, and a suitable proportion of meadow-lands. The improvements on the middle farm consist of a good Dwelling-House, Barn, Stables, and other out-houses. Those on the other two consist only of Negro-quarters, built of logs. On a corner of the middle farm is a Store-house, Granary, and a comfortable dwelling-house, situated at the intersection of two public roads. The Store, &c. with about three acres of ground, is at present under rent at 60l. per annum, and is esteemed an excellent stand for business, especially in the Grocery line.

The above land is situated about six miles from Frederick-Town, on Sassafras River, and about thirteen miles from Appoquiminink, the latter of which is a steady good market for Wheat. It is probable that the Canal, which it is in contemplation to cut between the Chesapeake and Delaware, will enhance its value. This property will be sold on one body, or divided in such parcels as may best suit the purchasers. The terms of sale, will be, one half of the purchase money, to be paid in 15 months, the residue in 2 years; the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, and bonds, with approved security, to be given for the same.—Mr. Gataway Watkins, manager, residing on the middle Farm, will shew the Lands to those inclined to purchase.

NICHOLAS BRICE. }

N. B. At the same time will be sold, on terms then to be made known, a number of fine Horses, Sheep, Hogs, &c. and all the farming utensils, but none of the Negroes.

NICHOLAS BRICE, Adm'r. of James Brice.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 29th October, 1803, living in Anne-Arundel county, on Elk Ridge, near Richard Owings's mills, in the state of Maryland, a dark mulatto Negro Man, named SAM, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, tolerably slender made, thin visage and small eyes; has middling bushy wool; his knees bend a little back; when strictly examined stammers, and apt to tremble. Took with him a white linen shirt; a pair of brown thickset breeches; one pair of coarse country-knit stockings, half worn; one pair of coarse double-soled shoes, nailed, half worn; a deep blue broad cloth coat, not much worn, double-breasted, with white metal buttons, and pockets out side; one coarse blue round under jacket, double-breasted, with white metal buttons, the pockets a little torn; one white country cloth short coat, half worn, with yellow buttons, and pockets inside; one fur hat, half worn; one white muslin handkerchief, and one red and white silk ditto. He is an artful villain, and I make no doubt he will change his name and clothes. His parents live in or near Annapolis. I will give the following reward for the above fellow: if 10 miles 10 dollars, if 20 miles 15 dollars, if 40 miles 30 dollars, if 80 miles 40 dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, including what the law allows, if brought home, or secured in any jail, so that I get him again, agreeably to the above distances.

And also ran away, some time in August, 1800, a mulatto man named GEORGE, 25 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, full faced and well made; is middling bow-legged, wore long wool, has a small scar over one of his eyes; he is a pert spoken fellow, lisps a little, and when strictly examined is apt to look down; is very fond of liquor and playing on the fiddle. I have understood he has been seen in Meadville-town, in the county of Crawford, state of Pennsylvania. Sometimes he has passed by the name of Henry Robinson. I will give 150 dollars to any person delivering said mulatto George to me, or 120 dollars for securing him in any jail, so that I get him again. Paid by

THOMAS WORTHINGTON,
(Son of John.)

N. B. I forewarn all persons whatsoever from harboring, employing or carrying off said negroes, as they will be dealt with according to law.
