Borican, Cunningham Enter Boston Mile

NEW YORK — John Borican, Shore A.C. 1939 champion half-miler, who made such a concerted splash last winter from 800 to 1000 meters, is headed for his first and last mile of the new year when he tees off in Boston's Garden, January 27, against Glenn Cunningham.

Borican, who was just another tourist at the Brooklyn K. of C., was there strictly in a spectator's role, having spent the last week on his back with the grippe.

"I've signed for the Proud Mile in Boston," he explained. "I expect it to be my first and last 1940 mile. But I'm taking it more as a half-mile conditioner than anything else."
