Republican, or Anti-Democrat.

A Political and Commercial Journal.

CONDITIONS.

FROM the first day of January next, this paper will commence to be published daily, on its present size, in four columns.

The price to subscribers will be seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly, in advance.

Advertisements, not exceeding one square, to be inserted the first three times for one dollar, and every succeeding time twenty-five cents.

All advertisements to be paid for when handed into the office for insertion.

The object of this paper is to diffuse useful information on general subjects; and to enforce the true interests of the government and the people, by exposing the false principles of Democracy, and the dangerous conduct of Democrats; and by supporting the genuine principles of Federal Republicanism, according to the dictates of our constitution.

Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c. &c. received at No. 37, South Gay-street, by the editor,

Public Sale.

To close the concern of Durant and Wiseham, will be sold by public auction, on Tuesday, the 17th of January, at the exchange coffee-house, (if not previously disposed of at private sale,)

THAT Valuable and Improved PROPERTY, situate in Gosport, in the county of Norfolk, known by the name of the GOSPORT DISTILLERY. The lot is about 140 feet square, building 100 feet by 37 in the clear, built of brick and wood, and has lately been put in complete repair. The situation is healthy and pleasant; good water may be had quite convenient. It contains one English made still of 1000 gallons, quite new and lately set up, with cap, worm and worm tub complete; one ditto of 1300 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good working order; one doubling still of 450 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good order; one large return tub; one ditto receiving ditto; two stand casks of 524 gallons each; three ditto of 270 gallons each; eight new cisterns of 2400 gallons each, one of which charges the two large stills; twenty-one ditto of 1300 gallons each, in good order; four ditto out of repair; two low wine cisterns of 500 gallons each, in good order; one hand mill for grinding malt; two copper cranes, buckets, funnels, &c. sufficient to conduct the business upon an extensive scale; machinery, spouts, pumps and leaders, capable of pumping out either of the cisterns and conveying the working liquor into either or all of the stills. These works are capable of turning out 600 gallons spirit every twenty-four hours, with the labor of only three men.

There is also a mill house, 40 feet by 30, in which there is a mill and a well of never-failing water, with three pumps working by machinery, which conveys the water into any part of the distillery. A creek runs up to the door affording sufficient water for lighters, making the communication with Norfolk easy, and the carriage of molasses, rum, &c. to and from the distillery cheap and facile. There is sufficient space on the lot to erect a dwelling house and a cooper's shop, which business might here be conducted to considerable advantage.

This property is well worth the attention of men of capital, that could always command a supply of molasses. The demand for rum is such that there is no danger of having any quantity on hand; and if sold at the moderate profit of three cents per gallon, the business would yield a clear gain of eighteen dollars per day.

The terms are six, twelve, and eighteen months credit, and payment must be made in good endorsed notes, payable at the office of discount and deposit in Norfolk, with a deed in trust upon the property until the whole is paid. John Gibbs, living at the distillery, will shew it to those inclined to view it. For further particulars apply to us LEWIS E. DURANT, or RICHARD WISEHAM.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

LOST last night from the stable of the subscriber at Bellvue, supposed to be stolen, a large bright sorrel Horse, between 4 & 6 years old, about 16 hands high, trots, paces and canters; has a white face, and a large quantity of grey hairs interspersed over his body, with the sorrel; has a remarkable white spot on one side of his neck; his near hind foot a little white. His marks, however, are not exactly remembered, as the present owner has not had him long. The pastern joint of the off fore ankle, shews visibly the mark of a recent fore. For the horse alone, if brought home, eight dollars reward will be given, and for horse and thief, if stolen, so that the culprit be brought to justice, the above reward and all reasonable charges will be paid.

"CHILDREN are like arrows in the hand of the Giant: blessed is the Man that hath his Quiver full of them, he shall not be afraid to meet his enemies in the Gate."

NUPTIAL CEREMONY.

AS few disorders have been more fatal to children than Worm Fevers, it is high time to put a stop to its malignancy. Much has been expended in miniatures and profiles to preserve a silent likeness; but to retain the sweet originals has been the duty of those, who, well acquainted with the Materia Medica, have kindly interfered, and rescued those pretty creatures from an early fate. Can there be a more pleasing sight, than to behold a man surrounded by his family—pledges of his affection, and rising pillars of his future hope? and yet some, somehow or other, from want of confidence or attention, have lost the opportunity of preserving what has been acknowledged too late, was dearer than life. Whoever has been of service to the afflicted, is entitled to commendation; but among the numerous candidates for public esteem, (without depreciating the merits of others) permit us to select the name of James Church, M.D. whose medicines have stood the test, and whose reputation has exceeded his envied span of life.

These salutary preventatives, under the name of VERMIFUGE LOZENGES, are faithfully prepared from the doctor's original recipe.

A fresh supply of the Lozenges are just received from Church's dispensary, New-York, and for sale by J. RICE, No. 87, corner of South and Market-streets, Baltimore.
