Public Sale.

To close the concern of Durant and Wiseham, will be sold by public auction, on Tuesday, the 17th of January, at the exchange coffee-house, (if not previously disposed of at private sale,)

THAT Valuable and Improved PROPERTY, situate in Gosport, in the county of Norfolk, known by the name of the GOSPORT DISTILLERY. The lot is about 140 feet square, building 109 feet by 37 in the clear, built of brick and wood, and has lately been put in complete repair. The situation is healthy and pleasant; good water may be had quite convenient. It contains one English made still of 1000 gallons, quite new and lately set up, with cap, worm and worm tub complete; one ditto of 1300 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good working order; one doubling still of 450 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good order; one large return tub; one ditto receiving ditto; two stand casks of 524 gallons each; three ditto of 270 gallons each; eight new cisterns of 2400 gallons each, one of which charges the two large stills; twenty-one ditto of 1300 gallons each, in good order; four ditto out of repair; two low wine cisterns of 500 gallons each, in good order; one hand mill for grinding malt; two copper cranes, buckets, funnels, &c. sufficient to conduct the business upon an extensive scale; machinery, spouts, pumps and leaders, capable of pumping out either of the cisterns and conveying the working liquor into either or all of the stills. These works are capable of turning out 600 gallons spirit every twenty-four hours, with the labor of only three men.

There is also a mill house, 40 feet by 30, in which there is a mill and a well of never-failing water, with three pumps working by machinery, which conveys the water into any part of the distillery. A creek runs up to the door affording sufficient water for lighters, making the communication with Norfolk easy, and the carriage of molasses, rum, &c. to and from the distillery cheap and facile. There is sufficient space on the lot to erect a dwelling house and a cooper's shop, which business might here be conducted to considerable advantage.

This property is well worth the attention of men of capital, that could always command a supply of molasses. The demand for rum is such that there is no danger of having any quantity on hand; and if sold at the moderate profit of three cents per gallon, the business would yield a clear gain of eighteen dollars per day.

The terms are six, twelve, and eighteen months credit, and payment must be made in good endorsed notes, payable at the office of discount and deposit in Norfolk, with a deed in trust upon the property until the whole is paid. John Gibbs, living at the distillery, will shew it to those inclined to view it. For further particulars apply to us
LEWIS E. DURANT, or
RICHARD WISEHAM.

Eastern Neck,

Kent County, December 18, 1803.

YESTERDAY, early in the morning, was run on shore on Eastern Neck Island Flats, opposite the subscriber's dwelling house, by a young negro man from Baltimore, and abandoned with all her sails standing, a small SAIL BOAT about 20 feet long, 6½ feet beam, about 2 feet 9 inches deep. She is sloop-rigged fashion, with main-sail, fore-sail and jib, which appear to be rather more than half worn. She is ballasted with stone, has 2 oars, has a cable with about 20 feet of iron chain & grappling to one end thereof. It is apprehended she was stolen by the negro that ran her on shore, as he acknowledged he left Baltimore at 4 o'clock on Saturday morning, but that the boat belonged to himself and a brother of his. This negro does not appear to be more than 20 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; had on a short blue cloth jacket, and linen sailor's trousers, without either shoes or stockings. He called himself by several different names, Charles, Will and George, at different times. Finding that he was closely interrogated, he soon left the subscriber's negro quarter, and went to Eastern Neck Island, it is thought with an intention of getting across Chester river into Queen-Anns county, as he told the subscriber's negroes he was well acquainted in both that and Talbot county. The owner of the aforesaid boat is desired to prove his property, pay charges and take her away.
THOMAS SMYTHE.
December 22. d4t

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Fauquier county, (Virginia) a negro man named ZACHARY. He is a very tall black fellow, clean limbed, has lost the finger next the little one on his left hand; stutters in his speech, and is about twenty years old. He was at Mr. Travers Daniels, in Stafford county, about a fortnight ago, where he shewed a pass, certifying himself to be a free man, said to bear the signature of the clerk of Fauquier county. I will give a reward of thirty dollars for delivering him to me in Fauquier, (and two dollars for his pass,) and all lawful charges; or twenty dollars for lodging him in any gaol so that I get him again.
