Baltimore and Frederick TURNPIKE ROAD COMPANY.

A PERSON well skilled in directing the forming and compleating of turnpike roads (to be made with gravel and pounded stone); of directing the building of bridges, and other matters relative to turnpikes; whose duty also it shall be to attend to the company's interest, to see into the faithful performance of the company's contracts and engagements, and such other things as may be deemed necessary to place under his direction. Such person will meet with encouragement as superintendant by applying to the president and managers of the company, at their office at the head of Market-street

The president and managers meet weekly at their office, every Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

May 30. d

To be Leased,

THAT very valuable Property, beautifully situated on the east side of Jones's Falls, adjoining the residence in the city of Harry D. Gough, esq. It contains on Front-street nearly 180 feet and extends back to the Falls about the same distance, agreeably to a plot of the same made by Mr. Boulding. The whole front on the Falls is permanently secured with large logs, where there is a sufficient depth of water to admit scows or other flat-bottomed vessels to lie alongside the wharf. It is a fine high, dry, healthy situation, as perhaps any in this city; affords excellent water; and from its situation can never be injured by the rising of the water in the Falls.—This property is most unquestionably among the first situations in the city for a brewery, distillery, any kind of manufactory, or for private buildings. Apply to Owen Dorsey, esq. near the court-house, or to the subscriber, living at the upper end of Pratt-street. RICHARD CURSON, Jun.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the morning of the 22d instant, a Negro Woman named LUCY, of a very dark yellow complexion, about twenty-five years old, and rather a neat figure, speaks timidly, and sometimes inclining to be sulkey; has a large tumid eye, and her jaws frequently tied up for the tooth-ache. She used to wear at home a dark blue striped linen jacket and petticoat, but having carried of all her clothes, it is likely she will change her dress. It is thought she is lurking about some gentleman's place in the vicinity of Baltimore, having many friends and acquaintances in the country. Any constable or other person bringing her home, shall have the above reward, and on giving information where she can be had, shall have half the amount. She was formerly the property of Mr. Thomas Rutter, who sold her to Colonel Clemm, and by me purchased of him.

One hundred and fifty Dollars REWARD

WILL be given for apprehending and securing Negro JACOB, a slave, who on the 24th inst. absconded from the Havre-de-Grace factory, in the town of Havre-de-Grace, Maryland. Fifty Dollars will be paid, if he is taken in this state; and the above reward, if in any other—with reasonable charges for bringing him home.—JACOB is about twenty-five years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, very stout and well made; middling black complexion; has a diffident look, when spoken to: no particular mark is recollected, except some scars on his breast, occasioned, it is supposed, by whipping when young. He is a blacksmith and nailor by trade, and can do any plantation-work. Had on when he went away, a new ticklenburg shirt, linen trousers, short coat of brown cloth, hat and shoes. He may have other clothes that are not known, and probably may have obtained from some free negro a pass, and endeavor to appear a free man, under some other name. The above compensation will be paid by the Subscriber, on the delivery of Negro JACOB to him in Havre-de-Grace, or for having him secured in any jail, so that he may be had again.

Thirty-five Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Sunday morning last, an indented Servant Man named John Jacob Herman Gysinck, a native of Holland, and arrived from Bremen in October last in the ship Weser, captain Tietjen. He took my horse, saddle and bridle out of my stable with him. The said servant speaks the Holland & German languages incorrectly, and also very broken English. He is 26 years old; a druggist by profession; about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, of a dark complexion; his hair originally black, but growing grey; he is a little bow-legged. Had on when he went away, a dark-colored cloth coat, with gilt buttons; yellow nankeen trousers; a half-worn black fur hat, &c.

The horse is a dark bay, between 14 and 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, his hind feet white, with a scar in his forehead, no other marks recollected: The bridle and saddle are better than half worn.—Whoever apprehends and secures said Runaway and Horse, so that I get them again, shall receive, if taken within this state, Ten Dollars for servant and Fifteen for horse; and if out of the state, the above reward, viz. Fifteen for servant and Twenty for horse, with all reasonable charges, paid by HENRY KEERL.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are cautioned against harboring said Runaway at their peril.
