Give Christmas Gifts

In doing so you help to carry forward the beautiful sentiment that Christmas gifts express. In doing so you make others happy and yourself more happy than they.

There is no thrill like that which is experienced when a loved one or a dear friend smiles and thanks you for some little remembrance of the glad Christmas season.

As on sophisticated person once said: "After I gave the kid a doll, her face lighted up, and she looked so blame happy that I felt like a 'Little Tin God With Wings on'."

It goes to the heart, this Christmas giving.
