Scouts Set for Celebration on 30th Birthday

First Sepia Troop Organized in City, September, 1928

Under the theme of "Scouting the American Way," the Boy Scouts of America, Inc., will celebrate their thirtieth anniversary from February 8-14.

Scouting for sepia boys, however, begin in various parts of the country in the early twenties, and in Baltimore in September, 1928, when Troop No. 275, Sharp Street Community House was registered, with Oscar Simmonds, scoutmaster, and Leroy Coles, Sr., and Levi Jolley, assistant scoutmasters.

Now 34 Registered Troops

From one troop with 30 scouts in 1928, scouting in Baltimore has grown to 34 troops, 4 cub packs, and 2 sea scout ships, with a total boy membership of 800.

Scout week this year will be a year long, one beginning with a national broadcast, February 8, at 8:30 p.m. over the Columbia Broadcasting System, when President Roosevelt, Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts of America, and Dr. James E. West, white, chief scout executive, will be heard.

Troops Plan Programs

Locally, Troop No. 283, St. Peter Claver Roman Catholic Church, is planning a special program for February 9, 7 p.m. Troop No. 280 will serve the following Sunday.

Troop No. 274, Stevenson AME Church, Sparks, Md., is planning a father and son supper on February 10, and a religious service on February 11. Troop No. 275, Sharp Street Community House, will have a special night program, February 12, at 8 p.m.

Troop No. 280, Perkins Square Baptist Church, is having a scout demonstration and exhibit during the entire week at the Enoch Pratt Library Branch No. 1, Pitcher Street and Fremont Avenue; a religious service, February 11, at 11 a.m., and an open house on February 14.

Troop No. 273, Morning Star Baptist Church, will have a "Professor Scout Quiz" program, February 12, 8:30 p.m., for troop wishing to enter.

Troop No. 287, Metropolitan Methodist Church, is having a religious service, February 11, at 8 p.m., and a troop, pack, and ship dinner on February 14, at 6:45 p.m. Troop No. 293, Ames Memorial Methodist Church, will hold its religious service on February 11 at 3 p.m.

A neighborhood religious service will be held at the home of Troop No. 297, Trinity AME Church, on February 11, at 11 a.m., for the following troops: 275, Sharp Street Community House; 285, Bethel AME Church; 291, Douglas Memorial Church; 279, Bacon Baptist Church, and Troop, 290, Federal Post 19, American Legion.

Annual Scout Dinner

Coming at the end of Scout Week will be the fourth annual scouters' dinner at the Druid Hill YMCA on February 15, 6 p.m., at which time A. J. Taylor, an outstanding national scouter and assistant to the national director of interracial scouting, will be the speaker.
