30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Monday, the 31st of March last, negro HORACE, aged between 20 and 24 years, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, of a dark copper color; stout and well made; a fine set of teeth, which stand at a little distance apart; his head is covered with fine black hair; he has been brought up to wait in the house almost altogether, and to go with a carriage; he is excessively fond of liquor, & never fails to get drunk whenever an opportunity offers. Had on when he went away, a round kersey over-jacket and trousers, dyed of an olive color, striped blue and white linsey under-jacket, white yarn stockings, a fur hat much worn; his shoes pretty good; he took with him a pair of new dark-colored cloth trousers; a round dimity over-jacket; three white cotton shirts, ruffled at the bosom, one of them the ruffle is notted in points. It is probable he will change his dress, as he took with him a variety of other clothes; he plays well on the violin, one of which he took with him. It is more than probable he has gone either to Camden, in Delaware, (where he has an uncle living in the neighborhood, by the name of Scipo, a blacksmith) or to Philadelphia, to his father-in-law, by the name of Abram Register. The above reward will be given if taken out of the state, or twenty dollars in the state, and all reasonable charges paid by

The improvements are almost new & useful, consisting of a two-story log-house, barn, poultry & spring house, well watered, fencing in good repair; has about 50 acres of meadow upon it, part of which is now in grass, the remainder under fence, and water conveyed around it to advantage, and more than half of the whole in good timber. 30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday the 4th inst. a negro man named BEN; he is a gardener and rough shoe-maker by trade, about 42 or 43 years old; his stature 5 feet 5, to five feet eight inches; stout and square built; he has very black woolly hair; his eyes of a red cast, a flat nose and thick lips; his complexion very black; he is a very artful plausible fellow, and of great address. His cloathing when he eloped, consisted of an osnaburg shirt, an old snuff-colored round jacket, a striped red and white waistcoat, a pair of grey Bath coating pantaloons, a pair of white home-knit yarn stockings, a pair of coarse home-made shoes, & an old castor hat. He had also, an old great coat of Welch plains, which had once been of a purple color, but is now almost white, and a red Bandanoe handkerchief for a neckcloth, but as he has a variety of cloaths, he may have carried off others of a different description.

It is not improbable he may go to Baltimore, Alexandria, or Philadelphia, for he absconded about ten years ago, and remained in Baltimore upwards of two months, in the employment of a brick maker.

Whoever will take up the above negro, and secure him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward of thirty dollars. To any person that will bring him home, I will give the following reward, viz: if taken one hundred miles or upwards from home, I will give fifty dollars; if taken from sixty to one hundred miles from home, I will give forty dollars; if taken from thirty to sixty miles from home, I will give thirty-five dollars; if taken within thirty miles of this place, I will give the above reward of thirty dollars, and I will also pay all reasonable expences of bringing him home.

All masters of vessels and others, are forewarned from harboring, employing or carrying off said slave, as I will prosecute such as do so with the utmost rigor of the law.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

Gentlemen,

BEING solicited by many of my friends, both in City and county, to offer myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I consider myself qualified, (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding Sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office. My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am anxious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites, I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against

The Public's Humble Servant,

JOHN HUNTER.

Notice.

Will be sold to the highest bidder, on Friday the 12th day of September next, if fair, if not, the first fair day afterwards, unless disposed of at private sale before the first of September, in which case public notice will be given,

ALL that tract of Land called STEPNEY, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from Annapolis, containing eight hundred and thirty-five acres. The improvements on this farm are considerable, with many great advantages, there are several good orchards on it, with the choicest fruits of every kind; its situation almost immediately upon South river ensures always good fish and oysters, and at the head of a creek, which bounds the farm on one side, is a considerable portion of excellent meadow ground. It would be too tedious more minutely to describe this land, as a person wishing to purchase would view the premises. One third of the purchase money must be paid in hand, and a liberal credit, with approved security, will be given for the balance. Any person desirous of purchasing at private sale, will make application to the subscriber, at Port-Tobacco, Charles county. An unexceptionable title will be given to the purchaser, and possession of the premises on the 1st day of January, 1807.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 16th April, a negro man by the name of DAVY, 5 feet, 11 inches high, a well-made fellow, he is very black, when spoken to his manners are quite pleasing, about 30 years of age. He took along with him, a parcel of good clothes, and among them was a blue spencer, and a blue pair of trousers, and a light-horseman's cap, with a feather in it. I have been informed that he is come on to the city of Baltimore, with a free pass; he has relations in the city of Alexandria; his drift is to get off by water. I hereby forewarn all captains from taking the said negro Davy on board of their vessel, under the penalty of the law. Whoever will deliver him to me, or secure him in gaol so that I can get him again, shall receive the above reward.

Gerard Von Harten is a middle-sized man—5 feet, six or seven inches high—about thirty-two years of age—he has a round & regularly-featured face—of fair complexion, with full red cheeks, and is slightly pitted with the small-pox—his eyes are rather small, and of a dark hazel color—his mouth small with a good set of teeth—his hair is dark or chesnut colored, & is cropped short.—He is a native of Germany, and retains much of the Dutch accent in speaking English, which he articulates slowly, and with a little lisp.

From the above scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50,000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other peasons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Church Lotteries will be received in payment.
