POETRY.

MY COUNTRY.

I love my country's pine clad hills,
Her thousand bright and gushing rills,
Her sunshine and her storm;
Her rough and rugged rocks that rear
Their hoary heads high in the air,
In wild fantastic forms.

I love her rivers deep and wide,
Those silv'ry streams that seaward glide
To seek the ocean breast;
Her smiling fields, her pleasant vales,
Her shady knolls, her pleasant dales,
The haunts of peaceful rest.

I love the forest dark and lone,
For there the wild bird's merry tone
Is heard from morn till night;
And there are lovelier flowers I ween,
Than e'er in eastern land were seen,
In varied colors bright.

Her forests and her valleys fair,
Her flowers that scent the morning air,
Have all their charms for me;
But more I love my country's name,
Those words that echo deathless fame,
"The Land of Liberty."

THE WELCOME BACK.

Sweet is the hour that brings us home,
Where all will spring to meet us;
Where hands are striving as we come,
To be the first to greet us.
When the world hath spent its frowns and wrath
And care been sorely pressing,
'Tis sweet to turn from our roving path,
And find a fireside blessing.
Oh, joyfully dear is the homeward track,
If we are but sure of a welcome back.

What do we reck on a dreary way,
Though lonely and benighted,
If we know there are lips to chide our stay,
And eyes that will beam love-lighted?
What is the worth of a diamond ray,
To the glance that flashes pleasure;
When the words that welcome back, betray,
We form a heart's chief treasure?
Oh, joyfully dear is our homeward track,
If we are but sure of a welcome back.

Advertising.—"Here sow your dimes and reap your dollars," says the Huntingdon Journal, is the expressive motto of Mason and Tuttle's Advertiser. There have been thousands of illustrations of its truth. The other day a lady lost her purse. It contained $70. It was found by a gentleman who saw her advertisement, and of course it was returned. So of a pair of gold spectacles. A single notice brought them. Horses, cows, and even children and wives, have been found by the same simple process. While thousands of similar commodities—purses, cattle, horses, &c. worth immense sums—remain unfound forever, by their owners, because it would cost them each from fifty cents to a dollar to let the world know their loss. But it is the merchant, mechanic, and the business man who should particularly regard this motto. To them, one and all, the cry goeth up from every hill, plain, and valley, where dwelleth the honest disciple of Faust and Franklin:

"Here sow your dimes and reap your dollars."

Married, at Fruit Hill, near Chillicothe, Ohio, on Monday the 12th ult., by the Rev. J. B. Britton, the Hon. Wm. Allen, of the U. S. Senate, to Miss Effie McArthur Coones.

Fierce man! who with relentless hate,
Didst hunt the coons in seasons past,
He, (as will be each loco's fate,)
Is overcome by Coones at last.

It is no part of wisdom to make ourselves miserable to-day, because there is a possibility of our being so to-morrow.

We have often been amused by the vagaries of hypocondriacs. One of the strangest incidents is that of a man who fancied himself a kernel of corn, and feared to go into the barn yard, lest the chickens should swallow him.

A minister out west advertises, in the hope of making young people come forward, that during the warm weather he will marry them for a glass of whiskey, a dozen of eggs, the first kiss of the bride, and a quarter of a pig.

A Long Stride.—John Jones' successor says of the "Young Democracy:" "It will plant its right foot on the northern verge of Oregon, and its left upon the Atlantic crag!" We should think the child would be apt to burst its trowsers in making such a wide straddle.

A clergyman in England, not long since, adopted the following text: "Wilt thou go with me to battle at Kamoth Gilead?" The peculiar emphasis with which the question was twice repeated, induced a brave soldier to suppose it a reality, and he very cordially answered: "Why, gentlemen, if you are all cowards, I'll go for one."

"Esq." at the end of a man's name is like a curl in a pig's tail—more for ornament than use.

There are some human tongues which have two sides, like those of certain quadrupeds—one smooth, the other very rough.

Let a man's deeds be the test of his character.

NEW STORE.
CASH SYSTEM.

THE question is often asked why it is that goods cannot be sold in Rockville as low as they are sold in Georgetown and Washington? The question is easily answered: and I say that they can be sold as low here as they are in either of those places—that is, if they are paid for when purchased; but if they are sold on a credit, it will be impossible to do so—for a careful dealer can, with the cash, purchase his goods in Philadelphia or Baltimore from fifteen to twenty per cent. cheaper than any person (however good their standing may be) can buy them on credit: and as the subscriber is determined to sell his goods as low as they can be had in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere, he will be compelled to sell them exclusively for cash, or country produce, at a fair market price.

When money is so scarce as it now is, such a store will benefit the community very much, and the subscriber a little too—he having rented the large Brick Store House, opposite the Post Office, is now opening a good assortment of GROCRIES, LIQUORS, CHINA GLASS, AND QUEENSWARE, with a considerable quantity of DRY GOODS: the stock consisting in part, as follows—

1st, 2d and 3d qualities brown Sugar;
1st, 2d and 3d do loaf do
Java, St. Domingo and Rio Coffee;
Imperial, Young Hyson, Gunpowder and Black Teas;
Sperm, mould and dipped Candles;
Coshen and Glades Butter;
English and common Cheese;
First quality Potomac Shad, Susquehanna Herrings;
Smoked, Scotch and large Herrings;
A few barrels of Newfoundland Herrings, sup. quality and size.
Sugarhouse and West India Molasses;
One tierce excellent Syrup;
Old Irish and Scotch Whiskey;
American do. all qualities;
Champagne and cognac Bsandy;
Jamaica and Antigua Spirit;
Holland and American Gin;
Madeira, Teneriffe, pale and brown Sherry, Sicily, Lisbon, Port and Malaga Wines;
One cask of Fintilla and Danotta Wine, a very scarce and desirable article;
A general and well assorted stock of China, Glass and Queensware;

With a great variety of other goods entirely too numerous to be inserted in a newspaper, which he pledges himself to sell on such terms as ought to give general satisfaction to all who may please to give him a call.

WRIGHT'S
INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

IF, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of OUR MIGHTY RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be OVERWHELMED WITH THE FLOOD. In like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors,) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities, which are in all cases THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS, we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be OVERWHEMED WITH DISEASE. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation, we must remove all obstructions to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open, and keep open, the Natural Drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best, if not the very best medicine in the world, for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse tha Stomach and Bowels from all billious humors and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the natural drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the body.

☞ CAUTION.—As the great popularity and consequently great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many imposters who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by William Wright, Vice-President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate, as above described, will be known as imposters.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained:

Montgomery County, Md.
Veirs & Higgins, Rockville;
J. D. Beardsley, Mechanicsville;
Joseph Gilpin, Sandy Springs;
Wm. Voldenar, Colesville;
Geo. Mobberley, Clarksburg;

PRICE 1 DOLLAR!

PROSPECTUS
OF A NEW VOLUME OF THE AMERICAN FARMER.

THE Proprietor of the "American Farmer," at the earnest solicitation of the friends of his journal, has determined to change it from a weekly, to a MONTHLY publication, after the termination of the present volume—and appeals with confidence to the kind feeling and active co-operation of his present patrons, to aid him in the enterprise.

It is the intention of the Proprietor to issue his journal in a large octavo form, each number to comprise 32 double column pages of original and selected matter, printed on a handsome brevier type, to be embellished with engravings illustrative of subjects to be treated of in its columns. He deems it superfluous to make any extended professions as to the course his journal will pursue; but it may not be amiss to remark, that as it i the oldest Agricultural Journal in th country, he will exert his best abilit to maintain for it in its new form, high reputation which, in its pre one, it has sustained for nearly the th of a century. While it will contain matters connected with the husbandry of the world, drawn from the most reliable sources in America as well as in Europe—while it will treat upon Agriculture in its most extended aspects, and render the science of Chemistry, in its application to the purposes of husbandry, tributary to the enlightenment of the general mind, it will be his peculiar province to render his journal the exponent of the interests, views and systems of culture of the farmers and planters of the Middle, Southern, South-Western and Western sections of the Union, thus identifying its objects with that portion of the country in which it was his good fortune to be born, and, as he trusts, proving by its character that it merits its support.

The price of the contemplated journal will be $1, per annum, payable invariably in advance, and as the price is low, and the postage under the operation of the new post office regulations will be correspondingly low, the proprietor, in appealing to his present subscribers, does so from a belief that, in their zeal for the promotion of the cause of agriculture, he has an assurance that they will take pleasure in increasing his subscription list; and as all new subscribers will desire to begin with the first No. of the new volume, he urges those who may interest themselves in his behalf, to bestir themselves among their neighbors, and to transmit him their lists of subscribers by the 20th of June, in order that he may form an estimate of the probable number of copies which it will be necessary to strike off, as the first number will be published on the 1st day of July, and the work continued the 1st of each succeeding month. In return for the exertions of his friends, he promises them that he will furnish one of the best agricultural journals of the day.

As it is the desire of the proprietor to make his monthly a compendium of scientific and practical farming and planting, he respectfully requests that his subscribers will make it the medium of their communications to the public.

The volume when completed will comprise about 400 large 8vo. pages, and will be regularly mailed on the 1st of every month. ☞ Any postmaster or other person remitting $10, will be considered as our agent, and entitled to an 11th copy, or 10 per cent. commission. Such of our well-wishers and patrons that cannot give their personal services to the task of canvassing their neighbourhoods, will oblige us by appointing trusty agents for that purpose, and allow them the commission therefor.
