WASHINGTON HOTEL,
AND STAGE OFFICE,
Rockville, Md.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has leased the above well known establishment (formerly kept by Daniel H. Candler,) and has opened a public house for the reception of travellers, local and transient boarders. Urbanity and strict attention to the comforts of his guests will, he trusts, secure him a share of the public favor. His table will be supplied with the luxuries the markets will afford—and his BAR will be provided with the choicest liquors. His Stables are commodious and comfortable, and his granary well stored with provender. DROVERS' will find it to their advantage to give him a call. He will use the best endeavor to render his house acceptable to his guests—a quiet retreat for the traveller, and with charges to suit the times.

REFECTORY.

THE subscriber takes pleasure in informing the citizens of Rockville and the public generally, that he has opened a REFECTORY, at the south-west corner of the Square, where lovers of good ALE can, at all times, be accommodated. His Bar will be constantly supplied with the best Liquors.

He will also keep OYSTERS, when they can be conveniently procured.

He most respectfully invites all who are fond of good cheer, to give him a call—bearing always in mind that the cash must be paid.

NEW STORE.
CASH SYSTEM.

THE question is often asked why it is that goods cannot be sold in Rockville as low as they are sold in Georgetown and Washington? The question is easily answered: and I say that they can be sold as low here as they are in either of those places—that is, if they are paid for when purchased; but if they are sold on a credit, it will be impossible to do so—for a careful dealer can, with the cash, purchase his goods in Philadelphia or Baltimore from fifteen to twenty per cent. cheaper than any person (however good their standing may be) can buy them on credit: and as the subscriber is determined to sell his goods as low as they can be had in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere, he will be compelled to sell them exclusively for cash, or country produce, at a fair market price.

When money is so scarce as it now is, such a store will benefit the community very much, and the subscriber a little too—he having rented the large Brick Store House, opposite the Post Office, is now opening a good assortment of GROCRIES, LIQUORS, CHINA, GLASS, AND QUEENSWARE, with a considerable quantity of DRY GOODS: the stock consisting in part, as follows—

1st, 2d and 3d qualities brown Sugar;
1st, 2d and 3d do loaf do
Java, St. Domingo and Rio Coffee;
Imperial, Young Hyson, Gunpowder and Black Teas;
Sperm, mould and dipped Candles;
Coshen and Glades Butter;
English and common Cheese;
First quality Potomac Shad, Susquehanna Herrings;
Smoked, Scotch and large Herrings;
A few barrels of Newfoundland Herrings, sup. quality and size.
Sugarhouse and West India Molasses;
One tierce excellent Syrup;
Old Irish and Scotch Whiskey;
American do. all qualities;
Champagne and cognac Bsandy;
Jamaica and Antigua Spirit;
Holland and American Gin;
Madeira, Teneriffe, pale and brown Sherry, Sicily, Lisbon, Port and Malaga Wines;
One cask of Fintilla and Danotta Wine, a very scarce and desirable article;
A general and well assorted stock of China, Glass and Queensware;

With a great variety of other goods entirely too numerous to be inserted in a newspaper, which he pledges himself to sell on such terms as ought to give general satisfaction to all who may please to give him a call.
