"Chan's Murder Cruise" at Lincoln with "Cheyenne Kid"

For Sunday and Monday, the Lincoln Theatre will show "Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise" with Sidney Toler and "Cheyenne Kid" with Jack Randall.

A strangler strikes time and again with amazing rapidity as he furtively prowls the decks of a luxury liner. Audiences will strive in vain to identify him in "Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise."

It's Chan's strongest and most baffling case and only he is able to solve it. Featured in the cast are Marjorie Weaver, Lionel Atwill, Sen Yung, Robert Lowery, and others.

The scene is laid aboard a gorgeously appointed ocean liner, swiftly ending a world cruise. A pall of gloom has fallen over the party of vacationers, which includes, in addition to the above mentioned players, Don Beddoe, Lee Carrill, Cora Witherspoon, Kay Linaker, and Harlan Briggs.

One by one, three of the voyagers are found strangled, a bag of silver coins beside each victim.

Challenges Killer

Chan answers the challenge of the killer as only he can, calmly, but relentlessly tracking him down. His Oriental intuition and the scientific application of the master detective methodically eliminates the suspects until there is but one left.

For Tuesday, the pictures will be "Boys of the City" and "Rocky Mountain Rangers" starring Tim Tyler's Mequitzers.

"Twenty-Mule Team," which will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday, stars Wallace Beery, and has a cast of well known players, including Marjorie Rambeau, Noah Beery, Jr., and Leo Carillo.

The story deals with the men who go down into Death Valley and bring out the gigantic wagon loads of borax. A very human story inside this plot is that of Mrs. Rambeau's attempts to prevent her young daughter from running away with a city slicker who comes to the little town near Death Valley to pick up a crooked dollar.

Coupled with "20-Mule Team" on Wednesday will be "Law Beyond the Range" with Tim McCoy, and on Thursday, the coupling feature will be "Star Gas Squad."

"Tear Gas Squad" will be repeated Friday, "Riders from Nowhere" is scheduled for Friday and Saturday and the coupling feature for Saturday is "Haunted House."

"Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise" Plays Fremont

The Fremont Theatre will show "Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise" with Sidney Toler, and "Wagons Westward" with Chester Morris and Buck Jones on Sunday and Monday.

Chan decides to take the cruise for a vacation trip, but when a murder is committed, he turns in to help solve the mystery. The story has a lively plot, well blended as to excitement and romance.

"Wagons Westward" is an exciting story of twin boys who were born and reared in the old West, one of them kind and loving, and the other a ruthless killer.

Chester Morris plays both parts. Ona Munson plays a cafe dancer and her sister is played by Anita Louise.

For Tuesday and Wednesday, the pictures are "Stagecoach War" with Hopalong Cassidy and "Girl in 313" with Florence Rice and Lionel Atwill.

Double features for Thursday are "Banjo on My Knee" with Hattie McDaniel and Barbara Stanwyck and "Black Limelight" with Raymond Massey.

"Justice of the Range" starring Tim McCoy and "Enemy Agent," starring Robert Armstrong and Jack Larue will be shown on Friday and Saturday.

'My Son, My Son' at the Lafayette

One of the best pictures of the year, "My Son, My Son," will come to the Lafayette Theatre on Sunday and Monday, with Brian Aherne, Madeleine Carroll, and Louis Hayward in the cast.

There will also be a coupling feature, "Stage Coach War," with William Boyd as Hopalong Cassidy and Russell Hayden in a featured role.

"My Son, My Son" is an up-to-date, human story of true love of a father for his son, a love that caused him to spoil the boy so that it is not until the end of the picture that he finally realizes what he has done.

Aherne is cast as the father, while Hayward is seen as the son. Miss Carroll plays the part of the woman whom the father loves, and whom the son artfully decides to make miserable because she does not love him.

Rochester will be seen on the program, Tuesday and Wednesday in "Buck Benny Rides Again," one of the best and funniest comedies of any season.

Playing opposite Rochester is lovely Theresa Anderson, and in the film, Rochester gets a chance to appear in some dance sequences, which will please his fans, since he was a dancer prior to joinng Benny.

The second picture is "Grand Ole Opry" with the Weaver Bros. and Elviry.

For Thursday and Friday, features will be "Dark Command" with John Wayne and Gabby Hayes and "Girls of the Road" starring Lola Lane, Helen Mack, and Ann Dvorak. Saturday's features are "Oklahoma Frontier" with Johnny Mack Brown, Fuzzy Knight, and Bob Baker, and short subjects.

Tragedy Ends Career

The dance team of Pedro and Delores, ballroom favorites, frequently seen at the Howard Theatre, whose career was ended in Welch, W.Va., last week, when Pedro shot and killed his wife following a domestic quarrel. The Miss Delores was traveling with the Ethel Green show. The tragedy occurred on the street when Delores, while walking with Manager S. H. Dudley, Jr., refused to speak to her husband, from whom she was estranged. The latter, angered at the slight, shot and killed her instantly.

Delores, Slain by Dancer, Has Chicago Burial

CHICAGO — Funeral rites for Mrs. Elizabeth Delores Thomas, feminine half of the dance team of Delores and Pedro, who was shot to death by her husband and dance partner, Pedro Thomas, on Thursday, were held here, Monday, at the Banks Parlors.

The Rev. J. P. Wilson officiated.

Mrs. Thomas was killed in Welch, W.Va., where the Silas Green Minstrel Show, with whom the couple had been appearing, was playing.

It was reported that Pedro and Delores had quarreled, and that on the evening of the shooting, she was returning home with S. H. Dudley, Jr., formerly of Washington, after attending a movie. Mr. Dudley is manager for Silas Green.

As husband and wife passed, Delores is said to have failed to speak, and Pedro called her and asked whether she knew she did not speak to him.

Didn't Mean to Kill

Pedro is reported to have said later that he only intended to frighten his wife, and that he thought the safety catch was on the gun.

The dance team is well known in the East, having appeared at the Royal Theatre, the Club Astoria, and the Howard Theatre, Washington.

It was one of the best liked attractions at the gigantic benefit show given by the Chick Webb Memorial in Baltimore's Fifth Regiment Armory early this year.

The dead woman, who was 26, lived in Chicago. Her mother, Mrs. Ada Isabel, of that city, survives.

'The Mortal Storm' to Be Shown at Diane

The Diane Theatre will feature Sunday through Tuesday "The Mortal Storm" with Margaret Sullivan, James Stewart, and Robert Young in the top roles.

Because of the unusually long length of this picture, it will be shown as a single feature.

Adapted from the famous novel of the same title, "The Mortal Storm" tells the heart-breaking story of a family torn asunder by the events in Germany, where Nazi followers of the racial theories vent their cruelty on an innocent group of people.

Critics have acclaimed "The Mortal Storm" as the most outspoken movie ever made on this subject, and it reaches the heart of everyone.

Heading the supporting cast is Frank Morgan, who is seen as the pictures will be "Queen of the Mob."

For Wednesday and Thursday, the pictures will be "Queen of the Mob" with a cast that includes Ralph Bellamy, Blanche Yurka, J. Carrol Naish, Jean Cagney and William Henry. The second picture is "Slightly Honorable" with Pat O'Brien, Edward Arnold, and Broderick Crawford.

"Wallace Berry is starred in "20 Mule Team" and Andy Devine in "Legion of Lost Flyers" for Friday and Saturday.

Irene Castle Buys Painting

CHICAGO, (ANP)—Irene Castle, internationally known former dancer, socialite and patron of the arts, and Dr. Leroy A. Howell, dentist and business leader of Tampa, Fla., were so impressed with the art exhibit at the American Exposition last week that they bought two of the paintings now on display.

They will be delivered after the exposition closes on September 2.

Choice of Miss Castle was "Blind Beggars in Spain," an oil by the late Albert Alexander Smith, a native New Yorker, who died in Paris a few months ago at the age of 44.

MAN HELD FOR THEFT

Said by police to have stolen a watch and ring valued at $30 from William Selby, 19 S. Caroline Street, on August 11, Waverly Harrison, 34, of 37 S. Bond Street, was held for the grand jury, following a hearing in Northeastern police court, Tuesday.

Dorothy Maynor at Scene of First Triumph

LENOX, Mass.—Dorothy Maynor, famous soprano, who was nationally acclaimed as a concert singer after her debut last summer at the Berkshire Music Festivals, returns this Saturday to the scene of her original triumph.

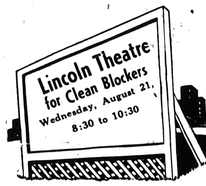
She will be the featured soloist on three programs Saturday, Sunday and Monday with the Boston Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Serge Koussevitzky, the conductor who discovered her.

This program opens the third series in the Berkshire Festivals. All seats are sold. These concerts are given from the Tanglewood Music Shed near here.

Ernest Whitman Gets Douglas Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD — Ernest Whitman is one of Hollywood's greatest dramatic actors and singers, will be seen in M-G-M's "Third Finger Right Hand" as the lovable partner of detective Melvyn Douglas. The public will have a chance to hear Ernest's voice again on the screen as in this picture, he will sing several songs.

Clean Block Jamboree



Wednesday morning, bright and early, each captain may bring his ten best workers to the Lincoln Theatre to see the Clean Block movies. This is free to children with their blue buttons, when accompanied by captains, who must show their captains' cards. Doors open at 8 a.m. Show begins at 8:30 a.m.

"The Ghost Breakers" Featured at Regent

Beginning Sunday and continuing for one week, the Regent Theatre will have as features of its double bill, "The Ghost Breakers" with Richard Carlson, Paul Lukas, Anthony Quinn, and Willie Best, noted sepia actor.

Best, nicknamed "Syracuse," not because it's near "Rochester," or anything like that, plays the role of man-servant to Hope, who has the leading role.

Miss Goddard is seen as a wealthy girl who prefers to live alone in a New York hotel. She suddenly finds that she has inherited a famous old castle in Cuba.

Ignoring the warnings of the Cuban Consuls and the attorney for the estate not to visit it, she prepares to go. Bob Hope, as a gossipy radio commentator, hides in her trunk in the hotel after escaping from a threatening gangster he has offended on the air.

Frightens Her

Delivered to her stateroom on the boat in the trunk, he frightens her nearly to death when she opens it. Having heard the conversations, he convinces her that he is a ghost breaker of national reputation and insists on going with her on the adventure which turns out to be a romance.

Chamber of Horrors

Ominous threats punctuate the trip, but the real adventure doesn't begin until they arrive at the castle. Here, they fight their way through a veritable chamber of horrors before they arrive at the reason for the great interest in having her give up the castle. They find it in the subcellar, but it wouldn't be fair to tell about it now.

It is sufficient to say that the hero and heroine, having been through so much together, can't get along without each other.

All-getther, it's good entertainment for everyone.

The second feature will be "All Around the Town," starring Frankie Darro and his old sidekick, Mantan Moreland.

Play at Dining Car Employees' Dance

BOSTON. — The Dining Car Employees Local 370, will hold their annual summer dance, at air cooled Roseland State Ballroom, on Tuesday, August 20th, at which time they will present Duke Ellington and his orchestra.

It is believed that this will positively be the last local appearance of the Duke this year.

The Dining Car Employees are the foremost dance promoters in New England, making a specialty of giving their patrons the best dance orchestra, in America.

"Big House Across Bay" Has George Raft as Star

The Radio Theatre will show Sunday through Wednesday, "The Big House Across the Bay" with George Raft, Joan Bennet, Dick Foran, and Lloyd C. Nolan in feature roles.

"Big House Across the Bay" shows Raft as a night club owner, who has been associated with gangsters. He marries Miss Bennett, one of the dancers in his nitery. When gangsters threaten to kill him, Nolan, his lawyer, persuades Miss Bennett that if Raft were sent to prison for a short term on an income tax charge, he would be safe from the killers.

Nolan, in love with Raft's wife himself, double-crosses her, however, and Raft gets a long prison term. She moves in a house across the bay from the prison, Alcatraz, where he has been sent.

Torments Raft

When Foran, jefrends Joan, Nolan gets jealous, and torments Raft into making a prison break. The climax is a powerful and unexpected one.

It is a picture that will not be forgotten soon.

"One Million B.C." which will be shown Thursday through Saturday, has Lon Chaney in a leading role. The picture shows many of the gigantic animals, which have now been long extinct.

WEST INDIANS STRIKE ON CANAL ZONE WORK

CRISTOBAL, Canal Zone — (ANP) — Carpenters from Jamaica, B.W.I., working on U. S. projects here, having staged a temporary strike, are demanding 34 cents an hour as promised instead of the 22 being received. Citing camp conditions as deplorable they threaten to return home unless there are adjustments.

$2 for Your Views!

What's your viewpoint? There are so many controversial subjects today that the AFRO City Editor has decided to offer $2 weekly for the best letter of not more than 200 words on any subject.

It might be about the trash dumped in the alley back of your house, the Presidential candidates, the liquor license board, the Senatorial candidates, something your minister said, Sunday, but whatever it is, just jot it down and send it in.

"Untamed" at Harlem, Starring Ray Milland

For Sunday through Wednesday, the Harlem Theatre double bill will feature "Untamed" starring Ray Milland, Patricia Morrison, and Akim Tamiroff, and "The Captain Is a Lady" with a star cast.

Backgrounded against the splendour and the wild Canadian north woods, and done entirely in technicolor, "Untamed" graphically tells the story of two men, battling relentlessly for the love of a woman.

Patricia Morrison is seen as the woman, who has married a French-Canadian guide and hunter, played by Tamiroff, only to learn later that life with the husband in a tiny community, far from the civilization which has constituted her entire previous environment, has become intolerable.

Still respecting her husband, she realizes that her heart draws her closer to the young society doctor, who has come to the town to devote his life to ministering to the people of the sparsely settled country.

In addition to the three stars, this cast also includes William Frawley, Jane Darwell, J. Farrell MacDonald, J. M. Kerrigan, and Ely Malyon.

"Sailor's Lady"

For Thursday through Saturday, the pictures will be "Women in War" and "Sailor's Lady" starring Nancy Kelly and Jon Hall.

"Sailors Lady" has a naval background. Gobs on leave make merry, an adopted baby is smuggled aboard the flagship during the war games and Nancy and Jon find love for keeps.

Chock full of pleasant surprises, the film hits a side-splitting climax. The strong supporting cast is packed with names of familiar funmakers headed by Joan Davis, Dana Andrews, Mary Nash, Larry Crabbe, Katherine Aldridge, Harry Shannon, Wally Vernon and Skipper, the stowaway baby, who scuttles the war games.

"Black Friday," at Dunbar, Stars Karloff, Bela Lugosi

Sunday through Tuesday, the Dunbar Theatre will feature "Black Friday" with Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi, a thoroughly exciting story with the screen's two master horror men.

For Wednesday and Thursday, the features are "It All Came True" with Ann Sheridan and Humphrey Bogart and "Tear Gas Squad," with Dennis Morgan, Gloria Dickson, and John Payne as stars.

Dealing with New York's gang-busting, law-enforcing police divisions, the picture presents the human interest behind-the-scene stories of the lives of the men who fight crime with tear gas.

Police Rivalry

The plot deals with the rivalry between a sergeant, played by John Payne, and a rookie cop, played by Dennis Morgan. At first, the sergeant is preferred, but when the tear gas squad has to make out a group of dope addicts, Dennis is established as a hero.

For Friday, the pictures will be "Tear Gas Squad" with Philip Dorn and "Blondie on Parade."

For Saturday, the pictures will be "Cheyenne Kid" starring Jack Randall and "In Old Mexico" starring William (Hopalong Cassidy) Boyd.

"Torrid Zone," "Ski Patrol" Show at Lenox

Headed by a cast of three stars, James Cagney, Ann Sheridan, and Pat O'Brien, "Torrid Zone" will be on the bill at the Lenox Theatre Sunday through Tuesday, together with "Ski Patrol" with Stanley Fields and Edward Morris in the top roles.

"Torrid Zone" is a story of life on a tropical island, where O'Brien is manager of a fruit plantation of which Cagney is foreman. Miss Sheridan is seen as a newcomer to the island, an entertained in a cafe, where she hopes to add to her earnings as a singer by cheating the natives at cards.

The plot hinges around the efforts made by O'Brien to keep Cagney on the island, as Cagney is anxious to return to the United States. There is also a second plot in which O'Brien is trying to run Miss Sheridan off the island as a bad influence.

The picture comes to a dramatic climax as Ann meets Cagney and falls in love with him, over his protests.

The second film, "Ski Patrol" is a story of the brave stand of the Finns and their ski patrol against the invaders to their country. Told against the snowy background of winter in this northern country.

"Hero for a Day" with Anita Louis and Dick Foran and "Susans and God" with Joan Crawford and Fredric March will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday, while features for Friday and Saturday are "Earthbound" with Warner Baxter and "Heats of Berlin" with Roland Drew and Steffi Duna.

Coming to the Harlem

"Bill of Divorcement," "Lone Wolf Meets a Lady" at Royal

Beginning Sunday, and continuing for four days, the Royal Theatre will offer one of the best of the Lone Wolf series, "The Lone Wolf Meets the Lady," and as a second feature, one of the year's best dramas, "Bill of Divorcement."

Warren William plays the role in "The Lone Wolf Meets a Lady," or rather, half the title role, for the lady in the case is pretty Jean Muir, who plays opposite the dashing, debonair rogue, as he leads cops and crooks a merry chase in pursuit of a $100,000 diamond necklace.

It is the Lone Wolf's custom to steal fortunes and feminine hearts with equal facility. He does not neglect either in the new film. Assisting him in his daring escapades is his faithful valet, Jamaica, again played by Eric Blore, who looks upon his master's adventures in romance and robbery with upraised eyebrows.

Two murders occur during the course of the search for the jewels and when the blame is placed upon the Lone Wolf, the lightheartedrogue finds himself in hot water. However, with typical gusto, he manages to outwit his adversaries, unmasking the real murderer at the psychological moment.

The supporting cast includes Warren Hull, Victor Jory, Roger Pryor, Robert Emmett Keane and many others.

Maureen O'Hara

The second feature, "A Bill of Divorcement" presents the Irish sensation, Maureen O'Hara, in her first modern role. Important parts are played by Adolphe Menjou, Fay Bainter, Herbert Marshall, Dame May Whitty, Patric Knowles, C. Aubrey Smith, and others.

Laid in the quiet English countryside, the action takes place within a few hours, most of it in the home occupied by Sydney, her mother, and her acidulous grandaunt. Sydney's father, a shell-shocked war veteran, is unaware that his wife has obtained a divorce from him, and when he escapes from a long incarceration in a hospital and comes home on the eve of her marriage to another man, he precipitates a crisis.

Sydney, also engaged to be married, learns that she too may have inherited a mental taint from her father.

Interwoven with this stirring tale of a girl's loyalty to her responsibility are notable characterizations of Menjou as the war-torn, bewildered veteran; of Miss Bainter as the testant mother; of Marshall as the man she marries; of Dame Whitty as the bitter, narrow-minded aunt, and of Knowles as the heroine's young fiance.

Thursday through Saturday, the pictures will be "You Can't Fool Your Wife" with Lucille Ball and James Ellison and "The Durango Kid" featuring Charles Starrett.

Errol Flynn in "Virgina City" at Carey Theatre

Errol Flynn, Miriam Hopkins, and Humphrey Bogart head the star-studded cast that will bring "Virginia City" to the screen of the Carey Theatre on Sunday and Monday.

A second film, "Bad Man from Red Butte" will also be shown. Players in this picture include Johnny Mack Brown, Fuzzy Knight, and Bob Baker.

"Virginia City" tells a story of Civil War days, when a group of southern sympathizers in Virginia City, Nev., in the heart of the silver-mining district, attempt to send five million dollars in gold to the south by wagon train.

Randolph Scott is seen as a Southern spy, who is charged with getting the gold through, by disguising the train as a group of frontier settlers setting out for new lands. Miriam plays the part of a Southern spy, who disguises herself as a dancer in a Virginia City cafe.

Plays Bandit

Humphrey Bogart plays a bandit chief, who attempts to steal the gold for himself. The film includes several pitched battles and several exciting incidents.

Buck Jones and Shirley Grey star in "Treason" and the Weaver Bros. and Elviry in "Grand Ole Opry" on Tuesday. On Wednesday and Thursday, Jack Randall and Louise Stanley are seen in "Cheyenne Kid" and Arthur Lake, Penny Singleton, and Larry Simms in "Blondie on a Budget."

For Friday and Saturday, the features will be "20 Mule Team" with Wallace Beery, Leo Carrillo, and Ann Baxter, and "Tear Gas Squad" with John Payne, Gloria Dickson, and Dennis Morgan.
