Among AFRO Visitors

Shown in front of the AFRO office in Baltimore after a tour through the building, last week, are the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter L. Matthews and their guests. The Rev. Mr. Matthews is the new pastor of Union Baptist Church.

Left to right: the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Donnell of Passaic, N.J., the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and the Donnells' children, Vernon and Seresa. The Donnells were en route to Durham, N.C.

Holy Church Sessions End

The Mt. Calvary Holy Church of America, Inc., ended a fifteen-day session of its national convocation here, Thursday, which had been held under the supervision of Bishop Bromfield Johnson of Durham, N.C., at the New Albert Auditorium, 1228 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Approximately 150 delegates from various parts of the country attended the convention. Elder Timberlic and his wife, Mrs. Iola Timberlic, who had been in Liberia, Africa, for the past four years as missionaries, were returned to their posts by action taken during a business session of the convention.

Religious Exhibit

An added feature was the exhibition of various religious articles made by members of the church. Chief among these was a large mural crocheted by Mrs. Cora Dix of 1543 N. Gilmor Street, which portrayed Christ and His Disciples on the occasion of His "Last Supper."

Chief officials of the convocation are: Bishop Johnson, president; Bishop B. F. Alston of Raleigh, N.C., vice-president; Mrs. Grace Golden, East Orange, N.J., secretary; and Miss Rosa Kendricks, Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Ruth Green, Huntington, N.Y., compilers of the minutes.

They Visited Douglases

The Rev. Frederick Douglass, pastor of Douglass Memorial Community Church, and Mrs. Douglass have as their house guest, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rowlett of Cairo, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Forbes of Nashville, Tenn.

M. Edwards Circle, will sponsor a dinner.

Rites Held for Lewis Cephas of Cambridge

Funeral services for Lewis A. Cephas, 57, a grocery store proprietor of Cambridge, Md., who recently died after a short illness, were held at Mt. Zion Methodist Church near New Market, his native home.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. O'Conor Milbourne, officiated, assisted by the Revs. Edward Hughes, Louis Banton, C. A. Gerald and Walter Young, all of Cambridge.

Born at East New Market in 1883, Mr. Cephas received his early education at Princess Anne College, Md.; Dover State College, Del.; and Cheyney State Teachers' College, Cheyney, Pa.

Taught School

He served as a member of the faculty of Dover State College and was at one time principal of schools in Delaware City, Hooper Island, and Hurlock. For the past fifteen years, he conducted a grocery store at 211 Pine Street in Cambridge. He was a member of Waugh Methodist Church.

Interment was in the East New Market Cemetery. Family members include one brother, Leven H. Cephas of Riverton, N. J., and four sisters, Mrs. Mary Denard and Mrs. Emma Sampson, both of E. New Market, Mrs. Rose Lewis of Baltimore and Mrs. Edward S. Hill of Balnew.

ALONG
THE KING'S HIGHWAY
By MARGARET LEWIS

WASHINGTON

Last week, the name of the Rev. H. T. Gaskins, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, who was re-elected president of the Baptist Ministers' Convention by an overwhelming vote, failed to appear in the story concerning the election.

Somewhere along the line, the presidency was mistakingly given to the Rev. J. H. Randolph. The AFRO regrets the error.

The First Church of Christ (Holiness), 1400 S Street, Northwest, the Rev. W. M. Acty, pastor, entertained the bishop on Thursday evening, the Rt. Rev. W. H. Dunn, who stopped over en route to Chicago for the national convention.

Fred Ball is acting superintendent of the Sunday school of First Baptist Church, which recently raised $100 in an alphabetical rally.

Elder's Wife Injured

Mrs. Mary Michaux, wife of the Rev. Lightfoot Michaux, is suffering from a broken wrist. She fell and broke it a week ago in a spill in front of her home. The "Elder" has been conducting a revival in Philadelphia for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Minor, chairman of the prayer meeting committee of the Golden Rule C. E. Union and panel for the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church C. E. Society, was in charge of the program at the summer conference of the union, held at the National Trade and Professional School.

That's Tellin' 'Em.

Here's a humorous bit of colorful minute-taking that comes from the record of the second-day session of the recent Methodist district conference held at Chapel Hill, Md.:

"The Rev. R. H. Pennell, pastor of the AME Church at T.B., on the account of the absence of H. McDonald the acting chairman, called pinch-hitter Johnson to bat and he knocked a two-base hit and won the game."

The conference also featured recreational activities, and the baseball game between the Chapel Hill Giants and the District Conference Chicken Eaters resulted in a score of 21 for the former and three for the latter.

Miss Margaret Post, a shy girlish young member of the Ephesus Seventh Day Adventists, went to Philadelphia, Sunday.

How do you like that bovish bob of Mrs. Ghneteein Wilson, secretary at the YW, who has the dimples and the dancing brown eyes.

The Rev. W. Blocker, toptoneh Real Silk salesman, on that job, you know, while he was attending Howard University School of Religion, last year.

The Lott-Carey Baptist Convention will receive a shock when the Rev J. H. Randolph again tenders his resignation this year. He has decided that he just wants to pastor Mt. Moriah, where he has led the flock for thirty years, and he is going to make effective the resignation which the convention refused five years ago.

Lott-Carey Face-Lifters

The Lott-Carey building certainly looks nice after its plastic surgery. Mrs. J. H. Randolph is president of the woman's auxiliary and Mrs. G. O. Bullock, president of the district branch of the missionary women who are responsible for the face-lifting.

The Rev. John T. Richards has returned from Philadelphia, where he was guest speaker at the Little David and Canaan of Galilee Baptist church. He should have been a pleasant visit because the Rev. Mr. Richards was licensed and ordained there nineteen years ago.

We are willing to venture that one of the prettiest church pianists in the city is at House of Prayer on M Street. Her name is Alice Streets.

Mrs. Phillipp Walter, who has been absent from several meetings of the Baptist women's missionary group, was screamed when she appeared at a committee at the Baptist Ministers' seminar, Friday evening.

Miss Nannie Burroughs, president of the National Trade and Professional School, returned home last week, from her joint to Mississippi and Georgia.

Shiloh Church Club Makes Annual Trip to Seashore

The Publication Club of Shiloh Baptist Church made its fourth annual trip, Sunday, this time to Atlantic City.

The excursion group included: Misses Mary M. Clayton, Delores Sanders, Ruth E. Clayton, Dorothy Young, Rachel Howard, Margaret Mitchell, Beatrice Young, Minnie Brice, Emma Stewart, Vernice Clayton, Mary Simms.

Pullman Porters to Hear A.F. of L. Head

NEW YORK — William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, will address the opening mass meeting of the fifth anniversary celebration of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters at Salem Methodist Church, September 15, it was announced this week.

IN MEMORIAMS

CARRINGTON—In loving memory of our daughter, JEAN L. CARRINGTON, who passed away August 15, 1938.

We have only your memory, dear daughter,
To remember our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger
Forever as we treasure the image of you.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

HARDING—In loving memory of my beloved son, PHILIP, who passed away August 14, 1936.

The face I loved is now laid low,
His lovely smile is still.
The hand so often clasped in mine
Lies now in death's cold chill.
I often sit and think of him
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.

—LOVING MOTHER.

ANDERSON—In sad and loving remembrance of our dear mother, MRS. EVELINE ANDERSON, who passed away one year ago, August 14, 1939.

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye.
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.

Her daughters, son, granddaughter, grandson
MRS. BESSIE WHIDBEE.

SHEPPARD—William.
I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart.
And tho' God in His wisdom has torn us apart,
In your home up in heaven you must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in heaven, my dearest friend.
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you safe and guard you in heaven above.

Wife, MAGGIE SHEPPARD.

PAYNE—In loving memory of our dear mother, JENNIE, who passed away August 13, 1923

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last
The world's weary troubles and trials are past;
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore
Till God called her home to suffer no more.

Loving DAUGHTERS.

Callaway Plans Organization of Jr. Republicans

Set to Form State Body at Edgewater Beach, August 24

Marse S. Callaway, Republican leader, has called a meeting of young people between the ages of 18 and 25 of the entire State of Maryland to be held at Edgewater Beach on August 24, beginning at 3:30 p.m., he announced on Wednesday.

Mr. Callaway told the AFRO that he intends to unite the young element into an organization which will bear the name of the Junior Republican Voters' League. Already he has received several letters from political leaders in the State pledging their co-operation with the plan.

Response Favorable

Among those responding were the following:

Isaac H. Crippen, of Berlin; John DeShields, county supervisor of the Second Congressional District; the Rev. W. A. T. Miles, of Ridgeley; J. W. Lowman, of Catonsville; the Rev. Mr. Snowden, of Frederick, Mrs. Anna Taylor, Patapsco Park; Charles Cornish, Cambridge, and Mrs. Tony Flanel, of Salisbury.

Mr. Callaway also announced that dinner will be served during the meeting, and that most of the young people involved will be high school and college graduates.

With the formal opening of the campaign of Senatorial candidate, Harry W. Nice, opening on August 22, Mr. Callaway stated that his machine will be in full swing by that date.

Not Seeking Handouts

He added that Negro white Republican leaders are turning for the arrival of the payroll, my organization is forging ahead. We are centering our attention on what the party is going to do for our groups's permanent economic advantage, and not campaign handouts," he concluded.

The distribution of Willkie-Nice posters began, Thursday, with a night spent up in the Colored Republican Voters' League, 2128 Madison Avenue. On the Monday left, Friday morning, for Elwood, Ind., where he will attend the Willkie notification ceremony to be held, Saturday.
