SENATE LEADERS STILL IN TANGLE

HELD UP IN COMPLETING REORGANIZATION.

Work on Committee Lists Not Finished, Although Important Assignments Have Been Made—Lively Session of Caucus Expected Before the Lists Are Finally Approved—Plans of Republicans.

Washington, March 12.—Work on the Democratic committee list of the Senate was not completed when the "steering" committee adjourned tonight and members expressed doubt as to whether the reorganisation of the Senate could take place before Friday, if at that time. The majority of the important committee assignments had been made, but in the work remaining to be done on lesser committees it was expected that occasion would arise for the changing of several of the appointments already agreed upon. A subcommittee appointed to prepare the membership of the smaller committees worked until a late hour tonight and will report to the "steering" committee at another meeting tomorrow.

In the majority of cases the older senators who would be entitled to chairmanships of important committees by reason of present position on those committees or their seniority of service will receive the appointments, but an effort is being made to distribute the balance of the committee memberships equally. Indications tonight were that the chairmanship of the new Banking and Currency Committee would go to Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, although a hard fight has been made upon this assignment. It is expected that there will be a lively session of the Democratic caucus before the committee lists are finally approved.

A Republican caucus was called for 1 o'clock to consider the Republican committee assignments and the policies to be pursued in asking the Democrats for appointments and patronage. During the long period of control of the Senate by Republicans recognition was given to the Democratic minority by the appointment of many Democrats to minor positions connected with the Senate. The Republicans expect now that the Democratic managers will give them the same consideration in the reorganization about to take place.

Later in the day, however, notices were sent out by Chairman Gallinger postponing the Republican caucus until noon Thursday. This action was taken when it was learned that the Democratic committees would not be completed before late today or Thursday morning. The Republican steering committee will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow to finish its work.

Pipe Line Law Invalid.

Washington, March 12.—The Commerce Court today held that Congress had no power to make all pipe lines common carriers, and that the amendment to the interstate commerce law to this end was invalid.

Not always do the costliest materials and the most expensive dressmakers turn out the smartest gowns. Distinction in dress depends far more on Information than on Income.
With women who know, it is not the cost that counts—but the general style, the slight modification, the incidental little things. To these important "little" things, the Dress Materials Number of Vogue is dedicated.

TO ENFORCE PUBLICITY LAW

Burleson Will Not Wait for Supreme Court to Act.

Washington, March 12.—Unless the Supreme Court restrains Postmaster General Burleson from enforcing the newspaper publicity law, as it was asked to do yesterday, he will immediately do so regardless of an agreement by former Postmaster General Hitchcock to withhold action pending a determination of its constitutionality. Mr. Burleson so announced today.

Final notices have been sent to a number of publishers that if they do not furnish the information required by law within 10 days their publications will be denied admission to the mails.

Approximately 91 per cent. of the publications affected have filed their reports with the Postmaster General and otherwise have complied with the law. The delinquents constitute about 9 per cent. and, generally, include the larger daily newspapers in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. The number of publishers who have not filed their reports due last October is about 180.

It was pointed out today, however, that Postmaster General Hitchcock, before leaving office, had on February 28 decided to terminate the agreement and had ordered postmasters to call upon publishers to submit their reports.

BLOT ON RECORD REMOVED

Taft Paved Way for Promotion of Col. Joseph Garrard.

Washington, March 12.—One of the last official acts of the Taft administration was the issue of an order by the President expunging from the military record of Col. Joseph Garrard, Fifteenth Cavalry, commander at Fort Myer, Va., the reprimand administered to him because of his unfavorable indorsement upon the examination papers of Frank B. Bloom, a young Jewish private, who was seeking a commission.

Colonel Garrard's indorsement, in substance, pronounced Bloom undesirable because of his family conditions and religion, which indorsement President Taft severely condemned. The effect of this last action is to clear the way for Colonel Garrard's promotion to the rank of a general officer.

AN ORDER TO RAILROADS

Must Show by April 15 if They Are Interested in Water Lines.

Washington, March 12.—In a general order to all railroads the Interstate Commerce Commission today required them to disclose, under oath, before April 15, what connection each may have in the transportation of freight or passengers by water.

The information will be used by the commission in the administration of the provision of the Panama Canal Law, which would make it unlawful, after July 1, 1914, for any railroad company to own, control or have any interest in any common carrier by water operated through the Panama Canal or elsewhere with which the railroad may be a competitor.

HOME FOR CONFEDERATES

Veterans, Widows and Orphans Will Be Taken Care Of.

Washington, March 12.—Announcement was made today by the Southern Relief Society that the Home for Confederate veterans would be opened here April 15. Mrs. George Dewey, wife of the Admiral of the Navy, was among the first to pledge herself to furnish and equip a hospital room and a number of other women, prominent in social and official life, made similar promises. The home will be opened to destitute or sick "wearers of the gray," their widows and orphans. The institution will be under the direction of a board of trustees, the personnel of which will be made public within a few days.

HONOR FOR WOMAN LAWYER

Ellen S. Mussey the Second One to Argue Before Supreme Court.

Washington, March 12.—Ellen Spencer Mussey, of this city, today won the distinction of being the second woman of the Supreme Court bar to argue a case before the court. The first was Mrs. Belva Lockwood, also of this city.

Nearly 40 women are members of the Supreme Court bar, but only these two have made their appearance with clients before the court.
