Schloss's 20th Century Club, 21 W. Oliver Street, near Union Station, will open its new Congo Room tonight (Friday) with an authentic Latin surrounding.

Other than the latest fixtures and decorations, plans calls for a rhumba band, exotic girls and many other novel features, including an authentic drink of the Old World, the Zombie.

Slim Yancey and his Harmony Masters, Cliff Morris and Alvertis Snowden, old favorites at the club, will continue to carry on as usual with Skies doing the expert mixing of various and sundry drinks.

Harold Bevans to Army

This week, I salute the OLDE MILL, the popular good time tavern and winner of one of last year's clean tavern awards. Here you can obtain a complete line of quality drinks, tempting meals and enjoy the finest service

• • •

A few doors away one finds the DIAMOND SUBWAY which features swing for sale nightly by Deck's Hi-Hatters, and the International Band for those hot matinees.

• • •

The SILVER MOON has added the charm and uniquely arranged ballads of Mary (Brown Gal) Dixon along with the Sophisticates of Swing for those Monday nuts. Phil Brown, the tough hombre o' the wailing sax, heads the week-end swing trio.

• • •

Mrs. Delice, reigning queen of TILLIE'S CAFE, presents Cool Breeze, Barney and Tom as the week-end attraction with Jack Brown as emcee.

• • •

Wendall Wilson is a stickler for good service at the popular VILMA. If you can't rule your liquor and be a lady or gentleman this is no place for you for W.W. will really nix you out.

• • •

Mack Crockett's special dressing up of "Drop Me Off Uptown," is real groovy and Roy Eldridge should get a load of Pinhead Stanley on the high notes.

Estelle Young, the "human tornado," dropped in town and grabbed Dot Smith and Elizabeth (Sis) Brooks for her new revue at Pope's Hotel, Erie, Pa. From there they go to Cleveland and Detroit. Happy Jack, formerly of the old Comedy Club, stole the show at the Little C.C. on Sunday. He is appearing at Simm's Paradise in Philly.

• • •

Which reminds me that Happy dropped in at the CLUB HARLEM on Sunday night to pay his respects to Robster, the funny man that is taking the East End by storm with his bands songs and parodies. Mary (Brown Gal) Dixon continues to give them the thrill they expect.

DON'T FORGET you must make your New Year's Eve reservation in advance and there's only a limited number left.

• • •

The downstairs cocktail lounge of the SPOT abounds with excellent drinks and good food with songs by Ruth Russell and Henry Mitchell, and some a la Kirby swing by Beckwith's Harlem Rhythmatics.

• • •

From now until the 10th, LITTLE WILLIE'S INN will jump as the old gang drops in to pay their respects to Harold Bevans, who on this date has a date with the local draft board. Dot Kelly will sing better than ever and Lawson's Trio will really swing. Good luck, Harold.

• • •

Since the waitresses' contest has terminated the AVENUE is a center of real attraction. Betty's stock soared and each of the girls serving here is as proud as if she had won a prize. am sorry, for the stuff was there.

• • •

PASSING GLANCES: The Harlem patrons giving Tiger Sullivan, resident manager of the Royal Theatre, a stomp down send off. Joyce Fleming, formerly of the Wagon Wheel out and looking like a cool million. A new romance for a certain waitress and ink slinger. Thelma from the M.G.R. to Orleans as bar maid.

• • •

The new moniker for the SCHLOSS CLUB will be the Congo Room and will open tonight (Friday) after being renovated and re-decorated. Plans call for a rhymba band, exotic girls to give the Latin American effect and many other novel features.

• • •

While speaking of renovations, the NEW ORLEANS CAFE will soon move into its swellegant home, which, by the way, is my way of saying the New Orleans is going to put it on hot and heavy when the new doors swing open. Watch for announcement.

• • •

At the SAVOY, Joe Smothers puts you in the mood to make plenty whoopee and Flash Mallory's orky really slays you. Three new lassies have been added to serve under the supervision of Bea Lemons and each is very attractive.

Your Stroll Scribe,
GEORGE D. TYLER.

Joins Hampton

MARGERY ELLISON, throaty-vocalist, who recently left the Detroit Congo Club to be featured with Lionel Hampton's orchestra when the unit hits New York to appear in a benefit dance for Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune.

Camp Lee Four Sings from Bible

CAMP LEE, Va.—"We sing our music straight from the Bible," according to Private Alexander Johnson, leader, first tenor and arranger of the Gospel Singers, vocalists of Company B, Ninth QM Training Regiment.

All four members are experienced vocalists. Private Johnson, their leader, formerly sang with the Atlanta Spiritual Quartet in his native Atlanta, Ga., broadcasting frequently and touring through several northern and southeastern States.

Other members of the quartet are:

Privates Harry Mitchell, Jr., of Thomasville, Ga.; Henry Jones, Panama City, Fla., and Henry Roberts, Miami, Fla.

Chaplain Samuel H. Giles arranges their engagements, which tentatively include Baltimore and Washington.

Swing

By LIONEL HAMPTON

NEW YORK

Notes written on the back of a score sheet, Apollo Theater in Harlem . . . Home again to Harlem, honey! Ole town never looked better; this is our very first NY date, and better still, it's at the standby, the Apollo. If you come thru the critical Apollo audience, you're MADE, brother. Margie Ellison, sensational Detroit chanteuse, is with us, did I tell you? She's terific. Peters Sisters are on the bill. Reunion for all us Californians, too. We'll wax for Decca, here, next week. Among the tunes is one by Leonard Reed.

Fans write, asking about Charlie Christian. Charlie, I hate to say, is dangerously ill in Seaview Sanatorium, his specialists almost convinced his magic fingers may never again get all that fine music out've his famous guitar.

Ellington's matchless bass man, Jimmy Blanton, is also gravely ill in California. Never a finer kid anywhere than Blanton, and Andy Kirk's tenor sax man, Dick Wilson, is ill at Seaview.

Believe me, nothing upsets bandleaders more than their lads being temporarily counted out by Mother Nature. We're all one big family, and it hurts inside, no fooling.

In Indianapolis: We had 'em hanging from the rafters at Southern Mansions. Hot town, musically. Later, we had a concert featuring three localites. Johnny Davidson, piano; Bill Peterson, guitar, and Johnny Victory, drums. They really tore up the place.

That's one sure way of hopeful musicians bringing themselves to the attention of visiting bandleaders. Fletcher Henderson, Charlie Agnew, T. Dorsey, Shep Fields and Erskine Hawkins have played here this season.

Grand Terrace: Opened Thanksgiving night and such fun you never saw or heard. Terrace is like home to us; we made our first big notch there, remember? Reunions are always terrific. All my band pals from other orks, the magazine boys, the North Shore debutantes, my Southside pals, some movie folk I knew in Hollywood—all of them came to see us, and stayed 'til early morning.

Canada Lee is the toast of Chi. The show ("Native Son") moves fast and looks good, at least that's what they tell us. You'll like the scene.

Dexter Gordon, one of my reed men, is the image of Joe Louis. The three of us had a ringside table photo made at the Terrace and Dexter could be Joe's kid brother.

Foster-Joyner Team Ends Run with Hamp

NEW YORK.— Foster and Joyner, who made vaudeville history long ago over RKO-Pantages time, and added to this reputation longer-lived contacts in Europe, returned to New York, Thursday, following a successful tour with Lionel Hampton.

Billed as a star comedy team delux, drew special applause raves as Hampton's band dispensed softer, tunier melody and jump. Others featured were the three Peters Sisters, Billy Holiday and Big-Time Crip.

"Mild"
IS THE WORD FOR IT
TAKE any one of your friends, no matter how much or how little he knows about whiskies . . . pour him a drink of National's EAGLE without letting him see the bottle . . . and then, ask him what difference he finds in the whiskey. And 8 times in 10, you'll get the same answer—"it's mild".
