TAILORING.

The Subscriber

BEGS leave respectfully to announce to his friends and the public, that he still carries on the

TAILORING BUSINESS
IN ALL ITS DIFFERENT BRANCHES,

At his old stand, in Cambridge.

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. It is adjusted upon a mathematical principle, and cannot fail to succeed in all cases. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the

Latest New-York Fashions

of the season. His work shall be finished in the best manner, and he warrants his garments to fit. Having been located in this place for the last twelve years, he returns his acknowledgements to his friends and the public, for the flattering encouragement they have bestowed upon him. He pledges himself to to devote his most assiduous attention to accommodate those who entrust work to his care. In conclusion, he invites all to call, and he flatters himself that they will be entirely satisfied that he has promised nothing but what he will most rigidly fulfil.

JOB PRINTING,

Such as CARDS, LABELS, BLANKS CIRCULARS, &c., neatly and expeditiously executed at the Office of the Aurora.

Notice:

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has removed from the house which he lately occupied, and kept as a tavern, to his recently erected establishment on Main street, Cambridge, where he will continue his former business. His present stand, nearly opposite the Court House, and the nearest public house in Cambridge to the river, is believed to be one of the most extensive and commodious of its kind on the Eastern Shore. Tendering his grateful acknowledgements to those who have heretofore with so much liberality extended to him their patronage, and indulging the hope that he will hereafter merit and receive their countenance and support, he pledges his assidious attention to his business, and the employment of his best exertions to please and give satisfaction to them and others who may favor him with their custom.

His Bar will at all times be supplied with choice wines and liquors, and his table with the best the market affords.

☞Boarders will, as hitherto, be taken by the year, month, week or day, on moderate terms.

DORCHESTER

HOUSE,

THE undersigned respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally that he has taken that well-known

TAVERN HOUSE

IN THE TOWN OF CAMBRIDGE,

lately occupied by Mr. John Bradshaw, (which will in future be styled the "DORCHESTER HOUSE,") where he designs keeping a first rate establishment for the accommodation of all, and every person, who may favor him with their patronage. His TABLE will at all times be furnished with the best the market will afford. His BAR is now, and will continue to be, stocked with pure and unadulterated Liquors, of every variety; to attend in which he has procured the valuable services of Mr. Thomas Smith, who will always be ready to administer to the comforts of visiters. To attend his STABLES, he has careful and experienced Ostlers, which, together with his personal knowledge of the character and habits of that most valuable of animals, will, he flatters himself, afford ample assurance that all horses left in his charge will be well attended to. The House, in the course of the ensuing summer, will undergo a thorough repair, and be very considerably enlarged.

The advantages of its location must be acknowledged by all who visit it; for, while it is in the middle of the village, it is yet retired and quiet, standing on a fine airy situation, about equal distant from either end of the town.

The undersigned pledges himself to his patrons that his efforts to render their sojourn with him agreeable, shall be unremitting, and that nothing shall be left undone to accomplish that object; he, therefore, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of an enlightened public.

The public's obedient servant,

Ordinances

OF THE
COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF CAMBRIDGE.

WHEREAS, on application by petition in writing of a number of the citizens of the Town of Cambridge, for the appointment of a Wood Corder or Wood Corders for the said town, It was ordered and determined that Messrs. George W. Wingate and William R Perry be, and they are hereby, appointed Wood Corders for the said town; with authority to measure all wood brought into the said town for sale, and to have for their services six and a quarter cents per cord, and two cents by the quarter of cord, for all wood by them or either of them measured, and in proportion for a less quantity, to be paid in each instance at the time by the seller.

And it was further ordered and ordained, That if any person or persons shall wilfully neglect the above Ordinance, or violate the [illegible] sale of wood without measurement in the said town, every such person or persons shall incur the penalty of fifty cents for every cord so sold, and so in proportion for a less quantity—one half of such fine to be paid to the Wood Corders equally, and the other half to the Bailiff for the use of the town; the same to be recovered under the Act of Assembly of 1793, chapter 66, section 23, before a Justice of the Peace.

WHEREAS, the Commissioners believe that the 10th section of the Act of Assembly of 1831, chapter 323, (which renders it unlawful for any retailer, ordinary keeper, or other persons, at any time to sell ardent spirits to any free negro, mulatto or slave, without the license or permit therein prescribed,) is habitually violated by some persons, It is, therefore, ordered and determined, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the Bailiff to report to the Commissioners of the Town, any retailer, ordinary keeper or other person who shall sell any ardent spirits after 8 o'clock at night in the months of October, November, December, January, February and March, or after 9 o'clock at night in any other month.

And it is thereupon unanimously Resolved. That if any information shall be given by the Bailiff, or any other person, of the violation of the above Ordinance, the Commissioners do hereby unanimously pledge themselves to make application in writing to the County Court, if in session, or to the Orphans' Court, for a discontinuance or withdrawal of the license of any such delinquent.

CURE FOR BOWEL COMPLAINTS.

DR. D. JAYNES' Carminative Balsam. A safe and effectual remedy for most diseases of the Stomach and Bowels, such as Diarrhœa or Looseness, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cramp, Cholic, Vomiting, Sick or Nervous Headache, Sickness at the Stomach, &c. and that frequent and fatal malady among children termed Cholera Infantum or Summer Complaint. It is very pleasant to the taste, and will readily be taken by children Its success has been unrivalled, and it is now used in the practice of a great number of physicians, many of whom have forwarded certificates detailing cures of great importance.—Hundreds of certificates have been received from physicians, clergymen, and families of the first respectability, who have used it, and have testified to its great utility, may be seen by calling on any of the agents for the sale of this medicine. The following from Dr. M. L. Knapp, late physician to the Baltimore Dispensary, and agent of the Maryland Vaccine Institution, is deemed sufficient:

Baltimore, March 27th, 1836.

Dr. Jayne: Dear Sir—You ask me what proofs I meet with of the efficacy of your medicine. I can safely say that I never prescribed a medicine for bowel complaints that has given me so much satisfaction, and my patients so speedy and perfect relief as this. Whenever introduced into a family, it becomes a standing remedy for those ailments, and is called for again and again, which I think a pretty good proof of its usefulness and efficacy. In the Summer Complaint of children, it has frequently appeared to snatch the little victims, as it were, from the grave. "It saved the life of my child, and of such and such a child," I have repeatedly heard said. In dysenteric affections of adults, I have time and again seen it act like a charm, and give permanent relief in a few hours, I may say in a few minutes. In fine it is valuable medicine and no family should be without it.

Respectfully, M. L. KNAPP, M. D.

It is hoped that all will perceive the true value of this medicine, and by resorting to an early use of it prevent many attacks of dangerous illness, and preserve many valuable lives. For sale by Dr. D. Jayne, Salem, N. Jersey.; at wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. Sands, druggists, 100 Fulton, corner William St. New York, only wholesale agent for the State; and by Mess. R.
