FOR THE AURORA.

TO MISS C——S.

Love! pretty maiden, is a dream,
Unknown perchance to one so young,
Calm as a forest shadow'd stream,
Your days have sweetly flow'd among
The beauteous flowers of life.—No gloom
Has fallen on that stainless brow,
Or stolen from those cheeks the bloom
More rich than roses blushing now:

And this dark world seems passing fair
Since time has cast no shadow there;
Fair may it ever seem—and bright
On thy young spirit—may love's light
Rest like the morn's—nor dreams of mine
Disturb the guileless heart of thine.
But should compassion warm thy breast,
Then soothe this bleeding heart to rest!

INCENDIARY PRESS.

Some of the more reputable organs of the opposition in the North, that are unwilling to ally themselves with the abolitionists, very justly point to Mr. Calhoun's press in this city as the most dangerous of the incendiary prints, laboring to make mischief and bloodshed out of abolition.

The Detroit Advertiser (a thorough stick whig,) says:

"INCENDIARISM.—The United States Telegraph, a zealous—we will not say fanatical slave paper—that epithet belongs to the abolitionists—copies liberal extracts from a late letter of Gerrit Smith, and the principal contents of the last Anti-Slavery Record. The letter consists chiefly of testimony of eye-witnesses to the oppression and degradation of slaves, and the abominable cruelty of masters. It presents a terrible picture of wrong certainly; and this is circulated by the Telegraph far more extensively in the South, than it could be in almost any other publication!—Is not the Telegraph afraid of exciting insurrection?

"But, if such things can be safely published in the Telegraph, we do not see what harm they can do in any other publication."

The Telegraph has been engaged, ever since the overthrow of nullification, to make the slave question a ground of quarrel among the States, for the single purpose of rallying the South under Calhoun as a leader, and devoting it to his ruthless purposes. His editor, therefore, very naturally exclaimed against Mr. Kendall for refusing to interpose and compel postmasters to transmit papers provoking insurrection in the South. He was conscious that the Telegraph would deserve to be first stopped.

The wretched print has, however, stopped of itself. That is, its name had become so odious that it was obliged to drop it, and take an alias, that of the Reformer. This Telegraph is conducted by a man of the name of Cralle, (pronounced Crawley,) who was Duff Green's deputy. He excels his master in his most debasing quality, but is altogether destitute of his talents. He is wanting in the boldness that characterised Mr. Calhoun's first manager of the Telegraph. He literally Crawls to his object, and in the most crooked way.

He is, however, a thorough-bred nullifier, and the Telegraph, under its new name, will be devoted to all its old schemes. Its whole scope, at present, is to produce a schism in the Union upon the slave question.

TREATY WITH MOROCCO.—By an arrival at Charleston, we learn that Com. Elliott was at Gibraltar on the 31st January, in the Constitution. He was last from Tangiers, where he had concluded a very satisfactory treaty with the Bey of Morocco, on which occasion fifty guns were fired by order of the Bey, and are to be repeated on each anniversary of the treaty.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

(in Somerset County.)

THE subscriber offers for sale all his land lying and being in Somerset county, on Barren Creek, near the "Spring." It comprises several tracts or parcels of land, contiguous to each other, containing in the whole more or less. The improvements upon the same are a two story Dwelling House, near the water, at which there is a first rate landing place—a new store house, considered to be a good stand for business,—also an orchard, affording most excellent fruit. There is another dwelling tenement upon the property, immediately adjacent to the water, with a very thriving orchard of young apple trees annexed. About 70 or 80 acres of this land is cleared, the greater part of which is good for a corn crop—the residue of the property is covered with oak, chesnut, hickory, pine, and gum timber, suitable for vessels, cord wood, &c. The title is in fee simple, and clear of all disputes and incumbrances.—The property being in a county in which I do not reside, induces me to dispose of it, provided I can get something like the value of it. I will sell it if applied to, on reasonable terms, and if not sold at private sale by Friday the 21st of April next, I will offer it on that day at public sale on the premises, at the hour of 12 o'clock.

340 ACRES,

TAILORING.

The Subscriber

BEGS leave respectfully to announce to his friends and the public, that he still carries on the

TAILORING BUSINESS

IN ALL ITS DIFFERENT BRANCHES,

At his old stand, in Cambridge.

He has lately procured A NEW SYSTEM OF CUTTING OUT GARMENTS, which has never been used before in this part of the State. It is adjusted upon a mathematical principle, and cannot fail to succeed in all cases. Upon this plan, the science of cutting clothes is no longer uncertain, and dependent upon the eye and accident, for a good fit. It is as unerring as the truths of geometry. He congratulates himself and his friends upon the possession of this long-sought desideratum. He is prepared to make up clothes for his patrons in the neatest and most fashionable style, having made an arrangement to procure the of the season. His work shall be finished in the best manner, and he warrants his garments to fit. Having been located in this place for the last twelve years, he returns his acknowledgements to his friends and the public, for the flattering encouragement they have bestowed upon him. He pledges himself to to devote his most assiduous attention to accommodate those who entrust work to his care. In conclusion, he invites all to call, and he flatters himself that they will be entirely satisfied that he has promised nothing but what he will most rigidly fulfil.

Latest New-York Fashions

lately occupied by Mr. John Bradshaw, (which will in future be styled the "DORCHESTER HOUSE,") where he designs keeping a first rate establishment for the accommodation of all, and every person, who may favor him with their patronage. His TABLE will at all times be furnished with the best the market will afford. His BAR is now, and will continue to be, stocked with pure and unadulterated Liquors, of every variety; to attend in which he has procured the valuable services of Mr. Thomas Smith, who will always be ready to administer to the comforts of visiters. To attend his STABLES, he has careful and experienced Ostlers, which, together with his personal knowledge of the character and habits of that most valuable of animals, will, he flatters himself, afford ample assurance that all horses left in his charge will be well attended to. The House, in the course of the ensuing summer, will undergo a thorough repair, and be very considerably enlarged.

The advantages of its location must be acknowledged by all who visit it; for, while it is in the middle of the village, it is yet retired and quiet, standing on a fine airy situation, about equal distant from either end of the town.

The undersigned pledges himself to his patrons that his efforts to render their sojourn with him agreeable, shall be unremitting, and that nothing shall be left undone to accomplish that object; he, therefore, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage of an enlightened public.
