

To Potter Stewart, who has taught us
". . . what the British Crown had feared—and what the American Founders decided to risk."