3, "That all taxes levied by the Mayor and Councilmen for the general purposes of the corporation shall be a lien upon the property of the party or parties against whom said tax may be charged, whether such person be a resident or non-resident of said town; whether adult or infant, non compos, femme covverte, or otherwise; and said tax may be collected by judgment or attachment, or the collector may sell real estate for payment of taxes due thereon by complying with the same requirements that county collectors are directed to comply with by the general laws of this State in order to sell real estate for the payment of State and county taxes, except that advertisement in one newspaper published in the town of Frostburg shall be deemed sufficient advertisement, and the sale shall take place in front of the postoffice in said town."
