THE LOG CABIN.

We saw the cabin, ah! ah! that name,
Forever linked with settler fame!
'Twas sometimes built in woody dell,
But yet more oft on upland swell,
Whence to look down could far be seen
The prairie in in its living green,
Bedeckel with flowers of every hue,
The red and violet, white and blue,
And streamlet gliding slow along,
Its silence broke in murm'ring song.
The streams were fringed with willow trees,
Which gently nodded to the breeze,
And far beyond in cloudy shade,
The oak and elm their arms display'd
While all above the blue of sky
Seemed like a curtain hung on high,
And in the distance, far away.
The misty clouds in quiet lay
As if asleep in nature's care.
Or moving soft on balmy air,
Ah! ever charming, ever new,
With green of earth and sky of blue,
With landscape charm to every view,
Can earth again such scenes renew?

It seemed, indeed, an Eden land,
Begirt with blue horizon band,
Where all of earth and seen of skies
Seemed like a newborn Paradise.

But landscape scene and wayside flower,
Relate not special to this theme,
But cabin home midst rosy bower,
Such as in early days were seen.

'Twas built of logs, of timber green,
From forest hauled by oxen team,
Each log on other made to lean,
And plastered earth filled in between;
With hearth behind, and door before;
With clapboard roof, and punchorn floor,
'Twas humble in design and sight,
But yet in pleasure frequent bright,
For there Old Settlers oft did meet,
And with kind words each other greet,
And stories of old homes repeat,
And think and talk of friends away,
Till night dissolved itself in day.

But humble as was cabin view,
Soon from its base sweet roses grew,
And gainst its side was also seen
The ivy twined with leaves of green,
With other plants to woman known,
And by her skill and science grown,
For woman, place her where you may,
Will seek out objects for display;
For heaven, partial to her mind,
Has made it part of womankind,
To love all nature and all art,
Where beauty is the leading part.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS

County News.—New passenger cars will be placed on the C. and P. R. shortly. Those who have seen them say they are gems.

Hurt in the Mine.—John Coulehan, of this place, was hurt in Hoffman mine Monday by a fall of roof coal. It was at first thought his injuries were very serious, but fortunately this was ascertained to be a mistake. No bones were broken.

Mission by the Paulist Fathers.—On Sunday morning at 10 o,clock, September 16, a mission will be opened by in St. Michael's Church, this place, Rev. Fathers A. M. Clark and Walter E. Hopper. The Rev. Fathers belong to the Order of St. Paul, the Apostle, in New York, one of the most celebrated religious communities in the United States. The mission will continue for one week or more, and the pastor says "every one is kindly invited."

Last Excursion to Atlantic City.—The last excursion to the seashore via the picturesque B. & O. is anounced for Thursday, August 30th. Those who have not visited the shore this season should not fail to take advantage of the low rates and liberal privileges afforded in this trip. We give below a list of stations showing the time of trains and trip rates of fare:

Hyndman....	$8.00....	12:28 p. m;	2:10 a. m.
Cumberland..	9.25....	1:10 "	2:45 "
Sir John's Run	7.00....	2:20 "	4:05 "

Correspondingly low rates are made from other stations on the line. Pullman parlor cars will be attached to the afternoon train, and Pullman palace sleeping cars to the night train. The tickets are good ten days with the privilege of a stop off at Washington, D. C., on the return journey.

Vestibuled Trains on the B. & O. R. R.—The first of the Baltimore and Ohio company's new vestibuled trains has been turned out of Mt. Clare shops and an experimental trip was made with it August 16th. The train was run from Baltimore to Keyser, 215 miles, in five hours. On the line between Baltimore and Keyser are some of the sharpest curves on the road, but notwithstanding the high rate of speed maintained the swaying of the train was scarcely perceptible, the oscillation at the top of the car not exceeding six inches.

This test fully demonstrates what has heretofore been claimed for the vestibule device and that is, that it effectually obviates the swaying motion imparted to a train in rounding curves at high speed. The new train will be immediately placed in regular service between Philadelphia and Chicago.

All other through trains on the B. & O. will be fitted with the vestibule appliance as rapidly as possible, and within the next sixty days it is thought to have the work completed.

OBITUARY.

DIED—At his home in McKeesport, Pa. August 6, 1888, of malignant diphtheria, ALLAN CAMPBELL, oldest son of Thomas G. and Annie C. Mason, aged 9 years, 9 months and 15 days.

He was a bright, pleasing child, and the loss is great. Beecher once said:

No one cries when children, long absent from their parents, go home. Vacation morning is a jubilee. But death is the vacation morning. School is out. It is time to go home. It is surprising that one should wish life here, who may have life in heaven. And when friends have gone from us joyously, I think we should go with them to the grave, not singing mournful psalms, but scattering flowers. Christians are wont to walk in black, and sprinkle the ground with tears at the very time when they should walk in white and illumine the way by smiles and radiant hope. The disciples found angels at the grave of Him they loved and we should find them, too, but that our eyes are too full of tears for seeing. M.

Prof. H. P. LORMAN,

BETTER KNOWN AS THE

"Indian Doctor."

ON HIS ANNUAL TRIP.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON TIME AND PLACE, AND

Don't Miss the Only Chance You May Ever Have.

12,978 Patients Waited Upon in 1882.

This is the man who has only to look at you and describe all your ailments—places his finger directly upon your pains and aches with the agility of a Wizard.

If you are doing well under the care of your home Physician, and there is a reasonable prospect of recovery, do not come to me.

My province is to treat those who cannot find relief otherwise, and I have no disposition or desire to interfere with any system that is honest and effective.

Herbs, Roots, Barks, Gums and Balsams, are the only remedies used by the Professor, and are furnished at his rooms.

All those who wish to consult him can do so free of charge.

Please bear in mind that the Professor does not ask you any questions preparatory to describing your ailments, nor does he feel your pulse, or require you to show your tongue.

READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRACTS:

Scientific Knowledge of Medicine!

For several evenings past, large crowds of people have surrounded the Chariot of Prof. H. P. Lorman, where, in plain language, he explains the causes and symptoms of the various diseases that afflict humanity, and what is far better, also furnishes the remedies wherewith to cure and even prevent them. His system comprises the use of roots, barks, herbs, gums, &c.; selected from the great laboratory of nature, and administered not as is too often the case with many so called "Herb Doctors" in a haphazzard way, but Prof. Lorman is possessed of a scientific knowledge of medicine—which is supplemented with years of practical experience among the Red Men of the far west; whose knowledge of nature's cures for certain diseases is undisputed and is the most precious of the traditions of those strangely romantic races. The Professor comes highly recommended by the Pottstown Press and others.—Phoenix Journal, Nov. 2, 1882.

Wonderful! Wonderful!! Wonderful!!!

The great interest manifested in the able lectures of Prof. Lorman has not abated in the least. On Saturday night the spectators numbered over a thousand; and last evening the crowd was simply immense. The Professor is a fluent speaker and has worked some wonderful cures. He was besieged with patients at the Farmer's Hotel, where he has been stopping for the past week. Yesterday the parlor, hallways, porch and steps were all crowded with patients. To see the many people leaving the hotel carrying bottles, one would be led to suppose that a medicine distillery was somewhere near by. Although over $1,200 worth of medicine was sold, not a bottle was returned.—Pottstown Daily Chronicle, Oct. 3, 1882.

Over 1,500 Persons Consult Him.

Our citizens, during the evenings of this week, have listened attentively to the interesting lectures upon diseases and their cure, given by Prof. Lorman. Some may regard him as a charlatan and pronounce him a humbug; but all he asked them to do was to call upon him at the Broadway House, and if he did not do all that he promised with regard to the location and cure of disease, then he would say they have grounds for distrusting him. The Professor has been very successful in Slatington, Lehighton and other places in the Valley. At Slatington alone, over 1500 persons consulted him many coming long distances for the purpose.—Manch Chunk Democrat, June 24, 1882.

Political Meetings Jarred!

Prof. H P. Lorman, the eminent Indian Doctor, while in Phoenixville, drew large numbers out to hear him lecture on diseases. His meeting on Saturday evening was an immense one, and entirely broke up a Prohibition meeting that was endeavored to be held on Bridge street, and sadly demoralized the Republican meeting which was being held in Masonic Hall. This herb doctor carried off some $1,200 from Pottstown, and from the appearance of the crowds at his meetings, and the number of patients at his hotel, he will carry away still more from Phoenixville.—West Chester Local News, Nov. 6, 1882.

Just What He Represents Himself to Be!

The famous Indian Doctor Lorman, who for the past week traversed our streets behind a spanking team of horses, and occupied the corner of second and Lawton's reets every evening, has added to his fame while here. His optical powers are wonderful, and as he has proven, he can tell you the disease you are afflicted with by merely looking you in the eye. A large number of people were examined by him while here, and all were satisfied that he is what he represents himself to be, "the greatest disease detective living."—St. Clair Splinters, Aug. 5, 1882.

RELIEVED OF A REPTILE.

A St. Clair lady (Mrs. Tracy Yost) suffering for many years of tenia (Tape Worm) or supposed to be, went to see Prof. Lorman, the Indian Doctor, when he visited this place the other day. He gave her some medicine which caused violent vomiting during which she was relieved of a seven-inch lizard. She has felt better since. How the reptile inhabited her system she does not know, but is very thankful to have it removed.—Pottsville Evening Chronicle, Aug. 14, 1882.

You Will Not Regret a Visit to Him.

Prof. H. P. Lorman, well known to our citizens as the Indian Doctor, has recently completed a highly success ful tour of South Jersey. The Professor's wonderful medical skill has become so well and favorably known in this section that it is not necessary for us to enlarge upon it, or attempt a description of it. All we have to say is that you will never have no need to regret a visit to him when suffering from the ills he claims to cure.—Gloucester Reporter.

Following Him From Town to Town.

Prof. Lorman, the Indian Doctor, had his hands full while in this city. He was busy from 6½ A. M. until 12 o'clock in the night, waiting upon patients. The Professor must do all he advertises; or men, women and children would not follow him from Salem, Bridgeton, Millville and other cities after more medicine. Give him a call and see what the disease is that your Physician is treating you for.—Vineland Daily Times.

Rooms Crowded from Morning till Night.

* * * He had a big run of customers during his sojourn here, which lasted only one week. Prof. Lorman had his room crowded daily from morning till night, the rush being so great that the invalid corps standing in waiting in the hall of the American Hotel, had to take their turns for admission. All come away imbued with great faith in the Doctor's curative agencies.—Extract from Allentown Democrat, June 7, 1882.

Marvelous Cures!

Prof. H. P. Lorman has had quite an extensive practice in the towns throughout the counties she has visited, and from present indications Mauersville will not be behind the others. His cures in one instances have been marvelous.—Schuylkill Republican, Aug. 12, 1882.

Wonderful Faculty for Locating Disease!

Prof. H. P. Lorman, the celebrated Indian Doctor, who so miraculous cures and wonderful faculty for locating diseases have made him so widely known, addressed the citizens of Phoenixville last evening.—Phoenixville Daily Independent, Nov. 1, 1882.

Everybody Should Consult Him!

The Professor certainly does have "varises," tells the Physician, Prophesy, Phrenology or by a gift endowed by God. We think every person having a disease should consult him.—Bridgeton Evening News.

Prof. H. P. Lorman was, last summer, in Allentown, where he made many wonderful cures after others doctors had failed to do so.—Allentown, Pa., Republican, Jan. 11th, 18 3.

Prof. Lorman made some wonderful cures while in this town. He is reliable and will not take advantage of any one.—Columbia, Pa., Courant, Jan. 11th, 1883.

More than a Medical Experimenter!

He certainly possesses recommendations which ought to place him above the plane of the medical experimenter.—Vineland Independent.

He Will Tell You the Truth.

Prof. Lorman makes many wonderful cures, and he will tell you the truth about your disease, whether it be fatal or not.—Allentown Herald.

Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustre and pliancy that adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be but it has given my rather stunted mustache a respectable length and appearance."—R. Britton, Oakland, August 4.

Abundant and Glossy,

"My hair was coming out (without any assistance from my wife, either). I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, using only one bottle, and I now have as fine a head of hair as any one could wish for."—R. T. Schmittou, Dickson, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor in my family for a number of years, and regard it as the best hair preparation I know of. It keeps the scalp clean, the hair soft and lively, and preserves the original color. My wife has used it for a long time with most satisfactory results."—Benjamin M. Johnson, M. D., Thomas Hill, Mo.

"My hair was becoming harsh and dry, but after using half a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor it grew black and glossy. I cannot express the joy and gratitude I feel."—Mabel C. Hardy, Delavan, Ill. §

ROMANCE AND REALITY.

Oh, sing a song of life and love!
Of summer breezes blowing—
The sea below and the sky above—
And a yacht so lightly going
'Mid Southern climes of golden fruits!—
Of star-eyed Creole maids
And dances tripped to silvery lutes,
And midnight serenades!

Oh, sing a song of life and work!
Of never a breeze that's blowing!
The romantic thoughts of a dry-goods clerk
Home on the horse cars going,
'Mid torrid heat to suffocation
That makes me pant and sweat,
And I take my vacation in imagination—
'Tis the only one I'll get!

A

BIG MISTAKE

CORRECTED!

SOME persons have reported and others believed that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest most fashionable, and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, CARPETS, OILCLOTHS TRUNKS, SATCHELS, HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—not wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods, will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thankful for past favors, I am respectfully,
