Concerning the trade in market the New York Engineering and Mining Journal says:

There is, as usual, nothing worthy of note in the bituminous trade. Everything jogs along in the same old way without any change. Should the tolls on anthracite coal be regulated by those on bituminous, it would have a very serious effect upon the bituminous trade; but such a thing is not in the near future, nor do we think it will become a "burning question" at all. We repeat our usual quotations, which are lived up to very firmly: $2.60 f. o. b. Baltimore and Georgetown, and $3.25 for New York.

And the Mining Record of same city:

The bituminous market has been based on pool prices, but as there have been large offerings, cuts could be secured, when essential to a trade. The shipments hence from all the Eastern districts have increased.

How to Transact Business at the Postoffice.—In view of the fact that so many people patronize the only postoffice there is in Frostburg the following hints, floating this way, have been caught up and reproduced for their benefit:

When you call at the office for your mail, and the postmaster hands it out, ask if that is all.

If you ask for mail, and are told there is none, say there ought to be; then go home and send the rest of the family around to ask at different times through the day.

Don't bring your mail to the office until the mail closes, then abuse the postmaster for not opening the mail-bag and putting your letter in.

When you want a stamp on your letter, tell the postmaster to put it on; if he don't like it, lick him. In case you put it on yourself, soak it in your mouth long enough to remove the mucilage; it will then stick until it is dry.

Be sure and ask the postmaster to credit you with stamps; if there is any accommodation about him he will do it.

If you have a box, stand and drum on it until the postmaster hands out your mail; it makes him feel good, especially if he is waiting on somebody else.

When you call for stamps get close before the delivery window and put them on at leisure. Everybody else waiting for their mail will be so glad when the last stamp is on.

Start for your mail when you hear the train whistle; you will then have a good time waiting for it and can say "how slow those clerks are."

The above directions are hardly applicable to those of our people who have business in monied institutions, but in spirit they furnish a good guide for conduct at the cashier's wicket also. They will be useful, if followed aright, at both our banks two months hence.

Important to Registrars and Voters.—On the 12th inst. J. Edwin Webster, State's Attorney of Howard county, wrote to Attorney-General Wm. Pinkney Whyte in regard to his construction of the registration law with reference to the coming October sittings. The matter is important. Mr. Whyte replied as follows:

Your favor of the 12th has been received. I beg leave to reply to your inquiry that you have, in my judgement, construed the act of 1888, chap. 155, correctly, as follows:

First—That the October sitting in the counties shall be held at one precinct only in each district, that precinct to be the one most convenient to the majority of the voters in the district. (See Acts 1882, chap. 22, sec. 10, and Acts 1888, chap. 155, sec. 3.)

Second—That the first October sitting means the first day of the October sitting; that the notices required to be sent to persons whose names have been stricken off on the first day of the October sitting should be dated the following day, and no names can be stricken off after the first day of the October sitting, and persons can be registered only on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the fifth day of the October sitting (Friday) being devoted to hearing applications for reinstatement and not for registering. (See Act 1888, chap. 155, sec. 7.)

Festival.—The "Festival of the Seasons" held by the ladies of the M. E. Church, South, in Moat's Opera House, last Saturday, Monday and Tuesday evenings was very successful.

In the hall four booths were erected and decorated to represent the four seasons.

Saturday evening the hemming match was held. The prize, a handsome book, entitled "Familiar Quotations," was awarded W. G. Boughton.

Tuesday evening a prize—"Sam Jones' Own Book"—was offered to the lady who would drive the greatest number of nails into a board in five minutes. Of eight contestants Miss Mollie Farrady was the fortunate one, she having driven 74 nails in the specified time. The hemming match was repeated, and John Stevens "took the cake" which was offered as a prize. Both contests were very amusing.

Coal Display.—In the Trades Display, Kansas city, Missouri, Tuesday evening, the mining industry was represented as fellows:

The Keith & Perry coal company's float by an underground mine with the miners at work in the tunnels and hoisting house, loaded coal trains, etc., as natural as life on top on the surface of the ground.

The Bolen coal company's float by a loaded coal train coming out of a mine.

B. & O. Excursion to Pittsburg.—The B. & O. R. will sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg for all trains on Sept. 24th, 25th and 26th, good to return on the 27th, the occasion being the celebration of the Centennial of Allegheny county, Pa. Round trip fare from Cumberland $3; from Mt. Savage junction $2.95.

Death of a Former Citizen.—James McNulty, formerly passenger conductor on the C. and P. R., died at his home in Denver, Col., recently. He was well and favorably known here; also in Denver, where he had merchandized many years. He was a brother of Mrs. Edward Donohue, of this place.

Orphans' Court.—At the session Tuesday Catharine Simons, administratrix of William R. Simons, deceased, filed an inventory of goods and chattels.

BIG MISTAKE

CORRECTED!

SOME persons have reported and others believed that I intend removing from here.

In order to set everyone right I would emphatically say

THIS IS A MISTAKE!

I am here to stay, and have just returned from the eastern markets with the largest most fashionable, and cheapest stock of

CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, CARPETS, OILCLOTHS TRUNKS, SATCHELS, HATS AND CAPS,

Ever brought to a single establishment in our county. Moreover, as I am cramped for room to store all my goods, I will sell every article at about 6 per cent. profit—at least for the next thirty days.

I have not time nor space to put all on paper; therefore, I have mentioned but a few articles in order that you may appreciate and realize that all should come—not wait, but come at once and examine goods and prices. No one in want of goods, will leave my store without buying, but you should come right along before the rush begins and the assortment is broken.

☞ All persons coming by rail buying goods of me will have their fare paid both ways.

Don't forget that my place is opposite C. F. Nickel's furniture store—the first clothing store as you come from the depot. Thankful for past favors, I am respectfully,

May 12 M. WINELAND.
