KELLER'S
ROMAN

LINIMENT.

Rheumatism.

Time and money have been wasted in futile endeavors to obtain some embrocation that would prove a cure for this excruciating disease; but all have failed except KELLER'S ROMAN LINIMENT, and that has been successful in almost every instance where it has been employed, whether such has been of the inflammatory or chronic type. In Lumbago and Sciatica it affords instant relief.

Neuralgia.

This excruciatingly painful disease is instantly relieved and rapidly cured by the continued application of this Liniment.

Toothache.

This painful and annoying complaint is instantaneously cured by the application of the Liniment.

Frosted Feet.

The Roman Liniment has proved effectual in all cases where it has been properly used. No instance is known where it has failed in giving immediate relief.

Burns and Scalds.

This Liniment has proved itself to be one of the best remedies ever used for Burns and Scalds. Its quickness in alleviating pain when applied, gives it great superiority over all other preparations.

Ulcerated Sores.

The healing and purifying qualities of KELLER'S LINIMENT render it the best article for the speedy and safe cure of ulcerated sores.

A Stitch in the Back

Is caused by a sudden wrenching of the spine, and produces violent and acute pains, making it very difficult for the person to move. It should not be neglected, as the curvature of the spine is often brought on by neglect of this common complaint.

Sore Throat and Quinsy.

The causes which usually induce Sore Throat are those which give a sudden check to perspiration, and thus obstruct Nature's regular work, quickly producing, in consequence, an inflammatory condition which, involving the tonsils, and rapidly spreading over the whole mucous membrane of the fauces will cause Quinsy.

Inflammation of the Breast.

This distressing complaint may be cured, or entirely prevented by the timely use of this remedy. It has never failed, when applied at the commencement, or before the gathering takes place.

Weakness of the Ankles and Joints.

Strains and chronic pains, cold and external injuries, are the chief causes of this complaint. The muscles are relaxed, in many cases making it difficult to move. By a free use of this Liniment a certain cure will be effected. As a

Horse and Cattle Lotion

it is invaluable to Farmers, Express Companies, Stage Proprietors, well appointed Livery Establishments, and all who own or use Horses and other Stock, immediately relieving and curing

Spavins,	Foot Rot in Sheep,
Ring Bone,	Foundered Feet,
Bruises,	Corns,
Cracked Heels,	Flesh Wounds,
Sprains,	Galls of all Kinds,
Scratches or Grease	Poll Evil,
Sores,	Splint,
Colic,	Fistula,
Lameness,	Sitfast,

And many other Diseases.

KELLER'S
Roman Liniment

Never fails to give satisfaction, and, as a domestic remedy for man and beast, it is incomparably superior to any of the so-called family liniments, salves, etc., as a single trial will convince all.

CONVICT LABOR.

AN ACT

To authorize the Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction, to hire Convict Labor to the Maryland Canal Company, and prescribe the manner of payment of same by the said Canal Company.

Whereas, the early completion of a branch canal from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to the city of Baltimore, is a matter of great and obvious importance to the pecuniary and material interests of this State, and of said city of Baltimore; and,

Whereas, it is believed that the construction of such branch Canal by the Maryland Canal, can be accomplished at a moderate cost by employing thereon the labor of the able-bodied male convicts under sentence to the Maryland House of Correction; therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to hire to the Maryland Canal Company upon such terms as may be agreed upon by and between the said Board of Managers and said Canal Company, such able-bodied male convicts under sentence to said House of Correction, as may from time to time be applied for by said Maryland Canal Company, which said convicts, whilst so hired out to said Canal Company, it shall be the duty of the said managers of the House of Correction, to clothe, feed and guard, in all respects, so far as practicable, as if they were engaged at work within said House of Correction, and payment of the compensation which may be agreed upon, by and between said Maryland Canal Company and the said Managers of the House of Correction, for the hire of such convicts, the said Canal Company shall issue to the Managers of the House of Correction, and the said Managers shall accept the stock of the Maryland Canal Company, at such rates as may be mutually agreed on.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in order to enable the said Managers of the House of Correction to discharge the duties imposed upon them by this Act, they are hereby vested with all powers necessary and proper in their discretion, to provide transportation for said convicts to and from the place or places where they be engaged at work, and whilst at work, to furnish them at all times with sufficient and proper food and clothing.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the Maryland Canal Company are hereby authorized to enter into a contract with the Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction, for the hire of convicts, in such number, and for such time as they may deem necessary, for the purposes of this Act; and they are authorized to work such convicts upon the construction of a canal from some point on the Eastern branch of the Potomac River, near Bladensburg, in Prince George's county, to a point on the Patapsco River, near Elkridge Landing, in Howard county, or at any other point or points or line of said canal.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage, and all Acts or parts of Acts, inconsistent therewith, be, and they are hereby, repealed.

EDWARD LLOYD,
President of the Senate.
FETTER S. HOBLITZELL,
Speaker of the House of Delegates.
