F. C. GOLDSBOROUGH,

EASTON, MD.,

Importer and Breeder of REGISTERED OXFORD-DOWN SHEEP,

The best of the Down and Mutton breeds, with close fleece of long, staple, middle wool, shearing 9 to 12 pounds, flock average. The following imported prize-winning rams at the great English "Royal" show have been used in my flock: "Royal Liverpool," the best son of "Freeland," the celebrated Centennial ram whose weight was 425 lbs. at 2 years old. "Bicester," imported 1884, weight 420 lbs., 2 years old. "Sir John of Winchendom," cost 90 gs., "the best Oxford ram in England that year." "Baron Campsfield," weight 300 lbs., 1 year old. "Royal Norwich," weight 315 lbs., 1 year old. "Baron Henley," weight 330 lbs., 1 year old. The two last were imported in 1886. "Bicester," also winner of First and Sweepstakes at State Fairs at Chicago, Indianapolis, Madison, and Great St. Louis Fair. "Baron Campsfield," winner at same fairs in yearling class.

FOR SALE—Ram and Ewe lambs, and imported and home-bred Rams and Ewes of all ages. Another importation of yearling rams will arrive about September 1st.
