For One America

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, principal speaker, and Paul Robeson, singer, shake hands as they meet on the platform at the Cosmopolitan Opera House, Sunday night, to witness the pageant and stage revue held as a tribute to colored soldiers.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, principal speaker, expressed a hope that after the war minorities in this country will enjoy the same liberties that all other groups have.

Robeson Speaks

Other speakers were Paul Robeson, Herbert Agar, Helen Hayes, Councilman A. Clayton Powell, Jr., and Burgess Meredith.

The program was under the auspices of the Stage, Screen, Radio and Arts division of the Fight for Freedom.

During the four hour show the audience gave its greatest acclaim to a pageant depicting the role of famous colored soldiers in all of this country's wars.

Marian Anderson, who had flown to New York from Toronto, Canada, to sing on the program, received a tremendous ovation.

Apex Grads Entertain at Reunion Banquet, Dance

Ninety graduates of the Apex School of Beauty Culture gathered at the Odd Fellows' Hall Tuesday evening for a reunion banquet and later entertained several hundred guests at a dance.

Miss Leora Lee, president of the Apex Alumnae, presided at the banquet. She wore a gown of black crepe trimmed in gold studs, and later donned a corsage of roses presented to her by members of the alumnae.

Flowers also went to Miss Alma West, director of the Baltimore Apex School; Miss Esther M. Brown, financial secretary; Mrs. Verna Gosnell and Mrs. Ella Pawley of Philadelphia, guest speaker, all of whom wore dinner gowns of black crepe.

Urged to Raise Standards

In her address to the group, Mrs. Pawley urged against price cutting and other unauthorized inducements to get customers. She said that such practices only served to cripple self, fellow workers and the business.

Predicts Bob's Return

The speaker predicted the return to bobbed hair, and an increase in business due to the new "bob" treatment care of such a style. The war in Europe, she said, has demonstrated that the conflict does not deter women from keeping appointments regularly with their beauticians.

Members of the alumnae attending the banquet were:

COCOANUT LAYER CAKE

2½ cups cake flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
1 cup sugar
3 egg yolks well beaten
1-2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 egg whites well beaten

Sift and measure flour. Add baking powder and salt. Then sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks, flour and milk, little at a time. Mix well. Add vanilla. Bake at 375 degrees for 25 to 35 minutes. Make two layers.

SEVEN-MINUTE FROSTING

2 unbeaten egg whites
1½ cups sugar
5 teaspoons cold water
⅛ teaspoon cream tartar

Put into top of double boiler and beat hard with egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over boiling water and beat steadily for seven minutes or until standing in peak. Remove from fire. Add vanilla. Beat until thick enough to spread. Cover first layer with frosting. Cover with fresh grated cocoanut. Then place second layer. Cover with frosting. Then add cocoanut, but more heavily.

Dr. Warner, Mrs. Worthy of New York, Married Here

With Lula Jones Garrett

Swooping down from New York last week end were Dr. Herman A. Warner and Marian G. Worthy, to be married here by the Rev. J. G. Garnett.

She had spent the necessary three-day waiting period here as guest of Mrs. James Pair.

For the ceremony the bride selected brown velvet with metallic trim, over which she wore a silver fox coat. Went back to Manhattan immediately to get settled in their newly decorated apartment.

• • •

Starting a lot of rumors about a pending reconciliation last week were Eunice Grandison Young, who has recently been domiciled in New York, and her divorced husband, Hamilton Young. While she was here on a brief visit, they spent each evening doing the rounds together, with all the rejuvenating symptoms.

• • •

Members of the immediate families only witnessed the ceremony on Friday evening in which Mary Hughes Carter, Baltimore school marm, and John R. Francis, Jr., of the Washington postal department, were married.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hughes of this city, and he of Dr. and Mrs. Francis of Washington.

The ceremony took place at the home of her parents with the Rev. C. Y. Trigg of Metropolitan Methodist Church officiating, and the nuptial music by William N. Parrott.

The bride wore a jacket frock of pale blue crepe with veiled pompadour hat and a corsage of orchids. Her attendants, who were white and slippers of black patent. She was attended by her sister, Courtney, who wore a taffeta frock with red background printed in green and white. The latter's corsage was of white gardenias. Mr. Francis had as best man, Chauncey Thomas of Washington.

Mrs. Carter was gowned in pale green crepe, while Mrs. Francis wore wine velvet. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

Attending were:

Dr. and Mrs. George B. Murphy, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, Miss Mary E. Hughes, Mrs. Howard Murphy, Miss Patricia Murphy, Mrs. Lawrence Young of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Murphy, Miss Emma Gaskins;

Dr. and Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Henry M. Minton of Philadelphia; the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Wist, Jr., of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis will live in Washington.

• • •

Mme. William Evanti, who sang here last week, was house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cooper. The latter entertained for her Saturday evening, at which time guests were:

Mesdames Samuel Plateo, Ralph Cooke, Lena Dickerson, Daniel C. Brown, Robert Mason, Etta Purcell, Augusta Chissell, Francis Wood;

Mesdames R. B. McRary, John Hampton, Eugenia Phillips, G. Lake Imes, Martha Warsoma, Fred Downs, Ernestine Cantor, Thomas Hawkins, William Lewis;

Misses Regina Wright, Edna Brown, Margaret Williams, Courtney Carter;

Dr. and Mrs. Mason Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Christian.

Mme. Evanti sang for the group and gave a short talk on her Mexican and South American tours.

Sunday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Whatley held open house, when a large number of other friends called.

The We Wives held their first meeting of the year at the home of the president, Margretta Lanier, Tuesday night. Two anniversary showers were in order, celebrating the second anniversary of Anita Hawkins and Rosetta W. Irvis. Over fifteen members were present to shower the honorees with cotton gifts.

Present were:

Hattie Grayson, Hiawatha Shaw, Marion Carroll, Laura Brown, Ivy Grinnage, Evelyn Nixon West, Margaret Armstrong, Margery Prout, Llew-lyn Walker, Ida Smith, Lucille Cephas and Betty Phillips.

Add to new citizens: A baby girl to the Charles (Helen) Kings, Jr., born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur (Marie) Johnsons, whom they have named April (the month in which they first learned of her proposed advent) Anita (from her aunt) Johnson. Mother is a former member of the faculty of the Phyllis Wheatley School No. 110. Baby arrived at Provident Hospital on the third.

• • •

I started to mention the expected events, but when I would have listed Dr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams, Dr. and Mrs. James Pair, I would have just begun . . . so!

• • •

You will be interested to know, too, that Dr. J. Thomas (Stretch) Sydnor has opened offices for general practice in Norfolk, Va. He was an interne in Provident Hospital until July, was appointed a first lieutenant in the Medical National Guard Medical Corps as well as the same in the home guard of Maryland.
