MARSHLAND.

MAMBRINO DUDLEY, 2:19¾.

Sire of Almont Dudley, two-year-old trial 2:33¾ of Crescendo, that has trotted more heats in 2:30 or better than any four-year-old of 1887, and of Gretna, three-year-old, that won the only race in which she ever started, trotting the fifth heat on a half-mile track in 2:40¼.

KENTUCKY WILKES, 2:21¼.

Virginia Evans, the oldest of his get, foaled June 17, 1885, at twenty-seven months won her race at Boston in 2:46, trotting on a muddy track and in the rain. This track was from six to eight seconds slow. Three of his yearling fillies were broken, one in July, one in August and one in September, and with but little handling have shown quarters in 40, 50 and 49 seconds respectively.

CHELTENHAM, 3, 2:30.

IF YOU WANT EARLY SPEED BREED TO DEVELOPED SIRES.

Of the eight horses five years and younger tha trotted in 2:20 or better in 1887, seven of them are by sires having records from 2:15¼, to 2:25½, and the eighth was sired by a son of George Wilkes, 2:22.

THIS FACT NEEDS NO COMMENT.

Dudley and Wilkes will be limited to 40 outside mares each, and in no event will either be bred to more than 60, including our own. Service $100 each, with usual privilege of return; money payable before the removal of the mare.

Season will commence March 1 and continue to September 1.
