Sir

9. July 1814.

Having laid before my Lords Comm.rs of the Admiralty your letter of the 14th April, inclosing a copy of a letter you had received from Sir George Prevost, desiring your opinion on the subject of an Armistice proposed by the American Government, and of the answer you had returned to the same; I am commanded by Their Lordships to express to you their satisfaction at the view you have taken of the circumstances, and their approbation of the answer sent by you to the General.

I am Sir
Your
obt. Servt.
G. Cockburn

Commodore
Sir James L. Yeo.
Lake Ontario.

By the Plover.
Dep.d by the Sarah.

The above letter substituted for one of the 8th Instant.
