Bill of Complaint.

(Filed 31st. January 1885.)

To the Hon. the Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore city:

The bill of complaint of Thomas J. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson, surv. trustees under the last will and testament of James Wilson, late of the city of Baltimore, and State of Maryland, deceased respectfully represents:

1. That heretofore, to wit, on or about the tenth day of February 1851, the said James Wilson departed this life, leaving a last will and testament and codicil thereto, the same having been duly admitted to probate the twentieth day of Feb. 1851, and now of record in the office of the Register of Wills for Baltimore city, (then county;) a duly certified copy of which is herewith filed, marked "complainants Exhibit A," and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

2. That by the said last will and testament your orator Thomas J. Wilson, and a certain David S. Wilson, and a certain Robert T. Brown were appointed executors of the estate of said deceased, and trustees for certain purposes, and in the event of the failure of either of said executors etc, to qualify, or in the event of either of them declining to act as such executors or resigning the same, or said trust, then the said testator appointed your orator Henry R. Wilson, in the place and stead of the one so declining or resigning; all of which will particularly appear by reference to said last will and testament so filed as aforesaid; that the said Robert T. Brown having qualified as such executor and trustee, did, in the year 1857, renounce both of said offices, and the said Thomas J. Wilson, David S. Wilson and Henry R. Wilson duly qualified as such trustees, and assumed the responsibility of the same and of said trusts; as will appear by reference to a certified copy of said renunciation and of their letters testamentary herewith filed, marked respectively "Complainants' Exhibit B." and "Complainants' Exhibit C." to be taken as a part hereof.

3. That the said David S. Wilson has since departed this life, as has the said Robert T. Brown, leaving your orators, the surviving executors and trustees of the said estate, and clothed with the trusts and responsibilities of the same.

4. That your orators are also the surviving executors and trustees of the estate of Mary Wilson, late of the said city of Baltimore, deceased; a duly certified copy of her last will and testament being herewith filed, marked "Complainants' Exhibit D." and prayed to be taken as part hereof.

5. That your orators duly qualified as executors of the estate of the said Mary Wilson, deceased; which will appear by reference to a duly certified copy of their letters testamentary herewith filed, marked "Complainants' Exhibit E," and prayed to be taken as a part hereof.

6. That the said James Wilson and Mary Wilson were husband and wife, the said Mary Wilson having departed this life after the death of the said James Wilson, to wit, the seventeenth day of April 1869.

7. That your orators, as trustees of the said estates, have in their hands certain property, real and personal, held by them under the provisions of said last wills and testaments for Mary L. Patterson, a daughter of the said James Wilson and
