These Afro Pictures Created Wide Spread Comment in 1942

AFRO No. 1B prize was won by this combination of photos. It requires a little nerve to stick your "boxr" out for scenes of this type in a southern town.

...oosevelt must issue a new charter of freedom to include all peoples of the world"—Walter White speaking and audience's tense faces and hands are — how long, how long until real freedom comes.

Here is AFRO's No. 1A photo of the year, made by G. Marshall Wilson of the Philadelphia AFRO-AMERICAN. Sharp-eyed Wilson knew these expressions were rare.

FORCE

". . . faith and hope in democracy gone, he realizes there is nothing left for him to fight for."

Douglass High School of Baltimore Graduates 120 in Midyear Class

This photo clearly shows almost every member of the class. It was taken from the cat-walk abovethe stage by Paul Henderson.

Not Killed Fighting Japs

In this box is a dead soldier. He was killed by a Baltimore quick-trigger cop as he ran. No other photos were available except this one by Paul Henderson taken in a baggage car.

Handcuffs were put on this spectator and he was hustled off the grounds.

The man was drunk and there was no need for any brutality at all. All the police at this game were white—white county police, white State police and white military police. Here is another argument for colored cops. Colored policemen would have put the man off the grounds without disturbing the spectators or putting on a show on the football field where thousands of persons could witness what was going on.

Spectators are to be commended for their restraint in not interrupting the game to chuck these policemen out of the stadium.

The biggest show at the Morgan-Virginia State game at Petersburg, Va., on Thanksgiving Day was put on by these Virginia State police, who are expert in the Hitler method of police brutality. Before thousands of on-lookers they arrested this spectator for fighting. In picture No. 1 they twisted his arms. When he protested, he was slapped in the face, thrown to the ground. Photo No. 2, his arms twisted further, police stuck their knees in his ribs and in general gave him a good going over for the benefit of the crowd.

Spectators wrung their hands. The crowd menaced the police, and what the South calls a "race ...

The Finish—Alsab Wins Preakness; Sets a New Record

Most pictures or horse races are taken from the grandstand. Paul Henderson, APRO photographer, got this one from the inside rail, and for the first time you can see how Alsab came through on the outside to win.

APRO carried only picture showing how Alsab came from the out-side to win.

4 New Yorkers Found Guilty of Sedition

NEW YORK—Leonard R. Jordan, the "Black Hitler," and three of his associates in the Ethiopian Pacific Movement were found guilty on separate charges of sedition and conspiracy to commit sedition, Wednesday, in the U. S. District Court.

They will be sentenced January 11 and face maximum penalties of twenty years' imprisonment and $10,000 fines, or both, on each charge.

The other defendants are the Rev. Ralph G. Best, 62, for whom the jury recommended leniency; Lester E. Holness, 38, and James H. Thornhill, 40, lone member of the group of West Indies natives, who holds American citizenship.

5th Pleaded Guilty

Also to be sentenced with them is Joseph Hartey, 47, who previously pleaded guilty to the indictments.

Mrs. Flossie Hilliard, a social worker, was foreman, and W. H. Hollan and William H. Evans were members, of the otherwise white jury which deliberated three and one-half hours before returning its verdict at 4:40 p.m. The trial began December 14.

Defense attorneys sought to picture the group as misguided advocates of better conditions for their race.

Judge Sympathetic

Judge Clarence G. Galston, in a one-and-a-half-hour charge to the jury, expressed complete sympathy with efforts to eradicate racial discrimination, but questioned the "means decided upon to effect these objectives."

Jordan and his associates, arrested September 14 after police and FBI agents had attended their regular meetings at 113 Lenox Avenue for more than a year, advocated cooperation with Japan and urged soldiers to "throw your guns away and throw your arms around your brown brothers," upon meeting the Japs in combat.

Five men died on the gallows in the Maryland penitentiary during 1942 for criminal assault or first degree murder convictions, and six, five of whom are colored, still remain in the death house awaiting execution.

Wilbur Pritchett, 37, of Dorchester County, who was hanged on May 8, was convicted and sentenced to die on charges of criminally assaulting a white woman near his home. His hanging, during which his head was almost severed from his body by the rope, is considered the State's bloodiest in many years.

On June 5, Frank Haywood, 32, Lakewood, Md., farmhand, was hanged for an alleged similar offense against a white woman in Prince Georges County.

Slayer Is Oldest

Andrew Henry, 54, of Cambridge, Md., died on the gallows July 10, for the alleged shotgun slaying of another man following a disagreement. Henry was the oldest man to be executed at the penitentiary for several years.

Edward Wolford, 27, and Charles Benjamin, 22, both of Washington, were hanged on July 24 for the slaying here December 28 of Vincent DiPetro, white, storekeeper of Fremont Avenue and Hoover Street, during a holdup.

Gets 90 Years

Robert White, 24, convicted and scheduled to die for the same crime, was given a last minute commutation of sentence, after Ralph Matthews, editor of the Washington AFRO, had located persons in Washington who supported the doomed man's contention that he was in that city and not in Baltimore at the time of the killing.

White was later sentenced to 90 years in the penitentiary on his guilty plea to nine holdup cases which the State also had charged to the three men.

5 In Death House

Those in the death house now awaiting execution or other dispositions of their cases are:

Frank Williams, 23, Freeman Holton, 20, and Wilbur Jackson, 20, whose appeal of the death penalty given them for the alleged slaying on August 4, 1941, of Louis Pertmo, white, manager of the Radio Theatre, is now pending before the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Seek Fair Trial

The three contend that they did not receive a fair trial, because only two of the fifty-two persons presented for selection of a jury at that time, were colored. The city's Supreme Bench and the Maryland Court of Appeals turned down their appeals in previous hearings.

Fourth scheduled to be hanged is James Gilliam, 40, North Carolina immigrant, sentenced in Snow Hill, Md., in October for the alleged shotgun slaying of David Lewis, 35, of Ironshire, Md. after a dispute there.

Says Confession was Forced

James Ford, 37, bartender of 702 S. Charles Street, who was convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the alleged criminal assault on Mrs. Mary Stewart, white, of 33 E. York Street, on March 22, is the fifth man awaiting execution. The attack is said to have occurred on Charles Street near Quay Alley, and the woman was first beaten insensible with a brick by her assailant.

However, an appeal of Ford's death penalty has been carried to the Maryland Court of Appeals on the contention that his alleged confession should not have been admitted at the trial because it was obtained from him by force. The appeals court has not yet ruled on the case.

Say Sarnoff to Quit FEPC

(By ANP)

WASHINGTON

Strong rumors that David Sarnoff, president of Radio Corporation of America, recently commissioned a colonel in the United States Army, would soon tender his resignation as a member of the Fair Employment Practice Committee continued to gain credence in the capital this week.

No official announcement of the resignation could be obtained and members of the committee refused to discuss the matter until such time as it would be either confirmed or denied.

Col. Sarnoff has been one of the strongest supporters of the principles of the committee and his resignation, it is reported, is due to the stress of business in his own company and the time required of him by his army duties.

Wanted to Quit Before

It has been alleged that Col. Sarnoff desired to relinquish his post on the committee several months ago, but the uncertainty of the future of the committee forced him to remain until all details were settled and the existence of the FEPC assured.

In the early days, Col. Sarnoff expressed his keen interest in the FEPC and expressed a desire to see it function as it should. He has consistently maintained that the work of the committee is a full-time job and that more meetings should be held and the entire group meet at least weekly.

His leaving would create a vacancy difficult to fill, it is believed.

Deny Bail to Lad in Fatal Shooting

George Daniels, 18, of 1627 Druid Hill Avenue, charged in Northwestern police court, Tuesday, with the fatal shooting of Louis Marshall, 57, of 508 W. Preston Street, was held without bail pending a hearing on January 7.

The shooting occurred about 4:30 a.m. at Lafayette Avenue and Mount Street, Monday, and for several hours afterwards the slain man and his assailant, who escaped at the time, remained unidentified.

Funeral Saturday

Whether the killing of Marshall, who was shot in the back, came as a result of a holdup attempt has not been revealed by police.

Funeral services for Marshall, a part-time domestic worker, are to be held at 2 p.m. Saturday from his home, with burial in Laurel Cemetery.

The body is now at the William A. Jackson Funeral Parlors. His survivors include Miss Ida Marshall, sister, and John Marshall, brother.

In Memoriam

SUMMERVILLE — In loving memory of my dear husband, HOWARD N., who departed this life two years ago, January 3, 1941.

More and more each day I miss you,
Friends may think the wound is healed;
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within my heart concealed.
Loving wife, CLARA R. SUMMERVILLE.

HARRIS — In memory of our husband & father who passed away December 27, 1930.

Do not ask if we miss him,
There's such a vacant place;
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
Days of sadness still come o'er us
Tears in sadness often flow:
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Who died twelve years ago.
WIFE AND CHILDREN.

POOLE—In memory of my beloved sister, ALMA, who departed this life December 30, 1940.

There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must go alone;
And there in a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond that gate my loved one
Finds happiness and rest.
There's comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.
Devoted sister, IDA.

SCOTT—In loving remembrance of my dear husband, EDWARD, who passed away December 25, 1939.

Dear husband I miss you,
As only God can tell;
Three years ago you left me.
Wife, MARY SCOTT.

WILLIAMS—In loving memory of my dear husband, CLARENCE, who passed away December 30, 1941

When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dear husband,
One year ago today.
Devoted wife, MARY WILLIAMS.

BROOKS—In memory of WALSWOTH BROOKS who died December 26, 1941.

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered since we lost you,
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
His aunt, MARY E. COLLINS.

TATE—In loving memory of my beloved husband, JOHN, who passed away December 31, 1941.

Gone but not forgotten.
His beloved wife, ELIZA TATE.

ANDERSON—In loving memory of my dear wife and aunt, SARAH E., who passed away January 1, 1942

Do not ask us if we miss her,
There's such a vacant place;
Oft we think we hear her footsteps,
And see her smiling face.
Though she left us one year ago
LOVING HUSBAND AND NIECE.
