Relieves Neuralgia

Sloan's Liniment gives instant relief from neuralgia or sciatica. It goes straight to the painful part—soothes the nerves and stops the pain. Don't rub—it penetrates.

PROOF

MRS. RUDOLPH NISCKE, Oconto, Wis., writes:—"I have used Sloan's Liniment for toothache and neuralgia in the head where nothing else would help me and I would not be without the Liniment in the house."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is also good for rheumatism, sore throat, chest pains and sprains.

Pains All Gone

MRS. C. M. DOWKER, of Johannesburg, Mich., writes:—"I wish to say your Liniment is the best medicine in the world. It has cured me of neuralgia; those pains have all gone and I can truly say your Liniment did cure me."

Pain All Gone

MR. J. R. SWINGER, of 547 So. 12th St., Louisville, Ky., writes:—"I suffered with quite a severe neuralgic headache for four months without any relief. I used your Liniment for two or three nights and I haven't suffered with my head since. I have found many quick reliefs from pain by the use of Sloan's Liniment and believe it to be the best Liniment on the market to-day. I can recommend it for what it did for me."

A CYCLONIC WIND STORM!

A High Tide Floods Wharves and Water Street Yards—Roof Blown Off—Waiting Room at Quaker Neck Lifted, Fodder Sheds Blown Down.

A terrific wind storm visited this section on Friday afternoon of last week. Chester river rose to a high degree, but not near so high as in 1892 and 1893 About 30 feet of the roof of the Electric Light Plant was blown off and the wharf covered with water. The beautiful yards of Senator Beck, Wilbur W. Hubbard, B. F. Fleming, Lewin W. Wickes, Eben F. Perkins, Mrs. Carolene Hynson, Jeff. D. Bacchus and others along Water street were covered with water, and in several instances fires in furnaces were drawn to prevent accident. Mr. Wheat, the bridge tender, says he was preparing to move out when the wind changed and the tide receded.

The waiting room and office on Quaker Neck wharf were blown over into the river.

The water was even with the bridge, with the spray sweeping over it in sheets, while the yard of Mr. Skipper's handsome residence, on the Queen Anne shore, was under several feet of water.

The road leading into town from Quaker Neck was under water a hundred yards on each side of Radcliffe bridge, and various other points along this road were overflown.

The B. S. Ford left her moorings at Chestertown in the morning, but Capt. Taylor had little difficulty in taking her over her regular route. They encountered heavy seas, however, when they left Rock Hall and started across the bay, where the salt spray washed her from bow to stern, and there were but few not sick.

Trees, which had stood the blasts of tempests for years, were uprooted, signs were dragged from their fastenings and panes of glass were blown out, about 24 being blown out at the College.

Boats were broken from their moorings and washed away and several fishermen were caught in their shanties fast asleep and marooned until the tide went out.

Fodder ricks and sheds were blown down on the farms and along the bay shore and the tide came up so high as to frighten many. It is, however, remarkable that more damage was not done in such a heavy blow.

PARTY AT THE CLIFFS.

Quite an enjoyable New Year was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Legg, Cliffs, Md., on Thursday evening of last week. The home was beautifully decorated with all requirements for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Music and games were enjoyed by all, and at a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were:

Transit of Venus.

The transits of Venus came in pairs, with an interval of eight years between them. A pair occurred in 1761 and 1769 and again in 1874 and 1882. The whole of the twentieth century will pass without another transit. Not until the years 2004 and 2012 will posterity have the opportunity of witnessing it. It was long supposed that transits of Venus over the sun's disk afforded the only accurate method of determining the distance of the sun, but latterly the speed of light has become the more favored method for that purpose.—New York American.

Retired Georgia Planter's Advice to Kidney Sufferers

Regarding the wonderful curative merits of your Swamp-Root, I cannot say too much. After suffering severely for three years or more with severe pains caused by weak kidneys I was finally induced to try Swamp-Root through a testimonial I read in one of the newspapers. I was in such a condition that I was obliged to arise from my bed six or eight times every night. I purchased a 50 cent bottle and before it was used I felt so much relief that I purchased a one-dollar bottle and by the time this was taken the old pains had left my back and I could sleep the whole night through. I am a retired planter, 70 years of age, and owing to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I am in the best of health and feel like a boy. I am always glad to recommend Swamp-Root to those who are in need of it.

Sincerely yours,
C. E. USSERY,
Bowersville, Ga.

Personally appeared before me, this 8th of September, 1909, C. E. Ussery, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact. T. H. McLANE, Notary Public.

And Notice To Creditors.

R. Bruce Massey, Assignee, versus
Anna L. Duling, John W. Duling, her husband.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity. No. 1829.

The object of this suit is to have the surplus proceeds of sale under a mortgage applied to to pay the creditors of Anna L. Duling, late of Kent county, deceased, mortgagor.

The Petition stated that Anna L. Duling died before the sale under the mortgage, indebted unto Benjamin W. Duling in $59.55 on an open account and an open account for $37.25 for expenses incurred for the estate of the said Anna L. Duling, deceased, after her death, and to others, that she left no personal estate and no administration has been granted on her estate, that the land sold for more than enough to satisfy the mortgage and her creditors are entitled to the surplus proceeds; that Anna L. Duling left surviving her and now living a husband, John W. Duling, and the following heirs at law, namely: Benjamin W. Duling, a son whose wife's name is Laura Duling, residing in Maryland, Dora Duling, a daughter whose husband's name is Harry Duling, residing in Delaware, Mary W. Ramberger, a daughter whose husband's name is David Damberger, residing in Maryland, Olin C. Duling, a son whose wife's name is Ida Duling, residing in Maryland, Sara Edna Vansant, a daughter, widow of B. E. Vansant, deceased, residing in Maryland, Oscar Brown Duling, a son whose wife's name is Mary Duling, residing in Pennsylvania, and the following children of Anna R. Clough, a deceased daughter, namely: John H. Clough, whose wife's name is Clara Clough, Clarence Clough, whose wife's name is Clara Clough, Eva W. Porter, whose dusband's name is Robert E. Porter, and George E. Clough, whose wife's name is Ida Clough, all residing in Maryland, and Edward Clough residing in New Jersey, and Herman S. Clough, whose wife's name is Molie Clough, residing in Delaware when last heard from, and may now be residing in Maryland, all of the above named heirs at law being adults, except Edward Clough, who is an infant and the following children of John Duling, a deceased son, all of whom are minors, namely: Bayard Duling, residing in Pennsylvania, and Clara Duling and John Duling, both residing in Delaware.

Ordered this 7th day of January, 1913, by the Court that the creditors of Anna L. Duling, deceased, file their claims, with vouchers with the Clerk of this Court on or before the fifteenth [illegible] rch next; or be excluded [illegible] in the distribution [illegible] t sale.
