WEDDING BELLS

The wedding of Miss Julia Woodall and Mr. Cruikshank was announced in the NEWS last week to take place at Georgetown Tuesday evening. Great preparations had been made for the occasion but owing to the groom-elect being sick with the measles the ceremony was postponed. The elegant supper to be served Monday evening was hard to postpone.

WEBB—SPRY.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Clara Spry Thursday evening, when her daughter, Miss Bessie O Spry, became the bride of Mr. George R. Webb, of Kennedyville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E H. Derrickson, pastor of Church Hill Methodist Episcopal Church. After the ceremony the young couple left for Kent county where the groom is engaged in farming.

A marriage of interest which will take place in the late spring at St. Mark's-On-the Hill Protestant Episcopol Church Pikesville, is that of Miss Mary Charlton Merrick, daughter of Dr. Samuel K. Merrick, to Mr. Henry Parr Hynson, Jr., son of Doctor and Mrs. Henry P. Hynson, of Roland Park. The wedding will be followed by an informal reception at the home of Dr. Merrick at Sudbrook Park.

The engagement of Miss Annie Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Smith, of near Worton, to Mr. James H. Lee, a prominent young man, of near Chestertown, and son of Mr. Wm. Lee, is announced. The wedding is expected to take place at an early date.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church last Wednesday morning at 10.30 The bride was Miss M. Helen Kerr, daughter of Capt. Charles R. Kerr, of Rock Hall, who was attired in a most becoming traveling suit of brown and carried lillies of the valley. The groom was Mr. Geo. C. Lee, of Fairlee. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. Dupuy. The ushers were Wm. Francis, Robt. Ayres, Mahlon P. Lee and S. Elwood Burgess. The happy couple left for a trip to Washington and other points. They will reside at Fairlee. The church was tastily decorated with evergreen and holly. A reception was held the evening before the wedding at the home of the bride in Rock Hall.

A GREAT MEETING.

The Evangelistic Services in Christ M. P. Church Largely Attended—A Big Ingathering and Stirring Meeting in the Sabbath School Sunday —Over 60 Conversions.

Sunday last will be a day long remembered by teachers and scholars in Christ Church Sunday School. A special service was held immediately following the short session of the school, and about fifty young men, young ladies and children presented themselves at the altar dedicating their lives to the Saviour. The Holy Ghost descended like a dove upon all present. Salvation was offered, not as a solace in time of death, but as an anchor of the soul to help us through life—to aid us to live upright.

At night the church was packed with a large audience, to whom Evangelist Shelhorn spoke on "The Prodigal Son." Meetings have been held every night this week and souls have been born again to the number of 15. There were five young men at the altar Thursday night. The meetings will be continued next week.

Farm Sold.—Mrs. Fl[illegible] of Philadelphia, has sold to [illegible] Harry C. Willis her farm at Nic[illegible]s Station, near Fairlee, price n[illegible]te. This is a fine tract of land known as "The Whittington Farm." being a part of "Fancy Farm." It contains 301 acres. Mr. Willis has been tenanting this farm for about 20 years so that it had become "Home" to him and his family.

SEAY—MIDDLETON.

The home of Capt. and Mrs. B. F. Middleton, Chesapeake City, Md., was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday evening, January 22, 1913, at 7.30 p. m., when their daughter, Mildred, became the bride of Mr. Wm. Herbert Seay, of Norfolk, Va. The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns. The bride was attired in a becoming dress of brocaded silk with gloves to match and carrying a bouquet of carnations. The groom was attired in a becoming suit of brown with gloves to match. They received many very pretty and useful presents. They left Thursday evening on an extended tour after which they will return to Norfolk, Va., the groom's home.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A Public Meeting will be held at the office in Fireman's Hall Monday night, Jan. 27th, for the purpose of considering telephone rates and selecting representatives to appear before the Utility Commission which meets at Cambridge, Jan. 30, at which meeting the rates for the whole Eastern Shore will be fixed. Everybody invited.

THE Chestertown market is now supplied with beautiful carnations from M[illegible] Rumsey Anthony's hot house [illegible] town.
