Enon Enters New Edifice On Sunday

Pays $35,000 Cash or Building; Has $15,000 Surplus

Enon Baptist Church will move into its new building at Schroeder Street and Edmondson Avenue Sunday, with all of its bills paid and a $15,000 surplus raised by the pastor, the Rev. Arthur W. Payne, and his congregation since April, 1942. The new Enon was formerly occupied by the Brantley Baptist congregation, white, from whom the building was purchased at a cost of $35,000 cash.

Rev. Payne

The dedication of the church and mortgage-burning ceremonies will highlight the three-week celebration beginning Sunday when religious leaders from all over the country, local leaders and ministers of all denominations will speak.

D.C. Pastor to be Heard

The opening sermon will be delivered Sunday at 11 a.m. by the Rev. William H. Jernigan, of D.C., president of the National Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress.

Pastor of Enon for the past twenty years, the Rev. Mr. Payne began with a congregation of 363 persons. Today he has 2,100 members.

The pastor is a member of the Baltimore Civilian Mobilization Committee, is active in Boy Scout movements and other local movements for civic betterment.

Clerics Get Tax Lesson

Members of the Methodist Ministers' Conference went back to school for a brief period Wednesday when they were given a lecture on taxation by their president, the Rev. C. S. Harper, at their meeting held at the Sharp Street Methodist Church.

Because of the confusion existing in the minds of numerous ministers about the new victory tax which many thought they were not required to pay, the Rev. Mr. Harper explained how the money should be deducted from the ministers' salaries and sent to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

He explained that all employees of the church, sexton, organists, etc., earning more than $12 per week are also subject to taxation.

The exemptions to be considered in figuring the ministers annual income tax payments were also pointed out by the Rev. Mr. Harper.

Favorite Hymn

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Each week we will print someone's favorite hymn. Send your favorite hymn to the Church Editor, in care of the AFRO-AMERICAN. This is the favorite hymn of Mrs. M. J. Simmons.)

BLEST BE THE TIE

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers:
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows,
The sympathizing tear.

When we are parted, it gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

Cleric Nets 3 Years in Jail

ANNAPOLIS, Md. The Rev. Calhoun Edward Green, of Baltimore who designated himself as a Baptist Minister, is now serving a three-year house of correction sentence on a false pretense charge.

The Rev. Mr. Green was convicted in circuit court here of soliciting funds for the Mt. Moriah AME Church without authorization, and allegedly keeping the money himself.

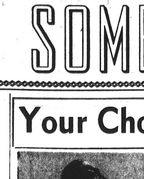
Pleads Guilty to Charge

His arrest, according to police, resulted after he had obtained $1 from a John H. Hopkins, white.

The Rev. A. Lincoln Ceiglar, pastor of Mt. Moriah Church, revealed that he did not know the Rev. Mr. Greene, nor had authorized him to solicit funds for the church.

The Rev. Mr. Greene pleaded guilty to the charge at his trial in Annapolis on October 30.

Your Choir Director



MRS. MARGARET R. FRANKLIN

By E. A. HARLESTON

The choir of Grace Presbyterian Church, Dolphin and Etting Streets, the Rev. John T. Colbert, pastor, is undoubtedly composed of the largest aggregation of widely known soloists of any church choir in the city.

Twenty-five members strong, the choir lists such artists as Edna Over Gray, Annette Colbert Johnson, Lucy Holt Jones, Grace W. Burkett, Hattie Hawkins and Moore Carson.

The problem of combining these voices and training their owners to sing together so that the effect is one harmonious rendition is the task of the choir director, Mrs. Margaret Rusk Franklin, who serves as organist as well.

Does Her Work Well

That she does her work well is borne out by the city-wide popularity of the Grace choir which last year sang at the interracial Easter sunrise service held in the stadium.

The choir is scheduled to sing for the February Fellowship Church service to be held at Christian Temple, white, on Fulton Avenue, and its services are much in demand on many special occasions.

Mrs. Franklin, director of the choir for the past thirteen years, obtained her musical training from her father, the late Prof. Charles J. Rusk, her mother, Mrs. Janie Rusk, soloist at Madison Street Presbyterian Church for many years, and has studied piano and voice at Peabody.

She is the wife of Philip H. Franklin, a Grace Church trustee, and they are the parents of a 21-year-old son.

Rev. Payne Still Heads Scout Group

The Rev. A. J. Payne, pastor of Enon Baptist Church, was unanimously elected district chairman for the seventh consecutive year at the Monumental District Boy Scout Committee held its annual meeting Monday at the Druid Health Center.

The Rev. Mr. Payne is sponsor of Scout Troop and Cub Pack 279. Vice chairman Elbridge H. James was also re-elected. He is chairman of Troop 265 sponsored by the Bethel AME Church.

Committee chairmen reappointed include: Dr. Miles W. Connor, advancement; J. Nelson Fortune, leadership training; Dr. James D. Carr, health and safety; Grafton L. Moore, finance; George S. Whyte, organization and extension and C. C. Jackson, Jr., camping and activities.

Chesapeake Officers

Due to transportation difficulties, the Chesapeake District was unable to hold an annual meeting, and all the present officers have been requested to continue their service in 1943. They are: Frank B. Butler, Annapolis, chairman; Henry T. Ayres, Lutherville, vice chairman and the following committee chairmen:

William E. Brown, Annapolis, advancement; Arthur A. Mitchell, Havre de Grace, leadership training; Dr. William Polk, Towson, health and safety; Walter L. S. Mills, Annapolis, finance; Walter Mack, Towson, organization and extension and Roosevelt Owens, Sparks, camping and activities.

Why I Go to Church

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The AFRO will pay $1 for the best answer each week to the question, "Why Do I Go to Church?" Limit your answer to 100 words. Clearness of thought and sincerity will be considered in judging the winner. All answers must reach the AFRO Church Editor on or before Wednesday of each week. This week's winner is Robert M. Jackson, Jr., 203 N. Carey Street.)

I attend church to be strengthened in my spiritual life. I am a young Christian and proud to confess it.

The services inspire me to live a righteous life. Jesus said on one occasion, "Watch and pray, for the flesh is weak." The church is the place where one gains strength.

I enjoy attending Sunday school and league. These institutions help in the full development of youth along Christian lines.

Each evening the local co-operating ministers will conduct brief devotion services before Dr. Kelly is heard. Mrs. Margaret Gray Allen will be the featured gospel singer.

300-Voice Chorus to Sing

A gospel chorus of 300 voices composed of choir members of the participating churches, directed by Mrs. Elsie Bowser, will furnish music. Ellsworth Gibson is pianist, Luther Mitchell, organist, and Mrs. Mary Stanley Lee, cornetist.

Deaconess Florence Gaither is chairman of the planning committee, assisted by Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson.

Nursery Still Accepts Tots

Applications for children of war-working mothers are still being accepted at the Orchard Day Nursery at Orchard Street Methodist Church sponsored by the International Council of Church Religious Work in War Areas.

Registration of children from two to five years old may be made by the mothers at the Nursery between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily.

According to Mrs. Eva White, chairman of the sponsoring committee, the nursery is expected to begin actual operations by Wednesday. So far twenty applications have been made and the school can accommodate thirty children.

The sponsoring committee will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Sharp Street Community House. Mrs. White said.

In Our Churches

By E. A. HARLESTON

The Rev. E. W. White, pastor, Providence Baptist Church and editor of the Baptist Ministers' Conference, in his weekly review of the news before the ministers Monday attacked Dr. Warren Brown's criticism of the colored press which was reprinted in the January Reader's Digest from the Saturday Review of Literature.

He denounced Dr. Brown as the sort of person whom the race could very well do without—the type who thinks that every thing "Mr. Charley" does is all well and good, even to the point of accepting some of his mud-slinging journals while beseeching the colored press to be quiet and passive.

"Miss Shiloh" Crowned

PARENTHOOD CLINIC BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETS, THURS.
The board of directors of the Planned Parenthood Clinic, Northwest Branch, will meet noon, Thursday, January 21, at the clinic, 1523 McCulloh Street, according to an announcement this week by Mrs. Theresa Waters.

MODERATE
We appreciate that very often there is a limited budget for the last final tribute to each client we advise a modest funeral—the living must be regarded as well as those who have passed on.
In any case—whatever the cost—the arrangements are complete, beautiful and reverent. We do not want people to spend more than they can afford.
