From the Fredericktown Herald

One of "our subscribers" stalked into the office the other day with a very waggish face, and addressing us, said—"Sir, I am resolved to read your paper no longer!"" We expressed our regret and pulled out our leger—when the subscriber added, "I will, for the future read my own paper—credit me with a year in advance!" We need not say how we admired the conclusion of his remarks, and how heartily we wish all of our subscibers would read their own papers!

FREDERICK (Md.) Feb. 1.

War on the canal. The account of the battles on the line of the Canal published in another column, is said to be a little exaggerated particularly as to the number of persons killed. Since the reception of these details, we have learned that a kind of guerilla war was carried on until Thursday last, when a treaty of peace was formally entered into and signed; and are gratified to state, that letters were received in town yesterday stating that the different parties had returned to their respective sections, and peaceably gone to work. This we hope, will be the end of this affair. If however a disposition is manifested to disturb the public peace, means will be at hand promptly to chastise the offenders. For in obedience to the requisition of the Governor of this State the President has ordered two companies of U. S. Troops to the line of the Canal with orders promptly to suppress all violent proceedings. One of the companies from Fort McHenry, under the command of Capt. Mackey, fully equipped, with fixed ammunition, magazine &c. passed through this city, via the Rail Road on Thursday. They are a body of fine looking men, and excited much admiration. They arrived at Willimsports yesterday and will remain as long as their services are deemed necessary.

Nearly thirty of the rioters were apprehended in the vicinity of Berlin and lodged in the jail of this county on Thursday last.—Herald.

TYCHICUS.

THE celebrated Race Horse Tychicus will stand at the Stables of H. G. S. Key, Esq. Leonardtown, St. Mary's county Maryland, the ensuing season, commencing 1st of March next, (1834.)

Tychicus was got by Clifton, his dam (bred by Col. Tayloe, at Mount Airy, Va.) by imported Chance, grand dam by the Arabian Selim, g. g. d. by the Prince of Wales, Pegassus, (in England,) g. g. g. d. Peggy, the famous Plate Mare, imported when in foal, 1799—see her pedigree and performances in the American Turf Register, Vol 4, Page 557. She was by Trumpetor; her dam sister to Postmaster by Herod! grandam by Snap; great grandam by Gower Stallion; (son of the Golfdolphin Arabian,) and her dam by Flying Childers.

Clifford was got by Doctor Brown's celebrated running horse Wonder, out a thoroughbred Diomed mare: Wonder was got by the imported horse Wonder, he by Florizel, his dam Zeneriarissa, got by Matchem, out of Aurora by the Duke of Northumberland's Golden Arabian. Florizel was got by Herod out of a Cygnet mare, her dam by Cartouch—Ebony by Childers. On the dam side Iris, the dam of Clifton, was got by the imported horse Stirling; her dam by the imported horse Cœur de Lion; her grandam was Mr. Mead's celebrated running mare Oracle, who was got by the imported horse Obscurity; her g. g. dam by Celer; her g. g. g. dam by the imported horse Partner; her g. g. g. g. dam by the imported horse Janus; her g. g. g. g. g. dam by the imported horse Valiant, her g. g. g. g. g. g. dam by the imported horse Jolly Roger, out of an imported mare, the property of Peter Randolph, Esq.

JOSEPH LEWIS.

Dear Sir:—I have extracted, as you requested, from the English Stud Book, the Pedigree of the imported horse Wonder, the grandsire of your young horse Clifton, which is annexed. The Pedigree of your horse, on both sides, is equal to any in America. His dam, Iris, partakes of the most approved crosses for the turf in Virginia; and his sire, by the imported horse Wonder, is inferior to none in England. I was very much pleased with the appearance of your horse, and it is, I think, to be regreted, that you have never trained him for the turf where, I think, from his blood and form, he would have made a distinguished figure. His fine appearance and excellent blood certainly entitle him to the attention of those who wish to improve the breed of good horses: and I have no doubt, under the auspices of the gentlemen who will, patronize him, that he will, as he certainly ought make a good season.

Yours truly,

JOHN TAYLOE.

To Joseph Lewis, Esq.

Tychicus became 'celebrated' by being twice a winner over the Washington City Course, beating Helen, Ace of Diamonds, Reform, Tyrant, and others, once over the central course, Baltimore, beating Lara, Celeste, Bonny Black, Lady Relief, and others—at Tree Hill, Va. beating Wm. R. Johnson's Annette, Dismal, Betsey Graves, (Betsey Baker,) distanced, at Taylotsville, Va. beating Rolla, Yellow Jacket, (Donald Adair,) and Eliza Wharton—at Fairfield, running 'the severest and most splendid race in modern times,' four mile heats, taking the first heat in 7m. 58sec. and contending severely with Goliah the fourth heat, Z. A. distanced) which was six seconds quicker that Eclipse and Henry ran their third heat, beating Pizarro, who had before beaten Goliah at Tree Hill, and Quarter Master ruled out, Row Galley drawn, and Clarence distanced—and again at Fairfield, the four mile heats, coming out ahead of Pizarro, Mohawk, and Ariandne. Dolly Dixon, and others.

Handbills with pedigree, performances, and terms, will appear in due time—$2500 were offered and refused for half of Tychicus after his last race.
