WEDDING BELLS

BORDLEY—MCFEELY.

Miss Katherine Lux McFeely, daughter of Mrs. Harper McFeely, formerly of Chestertown, and Mr. W. Worthington Bordley, both of Centreville, were married in the Centreville P. E. Church Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. Masters James and John Bordley were ribbon boys; Messrs. Harry Frazier, of Staunton, Va.; Dr James Bordley, of Baltimore, Madison Bordley, Henry Deaver, P. B. McFeely, E. B. Emory of B., John W. Perry and W. L. Holton were ushers; Miss Louise McFeely was the maid of honor. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. William McFeely, of Baltimore, and met the groom with his best man, Mr. Purnell Brown, at the foot of the chancel. Rev. Arthur Conger, the rector, performed the ceremony. The bride's gown was of white crepe meteor, trimmed with duchess lace and orange blossoms, a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of pink charmeuse, draped with chiffon and rhinestones, with a lace bonnet trimmed with a white plume, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Nannie Deaver played the wedding marches. Immediately after the ceremony the company donned their traveling suits and came to town in an automobile. They boarded the night train for a trip North. The bride's traveling gown was of blue crepe meteor, with white hat and gloves. They will reside in Centreville, where the groom is engaged in business.

COX—PARKER.

John T. Cox, Jr. and Frances R. Parker were married at the home of the groom July 3rd by Rev. W. H. Chairs of Marydel. The groom is a prosperous farmer of Delaware and the bride is an accomplished young daughter of Mr. James R. Parker. Only relatives of the immediate families were present. After the ceremony was performed there was a large dinner served. Immediately after dinner the bride and groom left on their honeymoon which will be spent with the groom's aunt, Mrs. S. S. Price, of Chestertown. They will reside in Hartley, Del., their former home.
