LOCAL NOTES

THE State Road near town is being oiled.

CHAUTAUQUA week is September 1—8. Don't forget it.

THE cold wave this week has been appreciated.

THE last Kent Fair at old Worton grounds was held in 1888, not 1881.

THE report that Janes M. E. Church had been sold to the railroad cannot be verified.

A CIRCUS—Downie & Wheeler's—is booked for Chestertown on Wednesday, September 3.

LEMONS are qoted at 50 cents per dozen in town, and on Monday not an orange could be bought!

THE Chestertown Lyceum is now fitted with electric fans and its managers say it is as cool as an ice house!

THE Peerless Fertilizer Co. have built a new pier at their plant at Chestertown, together with a warehouse.

KENT court will convene in Chestertown next Monday. A cecil county damage case is booked to be tried.

THE lightning one night last week killed four cows belonging to Mr. W. Frank Jarrell, on the Fogwell farm.

THERE were seven fine yachts of the Baltimore Yacht Club in Chestertown harbor Sunday. They made a beautiful sight.

ANOTHER fine garden in town is that of Mr. Thos. W. Eliason cared for by Charles Gordon. Charlie has had roasting ears for a week.

THE Kent Building and Loan Company issued a new series of stock last Monday night. The 13th series has been retired at $98.54 per share.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad will run another excursion to Atlantic City on Tuesday, August 12, leaving Chestertown 5.10 a. m.; price, $2 25. See adv. later.

MRS. MINNIE COLEMAN, of Worton, is the owner of a very prolific goose, she having layed 57 eggs. Out of the 57 30 of them hatched. Who can beat this?

THE L. O. Scoone farm of 47 acres at Edesville was sold at public sale Tuesday by W. M. Slay, Esq., attorney, to Mr. Frank Puppe, of Rock Hall for $1732.

A NATION-WIDE movement for social reform has been instituted by the Government and Professor W. Raymond Moody of Washiagton College, has been asked to organize this movement.

MR. COHEN, the proprietor of the United Bargain Store, is offering some big bargains in Men's Clothing, Men's Ladies and Children's Shoes, and Ladies Dresses. Look up his advertisement.

WM. R. NICKERSON has purchased from Mr. Owen B. Crow, owner, the dwelling house situated on Kent street, now occupied by Mr. John E. Barnes. The new owner takes possession Jan. 1, 1914.

THE Kent Land Co. offered their remaining lots at the Chestertown gardens and there were several bidders but no lots were sold. They may be bought at any time from the President, Mr. J. W. Russell.

BELTON K., owned by Mr. Harry S. Dailey, of Queen Anne's, was sold on Wednesday to Philadelphia parties for $500. This is the horse that broke the track record of the Chestertown track on July 4 when a mile was made in 2.12.

W. W. BECK, attorney for owners, will sell at public auction in front of the court house door, in Chestertown, on Tuesday, July 15, 1813, the "Brice" or "Perkins Hill" farm, a valuable tract, containing 214¾ acres, with all the improvements.

TREES are dying on the streets of Chestertown. It is thought the scale is causing the havoc. Prof. T. B. Symons, of the Maryland Agricultual College, has written to Mr. H. L. Boyd saying that he will be in Chestertown next Tuesday or Wednesday to examine the trees that are dying.

THE Kent County Savings Bank celebrated its 20th anniversary on July 1 by sending souvenirs to hundreds of ladies, children and men. These remembrances consisted of pencils, needle cases and handy tool. This bank was the first to pay interest in Kent county and has a motto, "Safety Beyond All Else," which is lived up to in its management.

THE potato harvest in Kent will begin about July 17th. Visitors from New Jersey inspected the fields in Worton and gave their opinion that most of the farmers who had planted potatoes would have fair yields. The price now is quoted at 70 cents per bushel. Over 500 carloads of white potatoes per day are passing northward over the Delaware Railroad from points on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia, and the season has fairly begun.

THE sale held by the Love Point Beach & Park Company on Saturday was well attended, and the bidding was spirited until it was stopped by the rain storm, which caused a postponement. In all thirty-eight lots were sold, all the purchasers being non-residents of the county, most of them being from Baltimore and Washington. Mr. John J. Mahon, the Democratic political leader of Baltimore city, bought a whole block, it being Mr. Mahon's intention to erect a summer home thereon.

THE citizens along Queen street were indignant last Friday night at the cruelty being inflicted to a young horse by Alonza Dorsey, colored. He was arrested and sentenced to six months in the House of Correction on a charge of cruelty to animals, resisting Officer Hyland and for disorderly conduct. State's Attorney H. W. Vickers represented the State., S. Scott Beck appeared for the accused. Geo. E. Diedman, of Baltimore, an officer of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was present at the trial by invitation of State's Attorney Vickers.

JOHN R. WOOD, now working on the State road near Centreville, was recently arraigned before Justice Pennington in Kennedyville on the charge of assaulting with intent to kill Mr. D. Thomas Godwin, with whom he formerly lived. The accused was found not guilty and dismissed. An interesting sequel to this trouble is that Mr. Godwin's wife has come to live with Wood in Centreville. Mr. and Mrs. Godwin had lived together for 20 years without a semblance of a jar until Wood came to live with them. His coming resulted in the elopement, and Mr. Godwin is taking the matter philosophically. Wood is about 23 years old, while Mrs. Godwin is past 40.—Centreville Record.

SOME of Chestertown's citizens have returned this week with dozens of nice perch, having been piloted to the grounds by Capts. Henry Urie and Davis, of Rock Hall, Capt. T. D. France, R. S. Thomas, Jas. H. Brice, T. D. Bowers, Geo. W. French and Harry W. Brice, were among the number. The fishermen are very much annoyed in the sport by toads and eels!

JOS. GUEST writes from Denver, Col., "The past week has been a gala one. The German Turners from all parts of our country assembled here, said to be 40,000 strong. We had the great novelty of abundance of snow and while you people have been sweltering in heat. This city furnished 2 train loads of snow from the snow capped mountains and had it hauled at night to the corners along principal streets and piled up in pyramids, but the shape of pyramids soon disappeared as snow-balling began and the rolling of men and women began. There has been no night since I came here but what bed clothes felt good. I am quite well."

School Notes.—There were 16 to take the teachers' examination in Chestertown this week.

Miss Jeanette Smith has resigned her school in Broad Neck; Miss Mamie Newcomb, of Edesville; Miss Lillian Wilson, of Rock Hall, Mr. Clyde Tarbutton, of Spry's Gate.

Centreville is again without a principal for its High School, or at least will be as soon as the resignation of Prof. Thomas Stuart Luck is received and accepted by the board of county school commissioners. Prof. Luck leaves to accept a fellowship at the University of Virginia

Ends Life From Steamer.—An unknown white man, a passenger on the steamer Ericsson, en route from Baltimore to Philadelphia, committed suicide Tuesday night shortly after 11 o'clock by jumping overboard into Back creek, one mile south of Chesapeake City. The man leaped from the boat as it was nearing Chesapeake City and was seen by a colored deck hand, who followed him into the water in hopes of rescuing him. The white man, however, disappeared from view when he struck the water, and up to a late hour his body had not been recovered. His cap was found floating in the creek.

The Grange Picnic.—The grange picnic will be held in Klinefelter's woods on August 7th. Mr. Irving Walker, with a corps of able assistants, composed of the following: H. H. Klinefelter, grounds; S. S Hepburn, publicity; J. T. Anthony, program; O. C. Smith, privileges; J. T. Smith, exhibits; W. G. Smyth, amusements; Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, music; W. Irving Walker, chairman, has all arrangements in charge, and is endeavoring to make it a success. Several speakers have been invited from abroad, among them the Governor of the State and Master of the State Grange. The grangers of both Kent and Queen Anne's are requested to do all in their power to help the committee make this a profitable and enjoyable gathering. All farmers and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

Harvest Notes.—The crop of wheat on Mr. Urie's farm tenanted by Mr. Subers at Lynch has been threshed and sold to Mr. Harry Jewell and the cash received. The crop yielded 20 bushels to the acre and the price was 88 cents.

W. H. Waddell got 30 bushels of wheat to the acre on his farm at Fairlee tenanted by Hero Kelley.

Mr. Wm. H. Cooper, near Melitota got about 16 bushels per acre. The yield near Galena is very light averaging from 6 to 17 bushels per acre.

The yield at Betterton is short being about two thirds of a crop.

Judge Jas. Bramble on Fairlee farm is threshing and the crop, like nearly all other Kent wheat crops this year is light.

Several crops in Morgnec have threshed and the yields are from 6 to 15, per acre.

Around Worton the straw seems to be very heavy, enough to yield 25 bushels, but when it is threshed it only turns out about 15 bushels per acre.
