RELIEVED OF HANDBAG WHILE SHE SLEPT.

Passenger on "Talbot" Has Handbag And Contents Stolen From Stateroom After Midnight.

Sometime between midnight and four o'clock Wednesday morning, Mrs. Arthur G. Hurlock, of Cambridge had stolen from her stateroom aboard the B., C. & A. steamer Talbot a handbag, containing money and jewelery amounting to about one hundred dollars. Mrs. Hurlock, accompanied by her two children, was occupying the outside alcove room, and on account of the intense heat, she was sleeping with her head near the window. A suitcase which had been left unfastened, and which contained a handbag, was immediately below the window.

The steamer had left Tilghman's Island and was on its way to Baltimore when the robbery was discovered. About four o'clock Mrs. Hurlock was aroused from her sleep by a faint noise, and feeling the presence of an unknown person near her, she searched the room immediately, and although unable to locate anyone, found that her handbag and its contents were missing.

An alarm was given, and the captain was appealed to to have the boat searched but a deaf ear was turned to the victim, and no effort whatever was made to locate the guilty person. The robbery completely relieved Mrs. Hurlock of all her money, and it was necessary for her to borrow from the psssengers on the boat in order that she might continue her trip to Howard county, where she and her children are visiting relatives.

Evidently the thief was well acquainted with the boat, as this stateroom is considered one of the safest on the Talbot. In order to accomplish his purpose, it was necessary for him to climb around a very narrow railing and to grasp the windows on that side of the steamer for support. Upon arriving at the desired place, the scheme was easy enough, for he had nothing to do but reach his arm through the window, and the handbag was in his possession.

GALENA ITEMS.

We have had a week of very warm weather. On Friday evening we had a very severe electrical storm; quite a lot of damage done. Four large stacks of wheat belonging to Capt. James E. Woodall on the Hayes farm near here were struck by lightning and were still burning on Sunday evening. A large rick of straw in Mr. Weists cow yard near Millington was burned but no other damage done to the near-by buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Davis and son spent Sunday with Dr. E. A. Scott.

Mrs. Edna Linthicum Fitzpatrick and her husband, of Baltimore, have returned home, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. George E. Hicks.

Miss Carrie Dempsey is expected home the latter part of this week accompanied by her sister, Mrs. O. H. Connelly and her son, Walton, of Christiana.

Quite an interesting game of base ball was held here on Saturday afternoon between Cecilton and Galena. The score was 10 to 4 in favor of Galena.

Rev. C. W. Moore preached two able sermons both morning and evening on Sunday; Matt. 6 chap. 33 verse in morning, and in evening from: Behold I Have Given You a Pearl of Great Price.

The Ladies Aid of M. E. Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. L. R. Vansant.

Mrs. C. W. Moore and three children, have returned from a visit to Baltimore and Washington.

Misses Martha and Emily Caldwell are visiting Mrs Wm. C. Lempsey, in Wilmington

Miss Bessie Wilson, of Baltimore, is spending sometime with Miss Sara Pennington.

Mr. I. L. Dempsey spent part of last week in Baltimore and Canton, Baltimore county.

Mr. Hanson Horsey is spending sometime at his mothers'.

A Quaker Leader, recently drawn into a denominational discussion, said of his sect: "Well, when we get to heaven, we will all be Friends." Sure, but why cannot more of us be friends on Earth, for we are certain we're here but can only attain the other place through the grace of God.

Delegate — "Anty Drudge, I am forming a Union to enforce shorter hours for washerwomen. What name would you suggest?"

Anty Drudge — "There's only one name, and only one way. Call it the Fels - Naptha Union, and make every one who joins use Fels - Naptha Soap. Their hours, and their work, too, will be cut in half, and the washing done better than ever before."

Anything that protects the wife and mother protects the whole family. There's nobody of more account in the world.

Many a woman would be better, stronger and happier if her work was easier. Fels-Naptha Soap makes all kinds of work easy, takes half the time, and saves women's strength. It does the best work in cool or lukewarm water, with no hard rubbing or scrubbing.

Full directions are on the red and green wrapper.
