

There are immense new values in a higher mass character and a great gain in happiness and in civilization.

The Salisbury lynching proves the need for character education in the schools in that part of Maryland. Law cannot suppress lynching — education of the character of the children can produce self control.

I am glad you are acting in the matter, and send this as appreciation.

Yours cordially,

Wilton Fairchild

The Hon. Gov. Albert C. Ritchie,
