The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no jugling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Many hearts in this section have deeply sorrowed for the family of the late James R. Coleman, whose tragic end came last week.

Among the holiday sojourners here were Rev. and Mrs. David J. Moore, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Casey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Porter, of Baltimore, are at the home of Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Janie McKivitt, Green Lane.

Our up-to-date merchants report a fair Christmas trade, notwithstanding the slump in the oyster industry.

The leaves are rustling and many resolutions are made. Let's keep them nt act.

Rev. Mr. Prettyman was taken quite sick Saturday or Sunday. Rev. D. J. Moore occupied the M. E. pulpit Sunday night. There was no service Sunday morning. Mr. Prettyman is now much better.

Fraternal Hall has just been repapered and repainted and is now one of the first-class halls in this town. Messrs. J. R. Diehl, of this place, and Walter Joiner, of Baltimore, did the work.

This section is very much incensed because of ugly reports in the city papers. In fact, the whole outcome of the murder case is most nauseous to our people.

CLENDANIEL, and we realize that never again in this life shall we hear his voice or look upon his kindly countenance, or enjoy his genial company; therefore, be it

WE have just received from Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp one of their beautiful calendars. The scene is "The Notification of Washington of His Election as President." It is a reproduction of an oil painting by the famous artist, John Ward Dunsmore. Mr. Culp believes in Washington.

ABOUT the busiest people around Chestertown these days are the telegraph operators, Messrs. Legg, Joiner, Russell Wheatley and Lewin Howard. They are at work night and day giving the city papers an account of the Kent county murder from their own correspondents.

CENTREVILLE now has 35 cases of scarlet fever.

THE big store at Rock Hall conducted by Mr. Kramer has been sold to Mr. J. M. Blaustein, who has been manager for some months. We bespeak for the new manager success.

BECAUSE of an altercation with Mr. William Dadds, a Chestertown grocer, George Deans, a Santiago negro, is in Chestertown jail charged with assault on Mr. Dadds; the latter's ear having been bitten in the fracas. Mr. Dadds had some trouble Monday morning; in the afternoon the quarrel was resumed, ending in a general mix-up, over some chickens.
