

Monday.

My dear Governor Ritchie

How ought one to address a Governor? I frankly do not know. so shall address you as I would any one with whom I wanted to converse for a little while.

I am not an Eastern Shore woman - but some of the very happiest times of my life have been spent on the "Eastern Sho" of Maryland. I love it! and very personally resent the constant use of the "Eastern Shore" in connection