Miss Hairston, Sgt. Scales Wed

MARTINSVILLE, Va. — Miss Elizabeth Hairston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manch Helton of this city, became the bride of Sgt. James Royce Scales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Via Scales of Henry County, Christmas Day, at the First Baptist Church, East Martinsville.

Dr. R. T. Anderson officiated.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Lessie Carter, organist, played.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a wedding gown fashioned with a fitted lace bodice, sweetheart necklace and long sleeves which ended in a point over the hands. The full skirt of net fell into a train, and her full-length veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet.

Sister Attends

Miss Annie Helton, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a blue gown with fitted taffeta bodice and full net skirt styled similar to that of the bride. The bridegroom's brother, Edward Scales, was the best man; and the head ushers were Paul Martin and Otis Perkins. The bride's only two maids were Misses Alice Trott and Doris Perkins. Rosa Helton served as the train bearer.

A reception, given by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Perkins, was held at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony.
