MISS HOLTON A BRIDE

Event One of the Most Elaborate Social Functions on the Eastern Shore for Many Years.

CENTREVILLE, MD., May 16.—In St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church this evening Miss Henrietta McKenney Holton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Layton Holton, became the bride of John Goshorn Shearer, son of Mrs. Shearer and the late Robert H. Shearer, of Cumberland, Md.

The Rev. Robert F. Gibson, of Williamsport, Pa., uncle by marriage of the bride, and the Rev. A. B. Conger, rector of St. Paul's, officiated.

In the wedding party were 24 participants. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. The procession moved to and returned from the altar in a uniquely arranged drill that took in the entire church, including the aisles and the transept.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert F. Gibson, of Williamsport, Pa., an aunt of the bride. She was gowned in white crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of white lilacs. The maids of honor, Miss Susan B. Mitchell, cousin of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Shearer, sister of the bridegroom, were costumed in flowered chiffon, brocaded with yellow satin. They carried long-stemmed r d roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth Hersch, of New Oxford, Pa.; Hazel Everitt, of Waterbury, Conn.; Elsie Foxwell, of Baltimore, who were chums of Miss Holton at National Park Seminary; Helen Biggs of Middletown, Del., and Elizabeth Neal Brown and Margaret Spencer Corkran, of Centreville, wore white shadow lace, trimmed with cloth of gold. They carried shower bouquets of red roses. Misses Martha Rolph and Mary Kerr Keating, of Centreville; Eleanor Goldsborough, of Baltimore, and Elizabeth Gadd, of Hartford, Conn., wore white gowns with gold sashes, and carried baskets of white and yellow daisies. The ribbon girls, Misses Maria McKenney, of Centreville, and Martha Goldsborough, of Baltimore, were garbed similar to the flower girls.

The bride's gown was an exquisite imported creation of brocaded white satin trimmed with pearls and with duchesse lace that was worn by her mother when she married Mr. Holton. A duchesse lace cap also worn by Mrs. Holton, caught up the daughter's wavy brown hair. The bride wore no ornaments, but carried a bouquet of white orchids. The wedding music was played by Misses Mary Earle Forman and Jennie Mae Howser, her girlhood friend.

Following the marriage ceremony, for which 1200 invitations were issued, a reception was held at the Holton home, on Commerce street, at which there were 400 invited guests. At its conclusion Mr. and Mrs Shearer left in a Cadilac roadster, one of the bridegroom's ante-nuptial presents to the bride, for an extended honeymoon trip in sections they refused to reveal. Mrs. Shearer's going-away gown was a duvetyn tango suit trimmed with Roman silk, with hat to match.

Mr. Shearer was attended at the wedding by F. F. Metzger, of Bedford, Pa., as best man. The ushers were W. Layton Holton, Jr., of Baltimore, brother of the bride; William McKenney, Jr., and J. K. H. Jacobs, of Centreville, her first cousins; A. B. Brook, of West Chester, Pa.; A. P. Graham, of Hagerstown, Md., and M. Worthington Bordley, of Centreville.

The bride's maternal grandfather was the late Gen. William McKenney. Mr. Shearer is junior partner of the Vang-Shearer Construction Company, of Cumberland, and is well known throughout Western Maryland. After the honeymoon tour Mr. and Mrs. Shearer will make their home in Cumberland.

Among those who attended the Holton-Shearer nuptials in Centreville Saturday were: Mr and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Miss Louisa Urie, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Perkins and daughter, Miss Anna, Mrs. R D Hynson and daughter, Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bradley, Senator and Mrs. W. W. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Perkins, Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. George Brice, Capt. C. E Crane and daughter, Miss Louise, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barroll, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Stollenwerck.

School Notes.—The Literary Society of the Chestertown High School held its semi-monthly meeting Friday in Assembly Hall. An excellent program was rendered and a debate on the subject, "Resolved That Panama Canal Tolls Exemption Should be repealed" decided in the negative. Miss Helen and Roy Barnett represented the negative, while Miss Alice Skipper and Chaplain Willis took the affirmative. The judges were Prof. Creasy, Harry Rouse and Miss Eva Duyer; critic, Miss Smith; The following is the program rendered: music, report af secretary, new business; declamation, Miss Nettie Graham and Talmage Strong; impromptu question; music, vocal duet, Misses Clara Coleman and Louise Armstrong; debate; music, instrumental solo, Rebecca Moffett. The following officers were elected: Harry Derringer, president; Ralph Usilton, vice president; Rebecca Bennett, recording secretary; Nettie Maslin, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Oppenlander, one of the Chautauqua workers, was in town Friday and made an interesiing address to the pupils of the Chestertown High School telling them of the treat that was in store for them this summer. Mrs. Oppenlander said it was her intention this summer during Chautauqua week, to take the children long hikes through the country and explain different things about the woods and streams which most of them did not know.

MAKES RHEUMATISM PROMPTLY DISAPPEAR

Chronic, Crippled-up Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of New Remedy are Taken

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism, and be all crippled up, and bent out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can surely avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood, the poisonous waste matter and uric acid; and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly cure you.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves all the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter all the poisons from the blood and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overcome urinary disorders.
